WILSON LEAVES CAPITOL FOR PROLONGED STAY

May Not Return Until After Election—Speaks To-Night at Atlantic City; Then to Shadow Lawn.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—President Wilson left Washington at 1 o'clock for a stay which may extend until the after election in November. He expected to arrive at Atlantic City at 4.45 o'clock this afternoon and tonight will speak before the National Woman's Suffrage Association. After spending the night in Atlantic City he will motor to the summer White House, Shadow Lawn, at Long Branch, N. J., for an extended stay.

The President was busy up to the time of his departure with work incident to the adjournment of Congress. After spending an hour at the Capitol signing bills, he returned to the White House and attached his signature to many commissions and executive papers.

A staff of secretaries, clerks and messengers left for Long Branch today and will open executive offices to-morrow at Asbury Park.

1,500 Men Work at Fire Rages.

BUFFALO, Sept. 8.—An over-heated furnace at the Buffalo Copper and Brass Rolling mill to-day caused $150,000 damage to the plant. Fifteen hundred men in an adjacent department worked throughout the fire, finishing castings before the metal cooled, thus saving thousands of dollars in loss.

WOMEN VOTE DOWN EFFORT TO PLEDGE SUFFRAGE SUPPORT

Candidates in Favor of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment Are Not Indorsed.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8.—The National American Woman Suffrage Association convention to-day defeated by an overwhelming vote a resolution that the Association in the present national campaign support only those candidates for national offices who pledge their support to the passage of the Susan B. Anthony amendment for a Federal constitutional amendment.

The resolution was offered by Mrs. Raymond Robbins of Chicago and a number of other delegates.

The "National Woman Suffrage Party" may supplant "National American Women's Suffrage Association" as the title of the national organization of suffragists, following a discussion at this afternoon's session of the convention.

The women advocating the change declare the present name too cumbersome. They believe their proposal will go through by a big vote.

Nominations were to be made to-day for three offices on the National Board. Mrs. Frank Roseing, First Vice President; Miss Hannah J. Patterson, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. James W. Morrison, Recording Secretary, will resign. Mrs. Walter McNab Miller of Columbia City, Mo., is mentioned for First Vice President, and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Smith of Kentucky, is slated to succeed Mrs. Miller.

Out of deference to his wishes, no escort parade will accompany President Wilson to the auditorium when he arrives to address the suffragists to-night.

RAIDERS FOUND OPIUM.

Two Pots of It, Still Warm After Cooking, Seized in Harlem Flat.

Two pots of cooked opium, still warm, were found to-day in the apartment of Abraham Goldberg at No. 1040 Amsterdam Avenue, when Detectives Erb, Judge and Hackett of Lieut. Scherd's "narcotic squad" broke in and arrested Goldberg and Charles Winter, alias Kiddie the Newsboy, of No. 2 West One Hundred and Twentieth Street.

Goldberg, who had been arrested before for maintaining an opium joint, and Winter were arraigned before United States Commissioner Houghton by Special Agents Allen and Nutt of the Department of Justice.

FIVE POLICEMEN BALK ON STRIKE DUTY; FACE TRIAL

Flatly Refused to Obey Orders On the Ground They Were Overworked.

The first instance in the history of the Police Department of policemen flatly refusing to obey orders to do police duty on the ground that they were overworked led to the filing of charges at Headquarters to-day against Patrolmen Thomas Milligan and Henry Lewis of the Liberty Avenue Station, Brooklyn; Joseph McLaughlin of the West One Hundred and Fifty-second Street Station; Joseph Slivinsky of the Lee Avenue Station, Brooklyn, and Florence McCrohan of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth Street Station. Commissioner Woods will try to place them on trial to-morrow.

These policemen were on reserve duty at the "L" terminal at One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Street and Eighth Avenue last night. They were ordered by Sergt. Weiner, who was in charge, to board a South Ferry train for protective purposes. Through one of the five, who acted as spokesman, the patrolmen refused to get on the train, saying they had been on duty more than twenty-four hours and were tired out. Individually they reported sick and asked for leave.

Lieut. Weiner sent them to the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth Street Station, where they were examined by Police Surgeon Browne, who declared them fit for duty. They were held in the station house all night and sent to Headquarters to report to Inspector Schmittberger this morning.

Investigation showed that these men, in common with other patrolmen, have been on continuous strike duty since Wednesday, but that they have been working in six-hour shifts with hours on duty on trains and six hours on reserve in station houses, with time for meals allowed.

Charges of disobedience of orders were preferred and served at once, and the policemen were suspended to await trial.

This police display of the white feather created quite a sensation at Police Headquarters. Commissioner Woods announced that if the men are found guilty of refusing to do police duty in such a crisis as that which confronts the city at present he will see that the maximum punishment is inflicted.

WOODS NAMES STREETS WHERE AUTOS MAY PARK

Sections of Downtown Thoroughfares Set Aside for Machines During Strike.

Because of the tremendously increased use of automobiles downtown caused by the traction strike, Police Commissioner Woods to-day designated a number of streets as temporary parking spaces for cars while those who used them were at business.

The places set aside are: South Street from Moore Street to Coenties Slip, one line in the middle of the street; State Street, along the Battery Park curb; Battery Place, backed up to the park curb; Wall Street from Pearl to South Street, one line in the middle of the street; Burling Slip from Water Street to South Street, one line in the centre of the street; West Street from Rector Street to Cortlandt Street, two lines on the outer edge of the marginal way; Twelfth Avenue from Twenty-fourth Street to Thirtieth Street, two lines on outer edge of marginal way; Fifty-seventh Street from Eighth to Eleventh Avenues, two lines in the middle of the Street.

Chief Gunner of the Nevada Hit Trophy in Danger.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 8.—The dreadnought Nevada has gone back to sea after leaving Chief Gunner Williams in the Naval Hospital. Appendicitis, which attacked Williams during the target contest of the Atlantic Fleet, seems likely to remove the Nevada's chance for the trophy.

CALLS AGED HUSBAND "MEAN"

Can't Get Alimony, However, Until She Gives Up His Property.

Mrs. Catherine Fay, of No. 418 Eleventh Street, Brooklyn, thirty-five-year-old wife of James Fay, who is seventy-two, and refuses to live with her because she says he is "mean" to her, applied to Justice Blackmar for $100 a week alimony and $1,000 counsel fees, pending Fay's suit for separation.

Fay's attorney said Mrs. Fay had all the deeds to her husband's property and all his bank books and safe deposit keys, thereby practically controlling his fortune of $100,000. The court replied that Mrs. Fay would not get either alimony or fees until she signed a stipulation relinquishing claim to the property she held.
