ELISHA III. A BAD GUESSER.

Last April, long before the nuts took on their brown beauty, a gifted resident of Greenport, L. I., answering to the name of Elisha III., interrupted cosmic progress by announcing that the world would end Sept. 27, 1916.

Prophet Elisha's failure to make good on his first appearance in fast company will cause him to be sent to the minor leagues.

ARE YOU KEPT FROM WORK BY ITCHING PIMPLES?

Try Cuticura and Be Healed.

"My trouble began first with small pimples on my arms and limbs, also on my chest and feet. Then a rash came and made my skin awfully sore and inflamed, and it looked as if it were scalded. I was really ashamed of myself. I could not sleep nights, and it was so itchy that I scratched till the blood came. It was impossible for me to work many a day.

"Then I sent for a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and had relief the first time I applied them. I at once bought one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and after using them three weeks, I was healed." (Signed) Bernard Robert Beuskey, 17 Milnor St., Buffalo, N. Y., March 31, '16.

Your complexion may be clear and smooth now but you will wish to use constantly a toilet soap which will maintain its beauty and prevent the possibility of any skin trouble. Such a soap is Cuticura. In purity, delicate medication and fragrance, it meets with the approval of the most discriminating.

For the Man Who KNOWS and WANTS a Good Cigar

Perhaps you pride yourself on knowing good tobacco.

And—unless you're a millionaire—you are interested in economy.

Then you are surely among the hundreds of thousands who smoke

La Sultana

The Empress of Cigars—5 cents

It has the richness of pure Havana tobacco—the sweetness and mildness that the loamy soil and balmy warmth of Sunny Cuba puts into the finest tobacco.

It has all the "body" that the smoker of cigars can wish—the coolness that characterizes a really fine tobacco.

With such rare qualities as these—wrapped perfectly into a full, generous-size cigar—is there any wonder that La Sultana is today the biggest success in the cigar field?

The next time you buy any cigar under 10 cents, insist on La Sultana.

MOTION PICTURE NOTES

The statement is made that Theda Bara, the Fox star, receives more "mash" notes than any other actress in the world.

Miss La Fontaine, of the Ziegfeld "Follies," appears in Chapter 10 of "Gloria's Romance" as a barefoot dancer.

Marguerite Clark has renewed her contract with the Famous Players Company, thus refuting a report she would quit the screen.

Jeanne Eagels is to be starred by Thanhouser in "The World and the Woman," a Pathe Gold Rooster play by Lester Lonergan.

Jane Lee of the Fox forces celebrated her fourth birthday not long ago. Asked what she got, she replied: "I got candy and I got sick."

June Caprice is immensely popular with children. Dozens of letters for her from youngsters reach the Fox offices every day.

The Paramount is to open a branch office in Cleveland with Harry W. Irons, formerly of Detroit, in charge.

Mlle. Gerda Poloukova, a classic dancer, who has danced in Lubin films, is planning a series of pictures based on the terpsichorean art.

Walter Law was getting his hair cut at Fort Lee recently when the barber, a slow worker, told him his hair was getting very gray. "I'm not surprised," Law retorted. "Hurry up!"

Montagu Love once asked a native of South Africa what they did to combat snake bites. He was told the victim drinks a whole bottle of whiskey. "But that won't cure you," said Love. "Well, it's very comforting," came the reply.

O. E. Goebel, President of Consolidated Film Corporation, has closed a deal whereby Henry J. Brook has acquired the world rights, exclusive of the United States and Canada, to "The Crimson Stain Mystery."

A story which is said to handle in a new way the present day problems of prison reform will be produced by Thanhouser, with Florence La Badie starred, soon.

Panthus, the ugliest pup in the world, who acted with Gladys Hulette in "Prudence, the Pirate," was shown a close-up of himself the other day, and he ran three miles before he was captured.

A powerful war drama of Scotland, with Virginia Pearson in the chief role, is the William Fox release for Oct. 9. The scenes take place in a picturesque Scotch village and the atmosphere is faithfully carried out.

$500 Claim Ties Up Freedman's Millions.

The settlement of Andrew Freedman's estate was tied up yesterday when Raffaele Montovane, a gardener formerly employed by him, filed a claim for $500. He set forth that Freedman had left that sum to every one in his employ at the time of his death and that he had not been notified he was to be a beneficiary under the will. The executors call the claim "frivolous."
