BULLET HITS WRONG MAN.

Shot Meant for Alleged Robbers Wounds Their Accuser.

Pursuing three men he charges with assault and robbery, Joseph Sexton, a Fifth Avenue bus conductor, of No. [illegible] West Forty-fifth Street, was shot in the ankle at Twenty-seventh Street and Seventh Avenue early to-day by Detective Brody of the Second Grand Jury. Brody was firing at [illegible] highwaymen he opened. They described themselves as Walter McCarthy, thirty-two, of No. [illegible] Seventh Avenue; Wesley Thompson, twenty-two, of No. 418 [illegible] Twenty-ninth Street, and Joseph Martin, eighteen, of No. 167 [illegible] Avenue. They denied all knowledge of Sexton's loss. The man giving the name of McCarthy declared he was a member of the Fire Department.

ELECTIONS AND MEETINGS.

THE NEW YORK, NEW HAVEN AND HARTFORD RAILROAD COMPANY.

New Haven, Connecticut, October 3, 1916.

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS:

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of The New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company will be held in Assembly Hall, No. 9 Elm Street, in the City of New Haven, Connecticut, on Wednesday, the 25th day of October, 1916, at 12.00 o'clock noon, for the following objects:

1. To receive and take appropriate action upon the annual reports and all acts and doings therein reported and all matters and things therein mentioned and all acts and doings of the Directors since the last annual meeting.

2. To authorize the issue of not to exceed $10,000,000 of the three-year five per cent. gold debentures containing an agreement that if any thing is hereafter placed upon this property of the corporation the debentures will be equally secured therein with any other indebtedness of the corporation, and also an agreement to sell, by and with the consent of the holders of not less than $10,000 of these debentures each year, and to apply the proceeds from the sale of such debentures to be used for the construction of new terminal passenger station and approaches to the City of New Haven, Connecticut.

3. To elect a Board of Directors for the ensuing year.

4. To transact any other business which may properly come before said meeting.

For the purpose of this meeting the transfer books of the Company will be closed from October 13th, 1916, to October 25th, 1916, both days inclusive.

By order of the Board of Directors.

ARTHUR E. CLARK, Secretary.

Fashion Promenade

See the New Fall and Early Winter
Fashions on Living Models
In Greenhut's Promenade
An interesting and a most instructive way to study what will be most acceptable in
Gowns, Suits, Wraps, Furs and Millinery
For Fall and Early Winter Wear
Promenade daily from 10 to 11.30 A. M. and 1 to 3.30 P. M.
Music by Theodore Bendix's String Orchestra
Faithful copies of imported models are shown—styles that have the sanction of Paris. Original modes created by the best talent of New York. Also many garments that were exhibited at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel Fashion Show. The trend of fashion is to luxury as shown in the scintillating garnitures of the evening dresses, the lavish use of furs and rich fabrics in the suits and coats. Even the street dresses are brightened with colored embroidery.
And—for many women—this fascinating display solves the problem of how to be fashionable without extravagance.
EVERY GARMENT IS OF HIGHEST WORTH FROM THE STANDPOINT OF STYLE AND QUALITY. NOTE THE ALL-PLEASING PRICE RANGE:

Tailored Suits	Dresses & Gowns	Coats & Wraps
$12.75 to $160	$7.95 to $155	$7.95 to $325

GREENHUT'S—SECOND FLOOR

Fashion's Newest and Best in Trimmed Millinery
$5, $7.50 & $10

To disregard Greenhut's Millinery Department at this stage of the game—at the opening of the season—is something that no woman can afford to do.
The exhibit in our Salons is not only of entrancing beauty, but as well is a perfect reflex of what is most acceptable and most practical for the coming festive months.
Make no mistake—Greenhut's is prepared this year as never before to give you a hat for less than anywhere else in New York. Be it a sweeping "picture" hat or a stately turban—be it a hat for the street, for occasional wear—here it is, and we'll challenge comparison, both on the score of price and of fashion.

GREENHUT'S—FIFTH FLOOR

The Season's Greatest Shoe Sale

Is Scheduled to Take Place at Greenhut's Tomorrow
Be it understood that this is a season when leather is higher in price than it has ever been since the Civil War.
Consequently good footwear is scarce and an offering of shoes at the price we name (quality considered) is practically out of the question elsewhere.
We Offer Women's $3 and $3.50 High Shoes, at . . . $1.98
This is the result of a most extraordinary purchase, and another occasion when we share our good fortune with our patrons.
Choice of button or lace styles. (Two as illustrated). Cuban or Cuban Louis leather heels. Flexible welted soles. All sizes from 2½ to 7; C to E widths.
Sale begins Wednesday morning.
