Tisdale Drops Calvary Suit.

The suit recently brought in the Supreme Court to restrain the trustees of Calvary Baptist Church from taking action on charges preferred against Edmund J. Tisdale, a lawyer, was dropped by Mr. Tisdale yesterday. He gave no reason why [illegible]

"Ha, Drat You, I'll Get You Now, Old Corn"

The meaner the corn the more joy and comfort Pierce's Corn Plasters bring to you. All corns look alike to Pierce's—old, tough or [illegible] and wee little new ones, hard scraggy ones and soft, teeth-achy ones—Pierce's Corn Plasters put a quick, sure end to their careers, one and all, great and small.

Pierce's never met a corn it couldn't conquer—money back quick if it doesn't do the work for you.

Pierce's Corn Plasters aren't like others—Pierce's are thin, light little plasters that go anywhere after a corn without clumsy pads or smelly liquid. Just you try to-day and see. All druggists have Pierce's Corn Plasters. Or send a dime for trial package to Winthrop Sales Co., 114 West 32d St., New York City.—Advt.

SHILLITANI, SLAYER OF FOUR MEN, DIES IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

Murderer Who Killed Sing Sing Guard and Escaped From Death House Pays Penalty.

Oreste Shillitani, slayer of four men, was electrocuted at 6 A. M. to-day in Sing Sing Prison. Gov. Whitman last night refused to interfere despite a rush of telegrams from all over the State asking for clemency on the ground that Shillitani was insane. The Governor said he had no doubt of the condemned man's sanity.

The Governor stated that as District Attorney he "directed the prosecution and was familiar with every detail of the case."

Shillitani went quietly to his death, and the semblance of insanity which he had shown for two weeks seemed to have slipped from him entirely as he reached the end. Preparations were made to handle him if he resisted, but they proved needless, as he walked quietly to the chair. In it he made a brief statement deploring the death of Daniel McCarthy, a prison keeper whom he killed a week ago and denying he was guilty of the crime of which he was convicted.

During the last twenty-four hours of his life Shillitani showed none of the viciousness that had marked him. He seemed to realize all hope was gone. This morning four keepers walked with him. Usually only two march beside a man on his way to the chair, but to-day two walked just a step in front of him and two just behind. Beside him walked Father William B. Cashin, the prison chaplain, who was reading the litany for the dying. Shillitani was repeating the responses.

The little group of witnesses assembled in the death room watched the condemned man with more than usual interest, because of his record and the expectation that at the last he might offer resistance. He was walking almost in the same steps he took a week ago when, after assaulting two of the guards, he fled through the death chamber and escaped to the open through the mortuary just beyond.

As he sat down in the chair Shillitani turned to the witnesses and said, referring to McCarthy:

"I am sorry that unfortunate man died. He grabbed my gun. I am innocent of the crime of which I am accused. My brains are not right. Goodby and God bless you all."

As he settled [illegible] the chair he indicated to the guards the straps were not right, and as they shifted them the cap was adjusted. A second later he stiffened under the impact of the current. Three shocks were used, and at one minute past six Dr. A. L. Squire, the prison physician, indicated death was complete.

BOYD AND ADAIR BURIED IN CARRIZAL CEMETERY

Bodies of Most of the Americans Killed in Battle Put in Mexican Graves.

EL PASO, Tex., June 30.—All but a few of the Americans who fell at Carrizal, including the bodies of Capt. Boyd and Lieut. Adair, have been buried in the Carrizal cemetery, as Government officials were informed to-day by an American who has just returned from that district. The few unburied lay on the outskirts of the field and had apparently been overlooked.

From the same source the Carranzista casualties in the field were put at twenty-six killed and fifty wounded. The Mexicans lost thirty-five horses.

BIG STEEL DEAL STANDS.

Court Refuses to Halt Plan of Bethlehem and Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 30.—Judge McPherson in the United States Court of Appeals to-day refused to interfere with the plan of the Bethlehem Steel Company to purchase the assets of the Pennsylvania Steel Company of New Jersey, a holding corporation, and its subsidiaries, mainly the Pennsylvania Steel Company plant at Harrisburg and Lebanon, and the Maryland Steel Company plant at Sparrow Point, Md.

The decision was given in the appeal of Clarence H. Venner of New York, a stockholder, who charges that the proposed consolidation violates the United States Anti-Trust Law and the New Jersey laws known as the Seven Sisters Acts. The proposed sale involves the payment of $31,941,630. In rendering a verbal opinion Judge McPherson said the only evidence before him was an ex parte statement and that further evidence would be necessary before a final decision could be rendered.

Earthquake Shock Lasts Over Hour.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—An earthquake of moderate intensity was shown on Georgetown University seismograph records to-day. It began at 10.04 P. M. and continued until 11.24 o'clock. The disturbance is estimated to have been approximately 3,300 miles from Washington.

Thoughtful people will find a better reason for this necessity of clean teeth than that they are beautiful to look at. Teeth that are not kept clean soon decay. To prevent this keep food particles from between the teeth and use a dentifrice that will actually clean the teeth.

Albodon, the modern dentifrice, contains higher proportions of cleansing and polishing ingredients than any other dentifrice. It is safely antiseptic.

Though Albodon comes in a tube, it should not be confused with pastes; it is a cream. It is not artificially colored. It does not melt or harden. It has a distinctive "smack"—a likable taste.

Try it to-day.

Albodon can be had at 25 cents a liberal tube wherever toilet articles are sold, and a free sample can be had by sending your name and address to The Albodon Co., Dept. B, 154 West 18th Street, N. Y. A postal will do.

AVERTING A DISASTER

The Proverbial Stitch in Time.

There are men and women so occupied with social and commercial ambitions that they frequently discount unknowingly the natural supply of energy alloted to each individual.

Overwrought nerves and nervous indigestion that threatens to become chronic, loss of appetite and troubled sleep are the least of consequences that follow in the wake of indiscretion.

To the afflicted we suggest Johann Hoff's Malt Extract with meals. This delightfully palatable body nourisher possesses unusual digestive properties, and as a nerve and brain food bears the endorsement of celebrities.

Johann Hoff's Malt has been a household phrase for over half a century and can be procured from any reliable druggist. Cheap imitations should be scrupulously avoided.—Advt.

OFFICIAL

The Statistical Department of the New York Evening Post has issued these figures, which are of great importance to every merchant and manufacturer who advertises or contemplates doing so.

For the First Five Months of This Year

The following total number of agate lines of advertising appeared in the seven New York morning newspapers printed in English:

World	5,186,421	lines
Times	4,726,957	"
American	4,033,214	"
Herald	3,208,565	"
Tribune	1,779,829	"
Sun	1,622,673	"
Press	674,055	"

These figures, impartially and accurately compiled, are

Extremely Significant

Analyzed, they show that

THE WORLD Leads as Follows:

459,464	lines over	The Times
1,153,207	" "	The American
1,977,856	" "	The Herald
3,406,592	" "	The Tribune
3,563,748	" "	The Sun

The Reasons

for this leadership are not far to seek. They are numerous, among them being the fact that The World has

Over 100,000 More Circulation

in New York City than any other newspaper, and vastly more than the combined city circulations, for instance, of the Times, Herald and Tribune.

Moreover, WORLD advertising is

Dependable

It is as carefully censored as is WORLD news, so a World advertisement is always in good company.
