LILLIAN B. HYDE WINS GOLF TITLE FOR FOURTH TIME

Outplays Mrs. Joseph E. Davis in Final Match of Metropolitan Tournament.

CHAMPION WINS 4 AND 3.

High Wind Annoys Both Contestants in Big Match on Sleepy Hollow Links.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SLEEPY HOLLOW COUNTRY COUNTRY CLUB, N. Y., May 28.—Miss Lillian B. Hyde of South Shore successfully defended her title in the final round of the women's metropolitan gold championship over the Sleepy Holow links here to-day, defeating Mrs. Joseph E. Davis of Piping Rock by the score of 4 and 3. It was the fourth time the Long Island girl won the honor.

Mrs. Davis, who only competed in her first tournament last autumn, surprised the gallery with a remarkably plucky exhibition, but she was outclassed in every feature of the game.

A high wind developed when the two fair golfers began their match. It reached the proportion of a gale on the many high holes that dot the local course. Frequently the wind would balloon balls off the line, which gave both contestants considerable annoyance.

Miss Hyde, a little erratic in spots, defeated Mrs. Davis on her rare ability to make long drives. The Piping Rock woman succeeded in holding her hard-hitting opponent even on the short holes, but fared poorly over the long stretches.

Miss Hyde began sensationally by winning the first four holes and held this lead to the turn. The champion, growing careless, lost the twelfth and thirteenth holes, but quickly recovered and captured the next two, the match terminating on the fifteenth green.

Miss Hyde on the first hole had a perfect drive and followed with a midiron shot dead to the hole for an easy putt. This was a stroke under par. Mrs. Davis was on in two, but needed three putts.

At the second Miss Hyde just missed a short putt for a three. Mrs. Davis on the next hole sopped her drive and required three to land on the green, while her opponent pitched her second to the edge of the green.

The champion increased her lead when Mrs. Davis went wide on her approach. The fifth was halved in five.

On the 400-yard sixth hole, the plateau, Miss Hyde lost her first hole, where a topped drive, a pull into the rough and a bad recovery were responsible for eight strokes, while Mrs. Davis, who was more on the line, was home in seven.

Miss Hyde regained the lost hole at the seventh, where Mrs. Davis needed three putts to get down in six.

The next two holes were halved, the champion coming to the turn 4 up.

The South Shore girl increased her lead at the tenth, a beautiful mashie shot winning the hole. At this point the match was very one-sided and the end seemed near, but Mrs. Davis rallied smartly and managed to halve the eleventh, a long putt doing the trick. She followed this up by capturing the difficult twelfth, where Miss Hyde got in trouble by topping her drive and playing the second into a trap.

At the short thirteenth Mrs. Davis put her tee shot squarely on the green, while her opopnent was short. The Piping Rock woman needed three putts and Miss Hyde a like number.

Again at the fourteenth Miss Hyde had trouble with her drives and didn't get the same distance as her opponent, but Mrs. Davis tossed away a fine chance with poor work on the green, which permitted the champion to halve the hole in five. At the 223-yard fifteenth hole Miss Hyde went straight and true to the green in two and was home in five. Mrs. Davis was short off the tee and required two more shots to reach the green. She had a hard putt for a five, but missed, giving Miss Hyde the hole and match.

The cards:

Miss Hyde out—3 4 5 4 4 3 5 6 4—43
Mrs. Davis out—5 5 6 5 4 6 6 6 4—47
Miss Hyde in—5 6 7 5 5 5
Mrs. Davis in—7 6 6 4 5 6

MISS LILLIAN B. HYDE, WHO AGAIN CAPTURES WOMAN'S GOLF TITLE.

HARVARD GRADUATES SNUB "PRO" COACHES

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 27.—Nongraduate coaches at Harvard are being rather roughly handled by the graduates of the university. Coach Wray of the crew squad is the latest coach to be snubbed. He was not invited to the dinner given the victorious varsity eight on its return from Ithaca. Coaches Donovan and Powers of the track team have also been snubbed.

FISTIC NEWS AND GOSSIP

By John Pollock

Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, has changed his mind about not fighting before July 4, and is signed up for three battles to be fought before the Canadian A. C. next month. He will first take on Sammy Taylor, the Western lightweight, on June 2, then he will go against Eddie Wallace of Brooklyn on June 9 and on the night of June 15 he clashes with Frankie Fleming, the Canadian champion. All three bouts will be for ten rounds.

Charley Weinert, the Newark heavyweight, was matched to-day by John Weismantel to fight Battling Levinsky at Ebbets Field in Brooklyn on Monday afternoon. Dan "Porky" Flynn was to have fought Levinsky, but as Flynn fights Colin Bell at the Fairmont A. C. to-morrow night, Weismantel was afraid Flynn might get hurt.

Benny Leonard, the lightweight of Harlem, and Joe Rivers, the Mexican fighter of California, are as good as matched for a ten-round bout to be staged at the next show of the American Sporting Club in two weeks. Billy McCarney, matchmaker of the club, told the writer that he had Rivers booked and that he expected Billy Gibson to accept for Leonard.

Discouraged over his quick knockout by Frank Moran in London several weeks ago, Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight, decided to fight for his country and has enlisted as a private in a Welsh regiment. Wells declined on several occasions to go to war, but as he came to the conclusion that he could not get any more bouts he agreed to join the colors.

As the Irving A. C. of Brooklyn has not been drawing big crowds at their boxing shows for several weeks, Fred Bonner, owner of the club, told the writer last night that after to-morrow night's entertainment he would not run any more shows until the latter part of August or the first week in September.

Gunboat Smith and Charley Weinert have been practically signed up for a ten-round go to be fought under the auspices of the Broadway Sporting Club of Brooklyn at an open air show to be held in the afternoon at Ebbets Field two weeks from to-morrow. The managers of both men have already accepted the terms offered them by promoter Weismantel.

Two good boxing shows will be held to-night. At the Long Acre A. C., Kid Davis vs. Battling Burke and Kid Saxby vs. Al Ketchell in ten-round bouts. At the New Polo A. A. of Harlem, Danny Burke vs. Young Jimmy, Billy Kelly vs. Banty Sharp, Battling Henry vs. Johnny Schwartz and Harvey Crosby vs. Young Mykins in ten-round contests.

If Mike Gibbons remains in this vicinity he will surely make more money than he could in the West. Mike will get over $2,700 in two battles. He received over $1,200 for beating Leo Houck and will get a guarantee for $1,500 for fighting Soldier Bartfield in Brooklyn on Monday afternoon.

Moving pictures will be taken of the Jim Coffey-Jim Flynn contest at the Brighton Beach Racetrack on Monday night. Interest in the fight increases daily, and several of the large film-producing companies have made the Brighton Beach management an offer to take the film. Billy Gibson has also received an order from a theatrical syndicate in Ireland for a film of Jim Coffey.

Realizing that he can get many good bouts at the local clubs if he is successful in defeating Dan "Porky" Flynn at the Fairmont A. C. to-morrow night, Colin Bell, the champion heavyweight of Australia, to-day declared that he will fight his hardest in order to stop his opponent. Bell is in fine condition for the encounter.

Jerry Pelton, manager of Gardner Brooks, the promising New England bantam, is anxious to match his boy against Battling Reddy or Frankie Burns. Brooks boxes Joe Daley at the closing show of the Irving A. C. to-morrow night.

MAY WORST MONTH IN BASEBALL HISTORY.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The present month of May from the standpoint of the baseball magnate has been the worst in the history of the game, according to Federal League officials, who announced this afternoon the eight postponement in the last sixteen contests scheduled for Chicago. Weather Bureau reports say that it has rained here twenty-one days out of the twenty-eight so far, which is believed to be a record. Every Eastern club in the Federal League suffered postponement of one or more games in Chicago on the present swing around the circuit.

ENGLISH JOCKEY CLUB CANCELS DERBY AT EPSOM.

LONDON, May 28.—The English Jockey Club has called off the Derby, which was scheduled to be run at Epsom next Wednesday.

MISS VERA RAMSAY, ENGLISH PLAYER, WINS BOSTON TITLE

NEWTON, Mass., May 28.—Miss Vera Ramsay of the Leatherhead Club of Surrey, England, playing from the Salem Golf Club, won the championship of the Boston Woman's Golf Association to-day by defeating Miss Margaret Curtis of the Country Club, the titleholder and three times National champion, 7 up and 6 to play.

Playing dead to the pin from every tee, Miss Ramsay looked the winner from the start. Although Miss Curtis was wild and continually playing the odd, it was evident that her best game was much below that of her British opponent.

At the conclusion of the match Miss Ramsay said that she hoped to remain in this country until fall and would probably enter the National Woman's Championship in October.

Friedman Outpoints Murray.

Out of the four star bouts scheduled to go ten rounds each at the Long Acre Athletic Club last night only one went the limit, that between Abe Friedman, former amateur bantamweight champion, and Jimmy Murray, the hard hitting east sider. Murray didn't fight his best. Friedman's cleverness and left jabs to his opponent's jaw enabled him to get the better of the mill. The other bouts were poorly contested.
