FUNSTON GUARDS AGAINST WRECK OF TRAINS BY MEXICANS

FUNSTON GUARDS AGAINST WRECK OF TROOP TRAINS

Keeps Routing and Destination of the State Soldiers a Strict Secret.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., June 30.—While thousands of National Guardsmen were moving toward border stations extraordinary precautions were being taken to prevent the exact routings and schedules of the numerous special trains from becoming known.

Gen. Funston was instructed to exercise the utmost effort in concealing details of the mobilization, and general managers of all railroads carrying troops were requested not to make public the movements of trains.

It was explained at Gen. Funston's headquarters that the unusual measures were not taken to prevent the news of just where the American troops would be stationed from reaching Mexicans, but to render more difficult any attempt that might be made to wreck one of the trains.

Information obtained by the intelligence officers indicated that such an attempt might be made. Train wrecking, either by the removal of rails or by the use of dynamite, is so common to warfare that the general staff at Washington and the military authorities here regarded as almost essential such secrecy of movement.

It was hoped at Gen. Funston's headquarters that the greater part of the troops now moving would be on the border by Saturday night and that early in the coming week such disposition would have been effected as to render available for prompt action the heavy reinforced army along the international line.

Reports that a strong Mexican force had interrupted Gen. Pershing's line of communication were denied.

The Quartermaster's Department will open bids to-morrow for big quantities of provisions, including 180,000 pounds of beans, 180,000 cans of tomatoes, 180,000 pounds of coffee, 450,000 pounds of sugar, 60,000 pounds of rice, 45,000 pounds of prunes, 20,000 pounds of evaporated peaches, 56,000 cans of jam, 66,000 tins of tobacco and 100,000 pounds of salt.

Forage for horses and mules will cost the army about $970,000 a month it is estimated and $45,000 worth of gasoline will be used every month. The pay roll for officers and men along the border now already totals $1,800,000 a month, while the arrival of the militia will greatly increase this.

BOY WHO JEERED GENERAL HELD FOR INSULT TO GUARD

Leon Samson Lands in Jail After Fight That Follows Street Meeting.

Leon Samson, a nineteen-year-old student, of No. 1493 Fifth Avenue, was arraigned before Magistrate Cornell in Harlem Court this morning, charged with disorderly conduct, the complainant against him being Frank Goldberg of No. 1648 Madison Avenue, who alleged he heard Samson say that members of the United States army were "bums and boozers;" that the letters "N. G." signified "No good," and that any one who would fight for the United States was a "fool."

Samson is the youth who started a hostile demonstration in City College last March when Major-Gen. Leonard Wood was delivering an address on preparedness. He denies the statement attributed to him and says that he was roughly handled by two men in military uniform after a meeting he was addressing had been broken up at Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Tenth Street last night. Samson spent the night in the East One Hundred and Fourth Street Station. Magistrate Cornell held him in $1,000 bail for examination to-morrow. Goldberg, the man who appeared against him, is said to have several sons in the National Guard.

WARD LINER AT VERA CRUZ CROWDED WITH REFUGEES

Americans Fleeing From Mexico Are Transferred From the Battleship Nebraska.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, June 30.—The Ward Line steamer Monterey, with a capacity passenger list of American refugees, was expected to sail this afternoon. The steamer was anchored near the battleship Nebraska, on which refugees in large numbers have been quartered, and the transfer of the passengers began this morning.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Many of the 1,200 refugees from Mexico at Galveston on the navy tender Dixie and other vessels probably will be compelled to stay aboard ship for at least a week.

Assistant Secretary Newton of the Treasury, in charge of the Public Health Service, announced to-day that women, children and invalids would be allowed to land after medical examinations, but that delay could not be avoided in other cases, because the immigration barracks and quarantine station at Galveston can accommodate only about 400 persons.

Plans for the landing of the refugees at ports north of Maryland could not be carried out because of the shortage of ships.

47TH ENTRAINING TO-DAY FOR PEEKSKILL

CAPT. CHARLES H. HAY.

NO HALT IN MOVEMENT OF TROOPS, SAYS WOOD

Three Months' Training Will Do Them Good Anyway, General's View.

"The returning of the prisoners held by the Mexicans will make no difference in the moving of New York troops to the border," said Major Gen. Leonard Wood to-day. "There is a slight halt in the movement just now, but all of the New York militia will be on the border eventually. In my opinion, no matter what happens, three months' training there won't do them any harm."

With reference to reports from Massachusetts that one National Guard officer proposed to court martial those of his men who refused to take the Federal oath, Gen. Wood said: "I think that is the perfectly correct thing to do."

Capt. Gordon Johnson, aide to Gen. Wood, has sent his resignation to the War Department, with the general's approval, in order to accept appointment as colonel of the Twelfth Regiment, New York National Guard.

Will Probated To-Day in London Divides Estate Between Relatives and Fellow Officers.

LONDON, June 30.—The will of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, the British Secretary of War who lost his life in the sinking of the cruiser Hampshire off the Orkneys June 5, was admitted to probate to-day.

It shows that he left an estate valued at 171,420 pounds sterling (approximately $850,000).

The largest bequests were the sum of £20,000 to his nephew, Henry Hamilton Kitchener, and the Broome Park estate and all lands in Kent County to his nephew, Commander Henry Franklin Chevaller Kitchener, of the royal navy, a son of the new Earl. The will makes a number of smaller bequests to relatives and friends, including £200 each to several officers who served on Lord Kitchener's personal staff.

To Col. Oswald A. G. Fitzgerald, Lord Kitchener's personal military secretary, who was drowned with the Field Marshal, was willed all Kitchener's lands in British East Africa, amounting to about 5,000 acres, with plantations, &c.

Swords of honor, plate and other gifts from public bodies, are devolved as heirlooms in settled estates. The will was dated Nov. 2, 1914.

First Signal Corps Is All Ready.

The First Signal Corps, comprising 177 men and 17 officers, also 75 recruits, to serve in the depot squads, is ready to go to the border on notice, according to announcement at the headquarters of the corps at Thirty-fourth Street and Park Avenue, to-day.

U. S. TROOPS SHOT GUARD, SAY MEXICAN REPORTS

Claim Is Made That They Killed Customs Service Man Without Warning.

EL PASO, Tex., June 30.—Juan Morena, a Mexican line rider of the Carranza customs service, was killed last night by a squad of American soldiers, who fired across the Rio Grande into Mexican territory near Ysleta, twelve miles east of El Paso, according to a report received to-day by Gen. Gonzales in Juarez.

Mexican officials said Morena was riding along the Mexican side of the river in the performance of his duty with a fellow Customs guard, when the Americans, eight in number, opened fire without warning.

The military supplies lost in the Carrizal fight arrived in Juarez from Chihuahua to-day. They consisted of twenty-seven horses, fifty-three rifles, a number of pistols, several thousand cartridges and other equipment.

The negro troopers of the Tenth brought here from Chihuahua City remained at the hospital at Fort Bliss, awaiting release after it had been proved that they contracted no dangerous disease in Mexico.

MORE CAVALRYMEN LEAVE VAN CORTLANDT FOR TEXAS TO-MORROW.

Troops C, G, H and M, of the First New York Cavalry were ordered to-day to leave the Van Cortlandt Park camp to-morrow for the Texas border. Col. Debevoise of the regiment will leave with these detachments. No orders have been issued for Troops B, D, E, I and J of the Second Cavalry, also encamped at the Park.

Battery B, of the First Field Artillery, the last remaining artillery unit at Van Cortlandt Park, will depart for the border to-morrow night or Sunday morning, either picking up Battery C at Binghampton and Battery A at Syracuse, or joining them near San Antonio, Tex.

The First Field Aartillery staff and colors will move with the batteries. Lieut. Col. Merritt H. Smith will be in command, pending the expected arrival of Col. H. H. Rogers from Japan.

The 200 horses necessary for the departure of Battery B arrived last night and were inoculated against disease to-day.

TROOP MOVEMENT IS IN FULL SWING ALL OVER NATION

Train Orders in Some Places Changed and Strict Censorship Is On.

CAMP RHUMBAUGH, MOUNT GRETNA, Pa., June 30.—The signal corps, Pittsburgh Second Field Hospital Ambulance Corps, numbering about seven hundred men, left for the border at 11.14 to-day. They went from here via Philadelphia and from there will go to St. Louis, and then southward. The Second Regiment is expected to leave some time this afternoon.

CAMP HARRINGTON, LAUREL, Md., June 30.—The First Maryland Infantry, on three trains, left to-day for Eagle Pass, Tex. The other Maryland troops are scheduled to go on July 5.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 30.—"Somewhere on the border" is the destination of eighteen trains loaded with thousands of eastern militiamen passing through here to-day.

Since the War Department imposed the censorship on troop movements, all train orders from specific points have been changed.

A Missouri Pacific train brought the Massachusetts Ambulance and Hospital Corps into Kansas City last night. The Santa Fe took them out.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 30.—The Seventh Regiment, Illinois National Guard and the staff officers of the First Infantry Brigade entrained for the Mexican border early to-day.

The First Cavalry is scheduled to leave at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

NEVADA, Mo., June 30.—The only information concerning troop movements of the Missouri National Guard available to-day was that the First Infantry Regiment would depart this afternoon for the border.

The three batteries of field artillery and the signal corps company are expected to leave to-morrow for Laredo, Texas, the border station assigned several days ago.

NOGALES, Ariz., June 30.—The Utah National Guard battery of field artillery with 142 men and six officers arrived here to-day.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 30.—Two troop trains, carrying Massachusetts regiments of the National Guard, stopped here, the guardsmen stripped "On the Banks of the Wabash" and took a bath in its waters.

Villa Robs Up Again.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., June 30.—Juan Rodriguez, a Mexican resident of Texas, arriving here from Torreon, said that Pancho Villa has joined the Carranzista forces at Montolovo with several hundred men. Rodriguez claims to know Villa well and says he cannot be mistaken regarding his identity.

ORPET'S BRAIN FOG WILL BE FACTOR OF HIS DEFENSE

Expert to Explain Student's Apparent State of Mind When He Saw Woman Dead.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 30.—Testimony that the spot in Helm's Woods where Marian Lambert died of poison was in full view of an interurban railway station and therefore never would have been selected for a deliberately planned murder was given to-day by Gale M. Brooks, a civil engineer, in the trial of Will H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Miss Lambert. Brooks explained at length a map he had made of the woods.

It was indicated by the defense prior to the opening of court that Dr. W. Krohn, an alienist, would be called during the day to give testimony with reference to the psychological phases of Orpet's so-called "brain fog" on discovering that Marian was lying dead in the snow of Helm's Woods.

Dr. Krohn, it was said, would testify that brain fog is a widely recognized state similar to that which sometimes seized soldiers in the heat of battle—an obsession during which the mind is paralyzed, but all the physical faculties are normally or even abnormally active.

Orpet's attorneys, declaring that the prisoner's own story of Marian Lambert's death had been unshaken in any main point by the rigid cross-examination he had undergone, set about to-day to show by science, psychology, maps, mathematics, rumors and letters that Marian committed suicide.

Psychologists will testify that Marian's frame of mind was that which contemplated suicide, many experts and woodsmen will tell of the scene of Marian's death, and relatives of Celestia Youker, the "other woman," will testify she and Orpet were never formally engaged.

FINDS MISSING BROTHER.

Williamsburg Coroner's Physician Discovers Him in Hospital.

Coroner's Physician Wuest of Williamsburg, going through a ward of St. Catherine's Hospital to-day, found that a man who had been picked up a short time before at Evergreen Avenue and Troutman Street suffering with aphasia was his own brother, William P. Wuest, who lived with him at No. 1075 Bushwick Avenue.

He had been ill and confined to his room for the greater part of eight or nine years, but wandered out this morning unobserved. In 1891 he was County Clerk of Brooklyn and a prominent Democrat in the old Sixteenth Ward. He is fifty-five years old.
