BITTEN BY MONKEY, SHE SUES CONGRESSMAN

Brooklyn Woman Asks $1,000 of Fitzgerald and Chief Dooley—Former Denies Ownership.

Congressman John J. Fitzgerald and Battalion Chief John Dooley were defendants in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to-day in a suit brought by Mrs. Clara S. Burch of No. 417 State Street, Brooklyn, for $1,000 damages for injuries inflicted upon her person by "a certain monkey of the ringtail squealer species, which was malicious, vicious, ferocious, mischievous, dangerous and of unmanageable disposition, and possessed of other vicious propensities."

The monkey, she charged, entered her home July 22, 1915, and "bit and scratched her upon the head, back, sides and limbs and injured her internally."

Mrs. Burch sought to prove that the monkey was brought from Panama by the Congressman and placed in Chief Dooley's headquarters with Engine Company No. 226 and that it escaped into her home through the negligence of the chief.

Congressman Fitzgerald denied ever having owned the monkey. He said it was brought to this country by his son, who gave it to the fire company.

Several firemen gave the monkey a high reputation for amiability.

SCHOOLTEACHER ARRESTED.

Miss Katherine Padden, Accused of Embezzlement, Is Paroled.

Miss Katherine Padden, who says she is a teacher in a Manhattan public school near Christopher Street, this morning surrendered herself to Detective Sergt. Arthur Phalen of Hoboken, who held a warrant charging her with embezzlement of charity funds. The complainant is Julius Eppens, who was Chairman of a charity bazaar held last January for the benefit of St. Mary's Hospital, in Hoboken.

Mr. Eppens said Miss Padden, who has lived in Hoboken several years and has taken active part in social work, acted as Chairman of a dance given in connection with the bazaar. The dance netted $388, according to Mr. Eppens. He said he wrote Miss Padden several letters demanding the money, and then turned the case over to City Attorney John T. Fallon.

Miss Padden was arraigned before Recorder Adolph Carsten, who paroled her to her attorney, William S. Burke. The latter assured the Court the money would be paid. Miss Padden said she had invested the money in securities.

Nixon's Houseboat Burns.

Lewis Nixon's houseboat Loudon, in drydock at Shooter's Island shipyard, was destroyed, with its furnishings, by fire early to-day, with a loss of $10,000. How the fire started is not known.

$200,000 FOR HIS GALLANTRY

But Man Who Is Left Fortune for Protecting Woman Is Missing.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—A spirit of gallantry which caused Frank H. Canning to fight his way through a crowd of rowdies, who were fighting on a street car, and save a woman passenger from harm, has netted him a fortune of $200,000, which will be paid to him as soon as he can be found. The incident happened in Philadelphia more than three years ago. Canning's benefactor was Mrs. J. T. Elkins of Detroit, Mich., widow of a wealthy ranch owner. She died recently, leaving an estate of $400,000. Half the money will go to Canning, the remainder to a charitable institution in Detroit.

Canning lived in this city until two years ago. Then he moved to Clarksboro, N. J., and now is supposed to be working in a large powder mill. Detectives are making a search for him.

Victim of Iodine Poisoning.

Henry Schreiner twenty-two years old, of No. 124 Evergreen Avenue, Williamsburg, was taken to the German Hospital to-day suffering from iodine poisoning. The police were told he drank the poison after a quarrel with his parents over the late hours he kept. He will recover.

Increasing sales are grand tributes to "Eddys" Sauce purity and goodness.

The New Home Treatment for Ugly, Hairy Growths

(Boudoir Secrets.)

Here is a simple, yet very effective method for removing hair and fuzz from the face, neck and arms: Cover the objectionable hairs with a paste made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. Leave this on for 2 or 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. No pain or inconvenience attends this treatment, but results will be certain if you are sure to get real delatone.—Advt.

Learn Spanish for $7.50

Free Lessons Thursday and Friday in Rumford Hall, Chemists' Building, 50 East 41st St.

Are you interested in South America? Are you going to share in the gigantic trade and commerce that is springing up between the United States and South American countries? You must know Spanish to handle this trade or in any way to share in its benefits. Why not become a member of the great Gordon-Detwiler Spanish class, which is now forming? Spanish conversation is positively guaranteed in thirty lessons. Every one of these lessons is one full hour in length—not simply forty minutes—and you may attend at 12.15 P. M., or 4.15 P. M., or 5.45 P. M., or 7 P. M., or 8.15 P. M. on each class day. $7.50 is cost of entire course. No other expense. All printed lessons are provided you free to take home and keep. Classes will meet each Tuesday and Thursday, commencing May 9, in beautiful Rumford Hall, Chemists' Building, 50 East 41st St., opposite Belmont Hotel. Over 500 prominent exporters, manufacturers and others interested in South American trade have already joined this class. If interested, enroll at once, as the ticket supply is strictly limited. Both men and women are invited.

NOTE:—The Gordon-Detwiler Institute is a San Francisco institution. It has at least ten times as many Spanish students as any other school in its home city. It maintains branch schools in Chicago, Cincinnati, Oakland, Seattle and New York. Its course of Spanish was written by a corps of the most emerated University Professors of the world, including Professor Basile G. d'Ouskil, Lyceum, of the University of Lyons, France; Professor Pedro Ceron of Madrid, Spain; Baron Albert DuVivier, Eleve du Conservatoire de Paris; Professor Benito Frances, of Sevilla, Spain; Professor S. T. Martinez, of Buenos Ayres; and His Excellency, Dr. Balbino Davalos, Envoye Extraordinaire et Ministre Plenipotentiaire du Mexico to Russia, and formerly Professor of Spanish, Latin and Philosophy at the University of Mexico. Mr. Davalos is a member of the Mexican Academy, and a Corresponding Member of the Royal Spanish Academy, distinctions which stamp him as one of the foremost Spanish educators of the present day.

COME TO FREE LESSONS THUR. or FRI.
