Parties.

Mrs. Will S. Cromble informally asked a few friends to her home Saturday afternoon to meet her guest, Miss Ethel Cromble, of Montreal, Canada. The afternoon was spent informally sewing.

Miss Pauline Herrington, whose marriage will occur this week, was the guest of honor at a chafing dish party, given Saturday afternoon by Miss Vera Ballard, at her home on North Campbell street. White carnations and ferns decorated the rooms attractively. Games of various kinds entertained the guests. Mrs. J. C. Ballard was the prize winner. The guest of honor was presented with a prize. Assisting the hostess was her mother, Mrs. H. D. Ballard. The guests included Misses Pauline Herrington, Esther Herrington, Velma Casey, Palmer Kingsbury, Dorothy Winans, Era Thomas, Lila Thomas, Bernadine Schultz, Margaret Cunningham, Vernon Cunningham, Rena Shea, Juanita Smith, Kathryn Peak and Anna B. Murry; Mesdames H. D. Ballard, J. C. Ballard and H. N. Miller.

Thomas McCabe, jr., celebrated the sixth anniversary of his birthday with a party Saturday afternoon, at his home on Noble street, given in his honor by his mother, Mrs. Thomas McCabe. The decorations of the rooms were in pink and white carnations, and the favors carried out the Easter idea. Games of various kinds amused the guests during the afternoon. Refreshments were enjoyed. The birthday cake, frosted in white with pink decorations and pink candles, occupied the center of the table. Each guest cut his own slice of cake while making a birthday wish for the host. The guests were Elizabeth Finley, Josephine Klotts, Cordelia Augustine, Elizabeth Reaney, Johnnie McCabe, Betty Hawkins, Louise Hendricks, Ruth Silverman, Margery May McNary, Edith Anne Walthall, Florence LeBaron, Elizabeth Shannon, Eugenia McQuatters, Gregory Kranzthor, Phillip Crockett, Benjamin Madero, Max Krakauer, Julius Krakauer, James Kaster, W. Miss Adelaide Strong celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon at her home on Arizona and Newman streets, with a party given by her mother, Mrs. E. D. Strong. The rooms were decorated pleasingly with pink and white. Games of various kinds and dancing formed the afternoon's amusements. An Easter egg hunt was a pleasing feature of the party. The prize for this, a big toy stork, was won by Grace Stewart, who found the greatest number of Easter eggs. Refreshments were served from a prettily arranged table. From the chandelier, streamers of pink fell to each guest's plate with the place card attached to the end. In the center was a girl basket, containing colored Easter eggs. The basket was tied with a big, pink bow. The favors were small candy boxes upon which were little storks. The birthday cake and candles were of pnk and white and these colors were repeated in the ice course and mints. The young hostess was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Strong, and grandmother, Mrs. M. U. Strong. The little guests present were Charlotte Hays, Grace Stewart, Vera Ham, Loraine Crockett, Elizabeth Orr, Ivadell Miller, Nancy Pettus, Clara Woolridge, Vanola Lane, Dorothy Whittaker, Ada Mae Hadlock, Florence Hadlock and Elsie Bower.

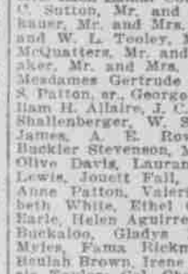
A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill. — "While going through the Change of Life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital."—Mrs. E. SHELDON, 5657 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.



Physicians undoubtedly did their best, battled with this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

3 FIGHTS FOR FULTON, $50,000

Minneapolis, Minn., April 1.—Fred Fulton, Minnesota, heavyweight fighter, has signed a contract with a syndicate of five New York promoters, including Tex Rickard, to meet three fighters in New York for $50,000, according to an announcement here today by Mike Collins, Fulton's manager, on his return from New York.

The first fight will be with Al Reich on April 28 or May 6, the second with Jim Coffey or Frank Moran at a date yet to be selected, and the third on Labor Day with a man to be picked by the promoters, according to Collins, who declared the syndicate had put up $10,000 to bind the contract and that Fulton had deposited $1000 forfeit money.
