Are You Pale and Listless?

Do you feel chilly when other people don't? Is your appetite poor? Do you easily become fatigued? Does your vitality seem sapped? If some of these symptoms are accompanied by fever you should consult a good doctor quickly. If fever is absent then you are probably run down because of blood impoverishment.

If you act promptly this condition can be remedied; but it should not be neglected.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan

"The Red Blood Builder"

Study this package so you will know how genuine Pepto-Mangan looks.

is a time-tried remedy for those who are inclined toward anemia. It attacks an anemic condition at its very source—the blood. It makes thin blood rich by increasing the number of red blood cells. With an abundance of rich, red blood coursing through your veins bringing renewed vitality to every part of the body, abundant health is almost certain.

Pepto-Mangan is acceptable to the stomach, its taste is attractively aromatic, and its rich red color is pleasing in appearance. It cannot injure the teeth.

Friendly Warning: True Pepto-Mangan comes only in bottles and packages as illustrated in this advertisement. It is never sold in bulk. As there are many substitutes accept only the genuine—Gude's. Read the circular wrapped around the bottle.

Pepto-Mangan is made only by

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK WONDERS

Rosa Raisa Star of "The Jewels" At the Lexington

By Sylvester Rawling.

WOLF-FERRARI'S "The Jewels of the Madonna" was last night's offering by the Chicago Opera Company at the Lexington Theatre. After the fever of excitement that prevailed at the opening of the four weeks' season the night before, when "Monna Vanna" was sung, reaction was inevitable. While the audience was large, it showed appreciation, except for a moment or two, placidly.

That the presentation lost in effectiveness by the absence from the cast of the vaunted tenor Crimi, detained in Chicago, it is said, by illness, was obvious. Giuseppe Gaudenzi, who was commandeered at the eleventh hour to take his place as Gennaro, despite painstaking endeavor, was not satisfying either as to voice or characterization. Upon Rosa Raisa, as Maliella, therefore, fell the responsibility for the performance. She stood the test. Young, lithe and handsome, with a voice of power and compass and with fine dramatic sense, her success was unmistakable. Greater variety of color in her singing is to be desired, and her habit of rolling her eyes upward until only the whites are exposed to the inevitable suggestion of a Hallowe'en hobgoblin she should get rid of it at once.

Giacomo Rimini sang and acted Rafaele well. His insolence, audacity and masterfulness befitted the vulgar Lothario and leader of the Camorrists. Our old friend Francesco Daddi was a capital Blaso, and Louise Berat was a capable Carmela. The other principals who had a line or two to sing and got their names on the programme in an imposing list were competent. The chorus was lusty of voice and agile in action, and the dancers were pleasing. Mr. Charlier conducted admirably save for giving too much license to the brasses. He must remember that the acoustics of the house are exceptionally good.

"Il Trovatore" at the Metropolitan Opera House last night was enjoyed by a large audience. In the cast were Claudio Muzio, Margarete Matzenauer, Martinelli, De Luca, and Rothier. The performance, an excellent one, was ably conducted by Mr. Papi.

Pablo Casals, the 'cellist, was soloist with the Philharmonic Orchestra at Carnegie Hall last night. He appeared in Dvorak's concerto in B minor. His playing was delightful throughout; in the second movement it was a rare treat. Mr. Casals well deserved the ovation he got. Mr. Stransky's programme included the Bach concerto in F major, Schubert's unfinished symphony, and MacDowell's too seldom heard "Hamlet and Ophelia" poems, in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the death of the composer. Mr. Stransky and his musicians were at their best. A large audience enjoyed the concert.

Hulda Lashanska gave a song recital at Aeolian Hall last night, accompanied at the piano by Frank La Forge. Her programme had a wide range, including compositions by Scotti, Handel, Grieg, Liszt, Fourdrain and La Forge. Her voice is of lovely quality and she uses it artistically. A large audience enjoyed and was enthusiastic over her singing.

GIVES PEACEFUL GERMANS RIGHT TO USE COURTS

Justice Gavegan's Decision in Mme. Ober's Case Paves Way to Other Suits.

Supreme Court Justice Gavegan has just upheld the contention of Mme. Margarete Arndt-Ober that she has the right to maintain in court her $50,000 action against the Metropolitan Opera Company for alleged breach of contract. She was discharged because of existing war conditions.

Justice Gavegan denied the company's motion for postponement of the trial until after the war on the ground that Mme. Ober is a German subject.

Not only does this decision open the courts to a large number of plaintiffs hitherto barred, but it paves the way for action by other opera stars discharged by the Metropolitan for similar reasons.

Break a Cold In Few Hours

First dose of "Pape's Cold Compound" relieves the cold and grippe misery—Don't stay stuffed up!

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and sniffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Advt.

NOW RAISES 600 CHICKENS

After Being Relieved of Organic Trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me.

"I saw the Compound advertised in our paper, and tried it. It has restored my health so I can do all my work, and I am so grateful that I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. D. M. Alters, R. R. 4, Oregon, Ill.

Only women who have suffered the tortures of such troubles and have dragged along from day to day can realize the relief which this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, brought to Mrs. Alters.

Women everywhere in Mrs. Alters's condition should profit by her recommendation, and if there are any complications write Lydia E. Pinkham's Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for advice. The result of their 40 years' experience is at your service.—Advt.
