Be Something or Somebody

Look at the people on the opposite side of the railway from you. Look carefully at every conductor, every clerk, every brakeman you have passed every morning. You are some of the people who are holding those positions that are worth something. Look at the people in those positions. Notice how fast and healthy they look. Look at their eyes. Look at their mouths. Look at their shoulders. Look at their general appearance. Look at their clothes. Look at their hats. Look at their shoes. Look at their general appearance. Look at their manner. Look at their general appearance. Look at their general appearance. Look at their general appearance
