THE WAR.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE

Victor Hugo's View of the Situation.

REPORTED SURRENDER OF METZ.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Times says: M Thiers, in his visit to England, is doubtless authorized to express the views of his government touching peace. We hope those views may be accepted as the basis of negotiations. The conditions will probably embrace the dismantling of Metz and Strasburg, or their occupation for three years by the Germans. If the terms are at all reasonable, England will back them.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, discussing the mission of Thiers to the neutral powers, hopes he will carry home a conviction favorable to peace. To do so he must sacrifice many prejudices and absolute ideas. He will then set France a great example, and make his own influence more powerful than ever.

The American Consul at Havre has been saluted by a succession of enthusiastic demonstrations.

Very great excitement still prevails at Paris and other continental capitals, regarding American mediation.

There is good authority for believing that definite propositions for peace will be offered in behalf of the provisional government of Paris, and that Thiers is authorized to lay them before the British Government, whose intervention is solicited. The terms are as follows:

Payment to Prussia of the war expenses; destruction of all forts in Alsace and Lorraine; temporary occupation of Metz and Strasburg by German troops until the election of an authorized government for France and the ratification of a treaty by the proper authorities.

A Paris letter of the 12th says: Yesterday I obtained an interview with Victor Hugo. He has determined to address a special appeal to the American people.

"Since you saw me last," he said, "the snows of many years have whitened my head, but years of exile have not deadened my heart. Desolation fills France to-day. My grief at sight of the misfortunes which have befallen this unhappy land is too poignant to express in words.

"This is the work of a man who is now expiating his crimes. But why should not the conqueror be satisfied with the blood of so many victims already sacrificed by this unholy ambition? Why should the King of Prussia, who declared that he warred not upon the people of France, not be content now that his antagonist has been stricken and has disappeared from the scene of action?

"The fall of Bonaparte allows me to return to my home after an exile of nineteen years. Is it right that we should be slaughtered on our hearths because Prussia was provoked by a criminal whom Providence has overtaken?

"It will be an eternal disgrace to the King of Prussia if he refuses to sheath his bloody sword now that the cause is gone that induced him to draw it.

"The people of Germany are as humane as they are courageous. Their King mistakes their sentiments if he thinks it is their wish to prolong this frightful butchery and degrade the nation which has been dragged into the conflict.

"Will not the United States, the common home of so many Germans and French, will not its citizens, if the government refuses to make a Christian effort to extinguish this horrid torch of war, will not the elder sister of our young republic stretch forth the hand of remonstrance at the untold calamities which afflict us here?

LONDON, Sept. 14.—The North German Gazette says Prussia is not bound to recognize the French provisional government, and the Prussian Cross Gazette says if Prussia does so to-day she will be obliged to recognize Rochefort's friends to-morrow.

Mr. Washburne, American minister, in response to another popular demonstration in Paris, said the French were entitled to expect the largest moral support.

FLORENCE, Sept. 13.—A proclamation has been issued by the King to the Romans. He says that peace, order and self-government, not war, has been brought and is offered by the Italians, and the Papacy will remain inviolate. Demonstrations were made at Terrancia in favor of Italian occupation, and the Papal troops refused to fight against the national soldiers.

PARIS, Sept. 13.—It is said that the main body of the Prussians arrived at a point within twenty-five miles from Paris yesterday.

The exact position of the Prussian advance is unknown. According to various accounts the enemy has arrived at Maux, Lagny and Melun.

LONDON, Sept. 13—5 p.m.—It is rumored on the streets that Metz has surrendered unconditionally. While no official advices are at hand the news is credited at the Prussian embassy.

—Fine French calf boots, and gents wear generally—custom work—may be found at Elliot, Haythorn & Co's, at lower prices than elswhere in the city. tf

For a glass of splendid St. Louis lager beer—the best in the city—go to the Washingtoon saloon, corner Washington avenue and Fifteenth street. tf

—The Aurora oil is perfectly clear, is non-explosive; it will give entire satisfaction, and can be had at 95 Ohio Levee for the inconsiderable sum of 30 cents per gallon. tf

FRUIT JARS.

Parsons, Davis & Co., at, Nos. 5 & 7 Tenth street, have received their second large stock of Fruit Jars for the summer trade, which they are offering at much lower figures than last year's figures.

Good Glass Jars at $1 50 per doz.; Mason's, "Hamilton," at $1 75 per doz. Mason's "Excelsior" at $2 00 per doz. Call and examine at the QUEENSWARE HOUSE. tf —For ladies, misses and children's shoes of all styles and prices, for ladies fancy and hair goods; for gentleman's custom work shoes, etc., go to the city shoe store, corner of Eighth street and Commercial avenue. A new supply has just been opened there. 6t

ENOCH MORGAN'S SONS'

SAPOLIO

The superiority of this excellent preparation over any other article ever offered to the public has been demonstrated by the wonderful popularity it has attained within the brief year since it was first manufactured. Not less than are to-day using Sapolio in this and other countries, and the demand is rapidly increasing.

Bath brick, rotten stone, acid and lye are no longer a necessity in the household, since Sapolio does the work of each and all these, and with far less labor and expense.

The following are a few of the special uses to which Sapolio is admirably adapted:

TO CLEAN WINDOWS—Without wetting carpets or soiling the paint. Take a wet cloth, not dripping, rub it over the cake of sapolio until it is covered with a creamy lather, and then briskly over the pane of glass; clean off and polish with dry cloth or chamois. To remove varnish or dried paint will require a little extra rubbing.

TO CLEAN KNIVES—Use your dish-cloth, rub it on the sapolio, and then rapidly over the knives. This will give a brilliant and durable polish, without scratching.

TO POLISH TIN, BRASS, and other Culinary Articles—Rub the damp cloth on the cake of Sapolio until well covered, and then quickly over the surface of the utensil. It will produce a lustre equal if not superior to the new.

TO CLEAN PAINT AND WOOD-WORK—Use Sapolio as above; do not rub too hard, and rinse with cloth in clean water.

FOR HOUSE CLEANING—Sapolio is of the greatest value in the saving of time, labor and the wear of the articles cleansed. Try it once and you will never be without it.

FOR WASHING DISHES, Bath Tubs, Floors, Tables, etc.—Where soap was formerly used Sapolio is invaluable and once used, will never be dispensed with.

REMOVES STAIN FROM MARBLE.

IN THE HOUSE—For all purposes (except washing clothes), this article is convenient, economical and reliable.

IN THE STORE—For polishing scales, measures (tin, brass or copper), knives, shears, etc.

IN THE SHOP—For cleaning, polishing and removing gums, oil, etc., from machinery and tools.

IN THE OFFICE—of the surgeon, dentist, civil engineer, painter and engraver.

IN ALL PLACES where a cleansing and polishing agent, at once effective, economical and harmless, is required, our Sapolio will prove its great superiority over all other substances.

FOR HAND WASHING—Sapolio is just what every painter, painter, photographer or machinist needs. It quickly removes acids, paint, ink and other stains from the hands, which soap will not touch. It softens the hands and leaves them smooth and white.

CHARTER OAK STOVES

The demand for Charter Oak, Challenge and Evening Star Stoves has grown so rapidly of late that we have not filled orders as promptly as desirable; but having now secured the assistance of another stove Foundry, we shall hereafter confine nearly the entire force of our own establishment to the production of the stoves above named and hope to fill all orders without delay.

We would call the attention of those about purchasing, to the success and popularity of all of these Stoves. No better evidence of their intrinsic merit can be offered than a statement of the fact, that after 18 years use and being subject to severe tests in all kinds of localities, and to the most bitter and determined opposition that could be invented, that they are to-day, the

Most Popular Stoves in the Market,
