6 Firemen Killed by Falling Walls.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 11.—While firemen were at work among the ruins of burned buildings yesterday a brick wall toppled over and buried them. E. M. Sherwood was instantly killed and G. L. Williams and W. E. O'Dell died at a hospital. Two others were perhaps fatally injured. The fire, which destroyed a tobacco warehouse, did damage estimated at $100,000.

Killed While Trying Up Car for Race.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 11.—Douglas Gray of Lima was instantly killed and Clarence Robinson of this city, a night chauffeur, was probably fatally injured when an automobile which they were racing to for the Ohio amateur championship 100-mile race skidded and overturned at the Driving Park track here yesterday.

G.O.P. MAKES BLUFF FOR CONSTITUTION; CROSSES FINGERS

Campaign Ordered, But No One Will Be Harmed for Voting Against Measure.

TAMMANY IS SILENT.

Word Is Passed Along, However, That Democrats May Vote as They Please.

Orders have been given the Republican organization of New York County for its district leaders and captains to start a campaign in favor of the new Constitution, although it is well understood that no man will lose favor if he votes against it.

On the other hand the Democratic organizations both of State and city are keeping officially non-committal about the Constitution, but quietly the word has been passed down for you that the rank and file are at liberty to vote against it.

Tammany has adopted a policy of neutrality toward the Constitution. No action will be taken by the organization either to indorse or to denounce the proposition. Likewise the Democratic State Committee is holding off from having a meeting so that the subject cannot be brought up.

Democratic difficulties in New York City arise from dividing of sentiment in the ranks. This particularly prevails in Manhattan. Most of Tammany's district leaders and election district captains are opposed to the constitution and openly denounce it, but the big leaders are obliged to keep silent because of influences "higher up."

The Wall Street and corporation end of Tammany is for the constitution and demands that the party support it. Among the men of this class are William F. Sheehan, former counsel to Thomas F. Ryan and now counsel to J. P. Morgan; Delancy Nicoll, lawyer for many large corporations; Morgan J. O'Brien, whose affiliations are the same, and William N. Dykman, of Brooklyn, counsel to the B. R. T. interests, all of whom voted for the constitution in the convention and were in harmonious alliance with the Republican Federalist group headed by Elihu Root, George W. Wickersham and Henry L. Stimson.

In real political circles this week is being devoted to analyzing the registration figures, sifting out signs of party and preparing for active campaigning in Republican and Democratic districts. The Republicans will arrange other performances, at which Mitchel, "Bill" Barnes and Senator Lodge, head of the party affairs, will be devoted to unity and district candidates for local offices, leaving for others in the Republican campaign in 1916.

The Republicans will hide behind behind District Attorney Perlman and Frank Moss, candidate for Sheriff, and in doing so expect that in winning at the conference they will campaign singing "Don't let Tammany organize by letting this project go by. We have gained and the Democrats are right now. It will serve to make the Tiger stronger for next year and 1917."

Analysis of registration figures leads Republican leaders to assert that Tammany is weaker leader in the old strongholds districts of Manhattan than ever before. They point to the large falling off in downtown regions, from which people have moved uptown and to the suburbs. County Chairman Koenig says that the Republicans are steadily gaining ground in Manhattan through Tammany losses.

If Frank Moss, as an independent candidate for District Attorney, can be induced to withdraw, Republican leaders have strong hopes of electing Charles A. Perkins. There is small chance, they admit, for Frank Bowers, candidate for Sheriff, as Alfred E. Smith, Tammany candidate, is conceded to be the most popular vote getter in town.

If the new Constitution is adopted the Board of Aldermen will reduce from the city into new Assembly districts. This is causing hard fighting for new jobs for Aldermanic candidates. A great deal of distortion of authority in this connection has been discovered by political leaders. The Board of Aldermen, sitting as one body, and authorized by the entire city, but the members elected from every borough will have authority and attempt to dictate to their own districts.

Thus the Republicans expect to get a majority of the Aldermen in Brooklyn and control redistricting there. Democrats will have a majority in Manhattan and make the Aldermen there to suit themselves. Similar conditions will prevail in Bronx, Queens and Richmond.

Registration for the entire city, which closed Saturday night, shows an increase of 18,738 as compared with last year. The figures are as follows:

HOLY NAME SOCIETIES OF JERSEY ON PARADE

The Holy Name Societies of New Jersey held their annual parade and exercises as a demonstration of manhood, religious affiliation in various centres, one of the largest being in Jersey City, where forty-five societies, estimated at the parade, numbered nearly 20,000 persons. The men paraded in Hoboken, Union Hill, Newark and Jersey City, Bergen and West Side Park.

The effect of dampness marched through the streets with brass bands and police escorts, thousands of by thousands of stately, well-dressed young men and men of middle life and every down Bergen Avenue into the park and past the reviewing stand.

Every man carried a little blue flag with the initials of the Holy Name Society upon it. The sidewalks were lined too deep with spectators.

Rabbi Ottenoff introduced the Rev. Father Sebastian, C. P., who delivered a short patriotic address.

No Wonder the Couple Shown in the Picture Is So Happy

"Wifie," says the husband in examining the furniture which has just been arranged in their new home, "this furniture is certainly some buy."

"Look at the grain of the wood—did you ever see prettier Mahogany—the pieces are well built too—we ought to be able to leave them in perfect condition to our heirs, if we have any. And to think that it only cost $95.00—and that's a cinch at a dollar and a half a week. No wonder Cowperthwait & Sons do such a big business."

This is the story of satisfaction that is voiced by a million wise New Yorkers who get their home things here.

The set shown in the picture is Modern English Style. Each piece has an unusually pretty lattice work design. All drawers are dustproof. Set includes the seven pieces illustrated.

Why don't YOU come in and look at one of these suites and the many others we offer at equally attractive prices.

The May Manton Fashions

No. 8799 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance.) Fancy Bodice, 34 to 42 inches Bust.
No. 8785 (With Basting Line and Added Seam Allowance.) Straight Skirt, three sizes—small 26 or 28, medium 30 or 32, large 34 or 36 inches Waist.

Women who plan their own wardrobes will have very deep interest in this design, for it shows very smart features. It is absolutely new and interesting and at the same time the gown is one of the simplest possible to make. The skirt is the simple, straight one, gathered at the upper edge, that is such a favorite of the season, but it is trimmed with ruffles that give a rich and beautiful effect. Here, the lace is approximately six inches in width, but a lace that may be liked can be used and the ruffles always should be placed at the lines that are most becoming to the special figure. Since lace only requires to be gathered and sewed on, the trimming is a very simple one to arrange. The bodice gives the guimpe effect that is so well liked, and the fronts are extended to form a sash at the back. Here, the bodice and the skirt are made of soft satin with all-over lace for the guimpe. The sleeves are among the prettiest of the season, open over the shoulders and finished with flaring cuffs, but if by any chance a day-time dress is wanted, the bodice can be transformed by adding a yoke and substituting long sleeves. There are numberless appropriate materials—satin, faille silk, and taffeta suggest themselves at once, but an equally good effect can be obtained by using chiffon for the skirt, the ruffles and for the guimpe portion of the bodice, with velvet used for the bodice itself and the sash.

For the medium size the bodice will require 1⅞ yards of material 36 inches wide, 1⅛ yards 44, with 1⅛ yards 36 inches wide for the guimpe portions; for the skirt will be needed 3⅞ yards 36 or 44 inches wide, with 14 yards of lace for the ruffles. The pattern of the bodice No. 8799 is cut in sizes from 34 to 42 inches bust measure, and of the skirt No. 8785 in three sizes—small 26 or 28, medium 30 or 32, large 34 or 36 inches waist measure.

How to Obtain These Patterns. Call at THE EVENING WORLD MAY MANTON FASHION BUREAU, Donald Building, 100 West Thirty-second Street (opposite Gimbel Bros.), corner Sixth Avenue and Thirty-second Street, New York, or sent by mail on receipt of ten cents in coin or stamps for each pattern ordered.
