One the hardest duties of the editor says one who has been there and knows what he is talking about, is to whoop it up for the town—announcing its superiority over all neighbors—when he knows that the advertising columns indicate that he is a liar. Editors are human, and have a conscience, and work and write with the greatest vim when their purses are full of money. No town should allow its paper to go out looking like an advance agent of a cemetery, managed by a professional liar.

The fashionable world of Europe is greatly interested in the approaching nuptials of the Duke of Aosta to Princess Letitla Bonaparte. The idea of the Prince marrying his own niece is a novel one, to say the least, but on account of stated reasons the Pope has granted his premission to this strange wedding. The Princess has already begun to receive many presents from her noble friends. Among them is a rare fan presented by the Empress Eugenie. On it is a drawing made by the late Prince Imperial, a birthday present to the Empress in 1876. The fan is incrusted with diamonds and is valued at $100,000. A former admirer of Princess Bonaparte, the Prince of Naples, eldest son of King Humbert, has taken a photograph of the prospective bride. He is said to be the best amateur photographer in Italy.

Peculiar.

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredents, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a 'tower of strength abroad," peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

The women in the American colony in Paris are said to be almost a unit in the hope that the political campaign in this country may close without disappointment to the wife of Mr. Marton. Of all the women who preceded Mrs. McLane in the position that lady now occupies as the wife of the American Minister, Mrs. Morton is perhaps the most gratefully recalled. Her gracious hospitality to American tourists and to the Americans residing permanently in Paris, her many acts of charity throughout the city at large and her generally modest and retiring habits are now dwelt upon with that extravagance which the lapse of years always lends to partiality. "I'm a Democrat and I think that Mrs. Cleveland is just as sweet as she can be," said the wife of a prominent member of the colony recently, "but I do wish Mrs. Morton could be 'elected' to something, too."

A Lady's Gratitude.

WACO, TEXAS, May 9, 1888.

Gentlemen.—Knowing that you appreciate voluntary testimonials, we take pleasure in stating that one of our lady customers has regained her health by the use of four large bottles of your great remedy, after having been an invalid for several years. Her trouble was extreme debilitity caused by a disease peculiar to her sex. WILLIS & Co., Druggists.

I have tried all patent medicines, but never found one like the S. S. S. I was troubled with weakness incident to women, pain in the back and chest. When I began taking your medicine I weighed only 84 pounds: To day I weigh 151, and feel well and hearty.

My mother suffered from nervous prostration. She had no relish for food, and could not walk without experiencing great fatigue. We used the ordinary remedies, without permanent results. We heard of Swift's Specific and its tonic effects. After using it my mother has regained her health and strength. She owes her present vigorous health to Swift's Specific. It is the best tonic I ever heard of. O. J. HACKETT.

Elopements seem to have become epidemic in the office of Mr. Pullitzer's St. Louis Post-Dispatch. Following in part the example of Managing Editor Moore, who ran away with the wife of a prominent theatrical manager a week or two ago, William McMichael, a reporter on the paper, on Friday eloped with Miss Fanny Paupeney, the 16-year-old daughghter of a leading Carondelet family. The pair went to Belleville, Ill., where an application for a marriage license was refused, owing to the youth of the young lady. The reporter then had the hardihood to telegraph to the girls father, asking his consent, but the reply came to the police with orders to arrest the pair. They kept hid until the arrival of the father, who was armed and angry, and who tried to shoot the reporter, but was disarmed. After a lively scene he gave his consent and the pair were married and forgiven.

Its Use For Kidneys.

JESUP, GA., May 26, 1887.

I have been suffering from kidney disease for a month past, and the pain in my back was very severe. My occupation requires a good deal of writing at night and I suffered all the time. I saw one man who said he was cured by using Botanic Blood Balm, (B. B. B.) and I commenced using it, and the pain is a great deal less. I have only used two bottles and believe it will effect a cure by the use of a few more bottles. Yours respectfully,

J. E. COLEMAN.

Pure Blood is of Priceless Value.

The Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.:

MY DEAR SIR—I have, for sometime past, used B. B. B. as purifier of the blood and to build up the system generally, and consider it without exception the finest remedy of the kind in the market. Yours with best wishes,

ARTHUR G. LEWIS,
Editor Southern Society.

Helping the Right Side.

To help the right side is not only commendable in a general point of view, but is judicious and prudent when that help is enlisted in behalf of the right side of the body, just over the lower ribs in the region of the liver. The most efficient help is afforded by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, an anti-billous medicine of incomparable efficacy. Inaction of the liver is accompanied by constipation, sick-headache, furred tongue, nausea, occasional vertigo, an unpleasant breath, yellowness of the skin and ball of the eye. The author of these symptoms, liver complaint, routed by the Bitters is accompanied by them in its flight. Fever and ague, which always involves the liver, dyspepsia, rheumatism, debility and kidney troubles are all maladies to the early relief and final cure of which this standard medicine is adapted. Don't use it by fits and starts, but systematically, that its full effects may result in a perfect restoration of health.

[illegible] whether in the form of [illegible] Nervousness, or in a [illegible] Weariness and Loss of [illegible] we suggest the use of Ayer's [illegible] This preparation is most [illegible] for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Failing Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by leading physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and I am now as healthy and strong as ever.—Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, that it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease. I have also prescribed it as a tonic, as well as an alterative, and must say that I honestly believe it to be the best blood medicine ever compounded.—W. F. Fowler, D. D. S., M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Headache up to the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was under the care of various physicians and tried a great many kinds of medicines, but never obtained more than temporary relief. After taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla for a short time, my headache disappeared, and my stomach performed its duties more perfectly. To-day my health is completely restored.—Mary Harley, Springfield, Mass.

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and vitalizes the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 383 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

G. G. Treat, of West Granville, Mass., writes of Allcock's Porous Plasters:

For rheumatism, neuralgia, pain in the side or back, coughs, colds, bruises, and any local weakness, they truly possess wonderful qualities. I have recommended them to my neighbors with the happiest results, many of whom but Allcock's Plasters would be in a crippled condition at home. E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex. says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother also was very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life."

Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters.
