The Evening World's Beauty and Health Column

Conducted by Pauline Furlong

Through This Column Miss Furlong Will Reply to Women Readers' Questions Regarding Exercise, Diet and Other Means of Preserving Good Health and Good Looks.

(Copyright, 1916, by the Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World).

Daily exercises and muscular activity make the muscles firm and healthy and those who eat too much and exercise too little will notice after any undue physical exertion, such as a game of golf, tennis, or swimming that the muscles will become stiff and sore. The extra muscular activity has caused the breaking down of much loosely organized tissue, which had become weak and flabby through insufficient exercise.

PAULINE FURLONG

When the muscles are firm and well trained they contain only healthy protoplasm and give off only a small portion of nitrogenous decomposition products.

It is a well known fact that the muscles of large meat eaters contain a much larger quantity of unnecessary nitrogen and nitrogenous decomposition matter than vegetarians and these persons do not possess as much physical endurance, and easily become more fatigued than those who subsist on low nitrogenous diet.

Letters From Readers.

TO GAIN WEIGHT—MILDRED F. asks: "How can I gain weight? I am too weak and run down to attend to business. I take a great deal of olive oil. Is this a good thing for me to do?"

Only by improving the general health can you hope to gain weight. Eat but two meals a day and do not take those unless you are really hungry for them. Too much olive oil is not good, as the system can only assimilate a certain amount. Take grapes and bananas and grape juice, also raw eggs and milk, if you can digest them. Breathe deeply and take some of the milder stretching and relaxing exercises every day. Do not worry and get at least eight hours' sleep at night and an afternoon nap, when convenient.

FORCED BREATHING—JOHN M. writes: "In some of your lessons you tell readers to "take a deep, full breath," and then again you say, "do not force the breath." How is the former advice to be distinguished from the latter? Does not the taking of a "deep, full breath" mean to inhale as much air as one possibly can?"

Forced breathing means breathing with force, with more force than is ordinarily applied to the ordinary, normal act of respiration, and a full breath does not by any means mean a forced breath. To take a deep, full breath needs no straining nor stiffening of the muscles of the chest. A sigh, a groan, a shout or a sob are all produced through full breaths, but none of them implies straining or forcing of the respiratory muscles.

WEAKNESS OF CHEST—MRS. K. H. asks: "What causes the chest to tire when no other portion of the body is fatigued?"

Improper carriage of the body will cause this and also cause backache, round shoulders and many other complications.

RED NOSE—WALTER T. writes: "What causes a red nose and what will remove it?"

Indigestion, retained waste matter in the system, poor circulation, alcoholism may all cause red nose. Light diet, exercise, free action of the bowels and copious water drinking will remove it."

WARM FOOT BATHS—MRS. D. K. H. writes: "Does a warm foot bath draw the blood from the stomach and head? Is it injurious to take such baths immediately after eating?"

Warm baths draw the blood from head and stomach. Do not take them until two hours after eating.

MASSAGE FOR CONSTIPATION—ANDREW D. writes: "Will abdominal massage overcome constipation?"

It may help some, but exercises for the trunk muscles, copious water drinking and proper diet, including bran products, will absolutely cure the most obstinate case of constipation.

FISH IN OBESITY DIET—MRS. H. T. writes: "Can all fish and shell fish be eaten by those who are following the obesity diet?"

All but salmon, which is fattening.

Cocoanut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The latter rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months—Adv.

Take Iron, Says Doctor, if You Want Plenty of "Stay There" Strength Like an Athlete!

Ordinary Dissolved Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Run-Down People 100% Stronger in Two Weeks' Time, in Many Cases.

Most people formally seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, blood nourisher or tonic drug, said the Doctor, who has studied both in this country and Europe, which, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From thirty weekend, nervous sensitive, they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. The thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day, after meals, for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people, who were ailing all the while, double and even triple their strength and endurance, and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, nerves and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days time, simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this after they had in many cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or iron tonics, as they may do extra a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated, like nuxated iron. If you want to do you any good otherwise it may prove more than useless. Many people who think they are pale, weak and lack of great strength and endurance, and filled with blood with iron before he went into the army, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated iron, recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is not the ordinary iron preparation. Unlike the other inorganic iron preparations, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth nor make them black, and, instead of constipating, it has a mild laxative effect. It is now being dispensed in tablet form under the name of Nuxated Iron, and druggists generally are now supplying this preparation in the form of tablets. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to refund the entire purchase price to any druggist who fails to satisfy any purchaser of the above statement, and to recommend it to his customers. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed by all druggists.
