A capacity audience greeted William Farnum in his latest Fox picture "Drag Harlan" at the Globe last night. Again tonight this famous two-gun man will uncork his smoke-wagons. If you want to see some speed with a six-gun don't let Heller Highwater keep you away. "Drag Harlan" is the word. Pass it along. The overture by the orchestra, and the fine music rendered throughout the evening make the bill at the Globe alive with good entertainment.

Save Now---Spend Later

There's a lot in how we arrange the ups and downs of life. Keeping savings up and holding expenses down is the common sense rule for every one who expects to make definite progress.

Those who save now while spending brings such unprofitable returns will have the satisfaction of spending later on when dollars buy more.

It takes so little to start an account with us—and the benefits are so numerous—that the desirability for prompt action is obvious.
