Diary of a City Clergyman.

The life of any preacher of the Word, is full of incident and event; but that of one who ministers to the people of a large city, is peculiarly so.

A certain city clergyman, who, for obvious reasons, will not as yet allow his name to be published, is now publishing some of the leaves of his diary, in Will Carleton's unique and always interesting Magazine, "Every Where."

This magazine contains the best and freshest literature obtainable, and there are in each issue poems by Will Carleton and the leading woman poet of America Margaret E. Sangster.

Published by the Every Where Publishing Company, Brooklyn, N. Y., Fifty Cents a year.

The Outcasts: A Tale of the Northwest.

Mr. W. A. Fraser, author of the Mooswa and Others, has just written for exclusive publication in THE SATURDAY EVENING POST a short, stirring serial, entitled The Outcasts.

The Outcasts are an old buffalo and a wolf-dog, and the greater part of the story is about the strange comradeship and striking adventures of these companions, and their pilgrimage, in company, to the distant plains of deep grass, of which the wolf-dog knew.

There are action, and strength of word and phrase in the story, and the touch of the soil and the music and charm and sombreness of the forest. The rush of the frenzied buffalo herd to death is told with splendid dramatic power. The plan of the book is a unique conception, and it is worked out on novel and entertaining lines.

The Great Modern Newspaper

When all that portion of the United States west of the Missouri and Saw rivers was a trackless wilderness, nearly half a century ago, the Globe-Democrat of our city, one of the world's greatest newspapers appeared. St. Louis was then a mere overgrown town on the western frontier of civilization, has developed into a great commercial metropolis, and that great modern newspaper, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, has kept pace with the progress of its city and section. It has been, from its first issue to the present time, the children's friend, the youth's counselor, the woman's companion, the farmer's instructor and friend. Its circulation extends to every state and territory of the Union, to Canada and Mexico, and to every port of the world where there are readers of the English language. It ought to be in your home during the coming year. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

A Great Newspaper.

The Sunday edition of The St. Louis Republic is a marvel of modern newspaper enterprise. The organization of its news service is world-wide, complete in every department; in fact, superior to that of any other newspaper.

The magazine section is illustrated in dainttily tinted colors and splendid half-tone pictures. This section contains more high-class literary matter than any of the monthly magazines. The fashions illustrated in natural colors are especially valuable to the ladies.

The colored comic section is a genuine laugh-maker. The funny cartoons are by the best artists. The humorous stories are high class, by authors of national reputation.

Sheet music, a high-class, popular song, is furnished free every Sunday in The Republic.

The price of The Sunday Republic by mail one year is $2.00. For sale by all news dealers.

Holds Up A Congressman.

"At the end of the last campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant Congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter. Over worked, run down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid heath and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

NOT HIS PLACE TO ASK.

"Uncle," said the dusty pilgrim, "how far is it to Sagetown?"

"'Bout a mild and a half," replied the farmer.

"Can I ride with you?"

"Sartin. Climb in."

At the end of three-quarters of an hour the dusty pilgrim began to be uneasy.

"Uncle," he asked, "how far are we from Sagetown now?"

"'Bout four mild and a half."

"Great grief! Why didn't you tell me we were going away from Sagetown?"

"Why didn't you tell me you wanted to go thar?"—Chicago Tribune.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder. I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market. For sale by Chandler & Witmer, Lutesville, and Dr. Witmer, MarbleHill.

If you haven't got off your fish yarn this spring it will be apt to go into cold storage after reading the following:

The horrible news comes from Kansas that a boy climbed a corn stalk to see how the corn was getting along and now the stalk is growing up faster than the boy can climb down. The boy is plumb out of sight. Three men have undertaken to cut down the stalk with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it grows so fast they can't hack twice in the same place. The boy is living on nothing but raw corn, and he has already thrown down over four bushels of cobs.—Eufaula Times.

A Testimonial from Old England.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis, says Mr. William Savory of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be able to publish testimonials of this character. they show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Chandler & Witmer, Lutesville, and Dr. Witmer, Marble Hill.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Great Republican Paper of America.

The Great Newspaper of the World.

Twice Every Week--One Dollar A Year.

AS a newspaper, the reputation of the Globe-Democrat is world wide. It is known and it circulates wherever the English language is read. Its Weekly Edition, issued in Semi-Weekly sections, at one dollar per year, is almost equal to a daily at the price of a Weekly. It gives the latest telegraphic news from all the world every Tuesday and Friday. Reports of current events are carried forward from section to section, and the complete news of world, in full telegrams, is contained in the sections.

AS a home journal it has no equal. Its departments devoted to "The Farm, Garden and Dairy," "The Family Circle" and "The Home" are each of the highest and most helpful character. Its market reports are correct and complete in every detail. An interesting story is continued from issue to issue, and it has many other features which combine to furnish help, amusement and instruction for people in all conditions and circumstances of life.

IN each department, and as a whole, the Weekly Globe-Democrat, issued in Semi-Weekly sections, is the peer of any family newspaper in the world, and it ought to be at every fireside during the coming year. Ladies Have You Seen

Or heard of Solid Cuevee Silver Tableware? This is the new metal that is rapidly superseding sterling silver for spoons, knives, forks and other tablewares. It is exactly the same metal through and the rough has no plating to wear off, looks just like sterling silver, is harder and will wear longer. It costs about one sixth as much. It is not for sale in stores, but every lady in this vicinity can obtain set of these Solid Cuevee Silver Teaspoons, warranted to wear twenty-five years, without paying a cent. Write for this free offer at once, before it is withdrawn. Quaker Valley Mfg. Co., Morgan and Harrison Sts., Chicago.

P.S.—Cut this notice out and return it with your request.
