A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words arising by Mrs. Ada L. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally developed in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my maker, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent one above. My husband was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a fair trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I feel that God, Dr. King's New Discovery and myself, are my cure." Call at Doctor Franklin's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed as per agreement.

Why The Conspiracy Failed

Jesse Franklin Harris contributes to the Christmas number of the Saturday Evening Post an authentic account of the daring attempt to warn the Confederate cabinet of the great movement Grant and Sherman were to cooperate in crushing the Confederacy. How the attempt failed and why it failed are the subjects of a chapter of the little-known history of the Secret Service. Mr. Harris has his facts first-hand, and he has woven them into a story of such absorbing interest that it might easily be mistaken for pure fiction.

The Christmas number of the Post will be on all news stands December 21.
