WHY CHILLY WEATHER BRINGS RHEUMATISM

Says skin pores are closed and uric acid remains in blood.

Rheumatism is no respecter of age, sex, color or rank. If not the most dangerous of human afflictions it is one of the most painful. Those subject to rheumatism should eat less meat, dress as warmly as possible, avoid any undue exposure and, above all, drink lots of pure water.

Rheumatism is caused by uric acid which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Advt.

New, Positive Treatment To Remove Hair or Fuzz

(Beauty Notes)

Women are fast learning the value of the use of delatone for removing hair or fuzz from the face, neck or arms. A paste is made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on the hairy surface. In 2 or 3 minutes it is rubbed off, the skin washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No failure will result if you are careful to buy genuine delatone.—Advt.

The Strength of Natural Teeth

There is no comparison between the power of natural teeth and the false ones. Also there is no necessity for most people to lose the original ones, the cause usually being neglect of the gums. They bleed, recede and become infected, but if you would use Sozodent liquid dentifrice, while you are brushing the teeth, the harmless, but effective, properties of the Sozodent liquid quickly enter the gum tissue, overcome the germs and protect you with strong, sound teeth, in firm, normal, vigorous gums.—Advt.

Boston Players Win New Favor in Liszt Symphony

By Sylvester Rawling.

DR. KARL MUCK and the Boston Symphony Orchestra made a great occasion at Carnegie Hall last night. With the aid of a male chorus of eighty voices from the Chorale Music Society of Boston, prepared by Stephen S. Townsend and brought here for the event, they presented Liszt's "A Faust Symphony." The performance of the three character pictures, Faust, Gretchen and Mephistopheles (after Goethe) was memorable for a superb exposition of a remarkable work. Nothing that Dr. Muck and his splendid band have done is more to their credit, and the "Chorus Mysticus" got a proclamation worthy of the best traditions. If Arthur Hackett, the tenor soloist, fell anything short of what Dr. Philip Hale has said of him, at least he commanded respect and admiration for the quality of his voice and for the artistic use he made of it. Incidentally, Dr. Muck used the revisions made late in life by the composer, which he found in Wagner's home at Bayreuth and which are unpublished. At the end there was a demonstration such as one rarely may see by the dignified and learned music lovers who support Boston Symphony concerts.

Not all the honors of music yesterday fell to the Bostonians. Walter Damrosch and the Symphony Orchestra, before a crowded house at Carnegie Hall in the afternoon, gave a fine pronouncement of Cesar Franck's appealing symphony in D minor. Besides, on the programme there were Mendelssohn's "Fingal's Cave" overture, Wolf's "Italian Serenade," Enesco's "Roumanian Rhapsody" and excerpts from Otterstrom's "American Negro Suite," which, unfortunately, I could not stay to hear. And there was Louise Homer, looking young enough to be her daughter, in lovely voice, who sang the "O don fatale" aria from Verdi's "Don Carlos" and "Ombra mai fu" from Handel's "Xerxes."

Lester Donahue, a young California pianist who has won deserved approval here, gave a recital at Aeolian Hall yesterday afternoon. His programme comprised works by Beethoven, Schumann, Bach-d'Albert, Carpenter, Debussy, Dohnanyi and Liszt's "Apres une Lecture du Dante." The latter alone I was privileged to hear. Mr. Donahue gave a spirited expression of it in the approved Lisztian manner. But please, Mr. Donahue, spare us those startling wrenches of the head in forte passages. They conjure up imaginations of dread possibilities.

Desiree Lubowska, expositor of Egyptian and futuristic dancing, surrounded by a competent company of men and women dancers and supported by a small orchestra, gave a farewell matinee before sailing for South America at the Princess Theatre yesterday afternoon. The entertainment in its intimate surroundings proved more than usually interesting and was enjoyed by a crowded house. "L'amour Enchantee" and "The Soul Flame" were the principal numbers.

Verdi's "Rigoletto," given for a special performance at the Metropolitan Opera House yesterday afternoon, packed the house and hundreds were turned away. The cast, an excellent one, included Giuseppe de Luca as Rigoletto, Maria Barrientos as Gilda and Leon Rothier as Sparafucile; but, of course, it was Caruso, as the Duke, that drew the crowd. He justified his great reputation. Mr. Papi conducted.

In the evening at the Metropolitan Opera House a large audience found interest in Giordano's "Madame Sans-Gene," with Geraldine Farrar in the name part as the principal attraction. She was in exceptionally good voice and, as the character suits her, deservedly won marked favor. Pasquale Amato's Napoleon, dramatically impressive, was hoarsely sung. But then excuses for him had been made from the stage by Mr. Guard, so nobody was surprised. As a matter of fact, there was doubt early in the day whether Mr. Amato could sing at all, with the possibility of a change of bill. The familiar cast, which includes Giovanni Martinelli as Lefebvre, with Mr. Polacco conducting, maintained its excellence.

Won't Quit, Says Gregory.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—"I have absolutely no intention of retiring from President Wilson's Cabinet."

Attorney General Gregory thus denied to-day persistent rumors, originating in semi-official quarters, to the effec. that he would resign.

STOWAWAY GIRL CAUGHT STARTING FOR PANAMA

Purser Discovered She Had No Ticket and Mother Will Get Her at Quarantine.

Still regretting the purser of the steamship Colon had not waited several hours before collecting tickets, sixteen-year-old Helen Promisthi of No. 224 Tinton Avenue, the Bronx, looked sadly out to sea this morning from Quarantine and awaited the arrival of her mother.

Miss Promisthi decided to be a stowaway and see the world. With $1.50 and no baggage, she boarded the Colon yesterday at the Panama Line pier. She had difficulty, however, in finding a suitable place to hide, and the purser discovered her and demanded her ticket as the ship neared Quarantine.

The naval tug Powhatan came alongside and received Miss Promisthi, tearful but unrepentant. Her mother was notified.

Striking Eastern Fishermen Migrate to the West.

BOSTON, March 16.—Migration of fishermen of Gloucester and this city to the Pacific Coast, because no settlement of the strike of the New England Fisherman's Union is in prospect, began to-day when 100 men left for Seattle. Additional groups of strikers will start to-morrow for other west coast ports, where positions are said to be open to them. The strike, now in effect nearly a month, has tied up forty fishing vessels. A readjustment of working conditions is demanded.

Eats Candy But Loses Her Fat

Here's joyful news for every fleshy person who loves good things to eat, especially those who are denying themselves the things they like most because of their desire to keep down their weight or to reduce the fat with which they are already burdened.

The famous Marmola Prescription has been put up in convenient tablet form and is now sold by druggists everywhere at only 75 cents per large case. To get rid of fat at the rate of two to four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reduced your weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or flabbiness will remain to show where the fat came off.

Simply use Marmola Prescription Tablets according to directions; they are harmless, free from poisonous or injurious drugs and can be used with perfect safety. Try them for just a few weeks and get results without going through long siege of tiresome exercises and starvation diet. Get them at any good drug store or send price direct to Marmola Company, 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich., and a full size package will be mailed to you direct in plain wrapper and postpaid.—Advt.

Women! Stop Corn Pain! Few Drops and Corns Lift Out

Don't hurt a bit! Cincinnati man discovers drug that works wonders—No humbug! Never let a corn ache twice.

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now?

This tiny bottle holds an almost magic fluid. A genius in Cincinnati discovered this ether compound and named it freezone. Small bottles of freezone like here shown can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Never limp or twist your face in pain again, but get a bottle of freezone and apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you can lift it off with the fingers.

Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses without suffering one particle. Freezone is magic!

Genuine freezone is sold only in these tiny bottles packed in a round, wood case. Don't accept it unless it is in a round, wood case.—Advt.
