Luxembourg Gems, Roll's French Art, A Knoedler Show

A notable collection of miniatures and enamels by Alfred Philippe Roll, originally assembled for exhibition at the Albright Art Gallery at Buffalo, N. Y., is now and until Oct. 16, being shown at the gallery of M. Knoedler & Co., No. 556 Fifth Avenue.

The catalogue, which contains twenty-four illustrations, deals with sixty-nine miniatures. Included in the exhibition are portraits of three Presidents of France and other famous personages. There are original sketches of paintings for the Palace of Versailles and other works. Portraits of the Luxembourg treasures that were buried after the Prussian bombardments began are also in the present showing at Knoedler's.

All of the paintings have been exhibited at different times at the salons.

"The Young Regent," study of a boy in the Luxembourg collection, [illegible] It is a very striking figure and [illegible] the vivacity of national [illegible] which [illegible] quite to a [illegible] The red-haired [illegible] with a portrait of the Empress Marie Louise, an [illegible] in miniature, [illegible] presented. The [illegible] is happily [illegible] and the old Louvre can [illegible] the [illegible] in its [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible]

"Fragile of Fibre of the Roll" is a sympathetic study of peasant life. Mother and child and the father are introduced most effectively.

"Small Ceiling" pictures an effective nude in mild off with waving arms and a sculptured body that is superimposed upon a sky background.

"Fleeting Child on Horseback" was shown in the Salon of 1905. It is a portrait of one of the sons of the artist. The canvas is a large one, the horse and his rider are spectacular. The hot bodies but upraised crop very decorously in the landscape setting the painter has given him, and those are two dogs introduced at the left that add an appropriate note.

"Between Heaven" is lightly [illegible] the [illegible] rider.

"Dead Woman and Child" (green background) introduces concentrated pathos, but is simply barbarous in detail. In all of its cruel barbarity it is, nevertheless, highly masterful in its execution.

Some if not all of the portraits are characterized by hardness.

$3,400 IN PRIZES FOR BILLIARD TOURNEY.

SIX of the best billiardists in the country will compete in a handicap tournament at 18.2 balk line next month. The first game will be played on Nov. 15. The tournament will be staged in the New York Theatre Concert Hall.

Willie Hoppe, the champion, will be on scratch. Hoppe has had an easy time, holding his various titles for some time. Many billiard followers are now wondering whether he will be able to allow handicaps and still remain supreme in the billiard world. The handicaps will be announced later.

The billiardists will divide $3,400. Of this amount $900 will be from entry fees, each player paying $150 to enter. The other $2,500 will be added, the winner to receive $1,000 and the second man $750. The other money will be divided as follows: Third, $600; fourth, $400; fifth, $350; sixth, $300.

A. A. U. WILL ABANDON MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

The Amateur Athletic Union will probably pass up Madison Square Garden in selecting a place to hold the indoor championship meets. These events will probably be held in one of the big armories. Last year the A. A. U. lost $800 on its championships. This loss can be offset, says F. W. Rubien, by engaging an armory. The New York A. C. is also considering holding its games in an armory.

WOMEN GOLFERS IN INVITATION TOURNEY ON LINKS AT SHAWNEE

Mrs. Krug of Englewood With 105 Qualified in First Sixteen.

SHAWNEE, Pa., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Charles Krug of Englewood, N. J., and Miss Mildred Scott of Chicago were among the starters yesterday in the annual invitation golf tournament at the Shawnee Country Club. Mrs. Krug with a score of 105 qualified in the first sixteen.

James C. Farrish jr. of New York with a card of 82 had the best score in the 18-hole qualifying round. B. H. Worthington of the home club was second with 85.

The Eastern Golf Trade Association opened a tournament yesterday on the links of the Essex County Country Club. More than fifty members started. The leading prize was won by W. A. McPhail with 86—15—71. E. S. Aitkin won the second net prize with 89—17—72, while W. C. Matthews was third with 96—22—76. McPhail also led the field in the match play against bogey, finishing 5 up, but the rule that no player can take two prizes deprived him of the trophy. W. B. Lasher and Aitkin, each of whom finished all square, were therefore brought into a tie, but Aitkin's previous success left Lasher the winner.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 8.—J. Gordon Douglas of the Piping Rock Club, Milton Wilson and W. R. Simons were eliminated in the golf tournament here yesterday. Douglas won the qualifying trophy on Wednesday. Wilson eliminated Douglas and was himself defeated by Dr. C. H. Gardner.

11-MILE PRACTICE ROW FOR COLUMBIA CREWS.

Twenty-eight Columbia freshmen reported yesterday for practice. They will be in charge of Assistant Coach Fred Plaisted. Coach Rice is giving the varsity squad plenty of work so as to get them into condition for the race against Yale on Nov. 13. The crews rowed about eleven miles on the Hudson yesterday.

It became known yesterday that D. H. Ferris, who rowed at No. 7 in the Poughkeepsie regatta last June, will be unable to row this year because of parental objections.

PETER SCOTT FIRST IN ANOTHER BIG TROT RACE

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—Peter Scott, with driver by Tom Murphy, won the Kentucky Futurity, the chief attraction of the Grand Circuit card yesterday, in straight heats. Worthy prince was a close contender in the first two heats and Lucky Brown in the third, but the winner was not extended and won apparently as Murphy pleased.

In winning the Futurity Peter Scott defeated Wednesday Veteran "Pop" Geers drove Napoleon Direct to a victory that broke the world's record for the fifth heat in a five-heat pari-mutuel, finishing the mile in 2:01¾.

It Is the Same Story Everywhere.

Olean, N. Y.—"I doctored for female and kidney trouble. The physicians' medicine did not do me much good. I had read 'Pleasant Pellets' and found them very good. This gave me confidence in Dr. Pierce's other remedies, so I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made me much better. I was satisfied with the medicine and glad to recommend it. In my case two bottles were needed to get the results I wanted." MRS. W. FAIRBANKS, 508 First Avenue.—Adv.

CHALLENGE SALE!

I am showing in my New York stores today six different styles of fine Dublin twisted worsted, 14 to 16 oz. in weight, every thread absolutely all wool and silk. I challenge any tailor or ready-made clothier in the city of New York to show equal value under $20.00. My salesmen are instructed, under no condition, to sell either of these styles for a price greater than Nine Dollars and Seventy-Five Cents. I want a record month of October. I consider this the greatest value that I have ever given, and a letter to my New York stores will bring a number of samples, by return mail, that I want every customer to put to every possible test to prove their quality. The mill that manufactured these goods is as fine as there is in the country, and they are sold to me with the express understanding that I am not to use the name of the mill in my advertisements. Goods are absolutely perfect, medium grays to browns in shade, and any man putting this suit in a wardrobe of clothing costing five times the price need never be ashamed of the cut, style and finish.

In my Challenge Sale I offer United States Worsted Company's Blue Serge, guaranteed Lizerine dyed (if the color changes for the life of the garment I make a new suit free), three-piece suit to order, Nine Dollars and Seventy-Five Cents.

Black Unfinished Worsted, Fancy Mixed Cheviots, Tweeds and Novelties, single suit lengths, nearly every one of which have enough goods for three pieces, and no tailor could buy the fabrics under ordinary conditions and make to order for less than $25.00. My price, suit to order, Nine Dollars and Seventy-Five Cents.

Any Overcoat on This Line—Take Your Pick—$6.50

I show, herewith, a rack of Overcoats that is located in each of my stores. On top of this rack is a sign, "Take Your Pick, Any Overcoat in This Rack Ready to Wear Out" 6.50

Of course, clothing dealers in this town don't like a $6.50 price on overcoats, and they might try to give you the impression that these coats are inferior cut, poorly-made garments. I challenge any clothier in New York to produce equal goods, with equal cutting and designing, under $20.00. I am trying to keep one hundred and fifty of these coats in each store all the time. That would give me variety of sizes. I don't say I won't run out of sizes, but if you see something you like at $6.50, I am keeping my shops working overtime during the dull season to supply me with a great quantity of these coats, and my man can assure you of a satisfactory coat at this price.

Signed
