Ouimet to Play In Bay State Open Tourney

BOSTON, May 5.—Francis Ouimet, formerly U. S. G. A. open and later U. S. G. A. amateur champion, has not abandoned golf. He will play in the Massachusetts open championship tourney at the Brae Burn Country Club in mid-June. According to the recent amateur findings of the U. S. G. A., Ouimet is no longer entitled to amateur standing in golf, because he is the half owner of a sporting goods store in this city. Ouimet, however, will enter the State open as an amateur. It will be up to the State Championship Committee to tell Ouimet that he is a professional and that he must play as such. This Ouimet will do if necessary.

John E. Weier, Park Commissioner of Queens, is expected to drive the first ball at the opening of the links in Forest Park, which will take place Saturday, May 13. The course was much improved when the putting greens were piped, and still greater improvements are to be seen this year. Work, which was abandoned for lack of money, on the five new holes has been started again.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 5.—A pair of former Atlantic City caddies led the field in the qualifying round of the spring golf tournament at the Country Club yesterday. Maurice Risley, with a score of 75, won the medal, while his clubmate, Thomas B. Wootten, came next, a stroke away, spoiling an otherwise fine card with an 8 at the thirteenth hole. The lone metropolitan district golfer to qualify in the first sixteen was Schuyler Van Vechten of Baltusrol, who had an 88.

Spartan No. 1 Fails to Bowl Up To Expectations

SCHEDULE TO-NIGHT.

John Verderber Bowling Guard (4), Olympia (3), Northern Republican (2), McDaniel & Son, Elizabeth (3), Crystal Domino, Bronx Church House (2), Atlantic (4).

Although producing two fob winners, the Spartan No. 1 team, one of the strongest quintets in the city, was unable to touch the 500 mark in last night's competition in The Evening World free headpin tournament at Thum's White Elephant Academy. W. A. Gerdes and A. J. Schnabel were the honor men for this team.

Also the Hunts Point aggregation dropped below expectations, Harry Breakstone being the only member of this strong quintet to roll a medal score. William B. Laird of the First Presbyterian Church, Paterson, N. J., was the fourth and last fob winner, making 110, the best individual total for the evening. The scores:

Entries Close for Blue Cross Dog Show.

Chicago amateur fanciers who have never come East before for a one-day dog show have entered bulldogs, Airedale, Scottish and wire-haired fox terriers for the Nassau County Club's Blue Cross Benefit at Belmont Park, Saturday, May 29. The fact is due to the union of horsemen and dog owners to score a big success in aid of the fund to help horses of all nations at war. Nan entries close to-morrow with Wilbur H. Purcell, No. 29 Broadway, the Superintendent.

Columbia Tackles Cornell To-Day

Columbia's big league college baseball team will tackle Cornell this afternoon on South Field. The game will start at 4 o'clock. Columbia's diamond players have been the sensation of the college world this season. The team hasn't lost a game. The nearest thing to defeat was the fifteen-inning tie with Penn this week.

The Blue and White nine has made its wonderful record chiefly through the unusual playing of the infield. Capt. Watt at second base is a real star. He's so much of a ball player that Pat Moran made him an offer to join the Phillies and he has been tempted by several other big league managers. Then Pitcher Smith has been a big aid in repelling the enemy's heavy artillery.

Cornell is sending down its strongest aggregation and has hopes of breaking Columbia's winning streak.

DR. SEXTON SUES HARVARD.

BOSTON, May 5.—Dr. Frank J. Sexton of Brookline, former coach of the Harvard baseball nine, has brought civil action against the college, asking $2,000 damages, claiming a breach of the three-year contract to coach the teams.

Dr. Sexton was to be paid $3,000 for each college year. He says that he was paid $2,100 for his services in 1915 and that there is still due him $900 for that year.

It is understood that his claim is based on the contention that the action of the Advisory Committee made impossible the carrying out of his part of the contract.
