NOTICE TO THE INHABITANTS OF NEW MEXICO.

The Surveyor General of New Mexico, by [illegible] of Congress approved on the 22d July, 1854, is required to "make a full report on all such claims as originated before the acquisition of New Mexico by the United States, who the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo of 1848 designating the [illegible] with his decision thereon as to the validity of each of the claims under the laws, usages, and customs of the Republic of Mexico, to the United States Minister [illegible] to be submitted in report to Congress. [illegible] the Territory, showing the extent and [illegible] each, stating the number of inhabitants in the Pueblos respectively, and the nature of their title to the land. Such report to be made according to the form which may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior; which report shall be laid before Congress for such action thereon as may be deemed just and proper with a view to confirming such grants and give full effect to the Treaty of 1848 between the United States and Mexico.

Claimants in Texas, [illegible] a written notice of their claim, [illegible] of land, [illegible] nature of title, [illegible] date of title, [illegible] are required to set forth the quantity claimed, the boundaries and extent of the grant claimed.

"The decision of said letters, and if said claims are not presented within three years, they will be forever barred.

LEVI PIEGELBERG, Administrator.

power and authority under [illegible] officer may have act—quantity claimed, locality, state and extent of conflicting claims, if any, with reference to the documentary evidence and testimony relied upon to establish the claim, and to show transfer of right from the original grantee" to present claimant."

Every claimant will also be required to furnish an authentic sketch of Survey. If a survey has been executed, or other evidence, showing the [illegible] bounds and extent of the grant claimed.

To enable the Surveyor General to execute the duty thus imposed on him, by law, he has to request all those individuals who claimed lands in New Mexico before the treaty of 1848, to provide the evidence of such claims at this office at Santa Fe, as soon as possible.

TO DONATION CLAIMANTS.

The act of Congress, above referred to, grants 160 acres of land to every white male citizen of the United States, or every white male above the age of 21 years, who has declared his intention to become a citizen, now residing in New Mexico and who was so residing prior to 1st January 1853; and to every white male citizen of the United States, and to every white male above the age of 21 years, who has declared his intention to become a citizen, who was residing in the Territory on the 1st January 1853 or who shall remove to and settle there at any time prior to the 1st January 1856 the same law also grants 160 acres of public land.

No claim to any such donation is valid unless the land has or shall be settled on, and cultivated for four successive years; and no such donation claim is allowed to interfere in any manner with any claim recognized by the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo.

All individuals claiming the benefit of such donation will find it to their interest to give the fullest possible information to the Surveyor General as to the localities of their settlements in order to enable him to direct his surveying operations accordingly. The localities in each county shall be described as distinctly as possible in reference to any and all notable objects in the vicinity.

Given under my hand at my office at Santa Fe this 18 day of Jan. A. D. 1855.

WILLIAM PELHAM,
Surveyor General of New Mexico.

Santa Fe, Jan. 27, 1855.—1y.-34.

Alburquerque Exchange.

LOUIS F. BARTELS, PROPRIETOR.

The above named establishment is now open for the accommodation of travelers and others, in Alburquerque New Mexico. The table will be supplied with the best the market affords, and the bar with the choicest liquors. The house contains comfortable rooms for the accommodation of strangers, and attached, are good stables for animals.

Alburquerque N. M.
January 28th 1855.—6. m.

THE subscribers offer for sale by private contract the premises commonly known as Barclays Fort on the Mora river, embracing the title to a large tract of land, 200 acres of which is under cultivation, with a good grist mill attached, and inexhaustable timber in the neighborhood.

The fine unbounded surrounding pasturage and convenient watering places manifest its excellence as a grazing locality, its desirable position at the junction of the two main routes from the United States to Santa Fe via Cimarron river and Raton mountain is further enhanced by the establishment of a military post in the vicinity thus presenting to the industrious and persevering special for extraordinary lucrative advantages unsurpassed by any in N. Mexico.

Terms accommodating as the parties are desirous to engage in other business, and can be taken with or without the crop as now standing.

If not disposed of before the 10th day of March 1855 it will then be put up at auction on the premises and sold to the highest bidder.
