BRIDEGROOM NABBED ON CHECK TRANSACTION

Princeton Man, Member of Noted Family, is Held in Boston.

Josiah Pierce, who married Miss Catherine Livingston at the Little Church Around the Corner here last week, is in trouble in Boston over some check transactions, according to to-day's despatches.

He and his bride went to Boston several days ago and engaged apartments in Brookline. An automobile agency complained to the police that it had received a worthless check from Pierce for an $1,800 automobile, and other checks of smaller amounts are under investigation, while he was held in $500 bail in the Municipal Court.

Pierce obtained his license to marry last Friday, saying he was "the seventh son of a seventh son." His bride's address was given as No. 26 East Forty-ninth Street, but she was said to be a native of California. He is a Princeton graduate and was at the Princeton Club here until his guest's card expired. His father was Josiah Pierce, a noted Washington lawyer, and his maternal grandfather was Admiral Dahlgren.

RAISED BY MACHINERY.

(From the Kansas City Journal.)

"A mechanical age, truly."

"How now?"

"I just saw an incubator baby being lulled to sleep by a graphophone."

MEDICINES MADE FROM ROOTS AND HERBS

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers they depended upon medicines made from the roots and herbs of the field to cure disease.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that standard remedy which is made from roots and herbs for woman's ills, had its origin in this way. For thirty years it has been redeeming its promises written on the label of every bottle by curing thousands of women of feminine ills. It's a good, honest medicine.—Advt.
