

GEORGIA SILVER CONVENTION.

Speech by Senator Morgan on the Feature of the Meeting.

GRiffin, Ga., July 18.—The principal event at the Georgia silver convention, held here today, was the speech of Senator Morgan of Alabama. He criticized the bond issue as without precedent or justification and, speaking of the $100,000,000 gold reserve, said: "It was a sort of 'jackpot' put up by Mr. Sherman that has kept up the gambling in our money."

Continuing, he said that Mr. Sherman's law of 1873 was such a death blow to silver as a money metal that it seems marvelous that silver has in its enough life left to take up its bed and walk. But, he said, "it is moving to the front with uplifted head and vigorous step again. In union if not in full harmony with gold, and the parade is so inspiring that even Great Britain is keeping step to the music of the union."

Senator Morgan concluded as he had begun, that the Democratic party was the friend of silver. "It is," he said, "a safer guardian of the rights of silver money than any other party, whether Republican, Populist or Mugwump. I, therefore, am willing to entrust this great question to their keeping and I shall remain at my post under that flag, as I have done for 20 years in the senate, and will do all that is in my power for this and the cause of the people."

Great crowds from the country and surrounding towns attended the bimetallic convention.

THE HERR-HARVEY DEBATE.

Third Day of the Big Financial Discussion in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The third day of the Herr-Harvey silver debate opened in the auditorium of the Illinois club at 11 a. m. today, the lateness of the starting hour heretofore having been found more or less inconvenient in some respects. The subject under discussion was what Mr. Harvey had characterized in his book as "The Crime of 1873"—the demonization of silver. After some miscellaneous sparring, Mr. Harvey charged corruption in the passage of the demonization of silver. Mr. Herr, in reply, declared that it was not true that every man had his price. Members of congress were as honest as the average American citizen.

This closed the debate for the day, except the answering of questions by the disputants propounded by members of the audience. The attendance was not large, but it was appreciative and generous and impartial in its recognition of telling points.

Silver Leaders in Conference.

CHICAGO, July 18.—The executive committee appointed by the recent silver conference at Memphis met in conference here today with the members of the bimetallic league, with ex-congressman Sibley as chairman. The issue discussed was the advisability of separate political action in the campaign of next year, but no definite action was decided upon, and it was expected that another meeting will be held tomorrow. Among those present today were J. R. Goodwin of Memphis, Charles Coffin of Arkansas, J. O. Ralphy of West Virginia, Secretary Ackler of Nashville, General A. J. Warner of Ohio, A. W. Becker of Colorado, and ex-Judge H. W. Miller of Chicago.

Collided With an Unknown Schooner.

MARINE CITY, Mich., July 18.—As the tug Tormentor was coming up through the canal at the flats she came into collision with an unknown schooner, and the captain of the Tormentor, Ralph Hackett of Detroit, one of the best known captains on the lakes, and the vesselman, David Canary of Port Huron, were killed, and one wheelman, a young man from this city, John Catnach, is missing.

Ultimatum of Carpet Manufacturers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—The big carpet mill owners of Kensington have notified the striking weavers that the mills will be opened next Monday, and if the strikers refuse to return they will close down indefinitely. The manufacturers agree to pay the current rate of wages until next December, when they will pay the advance demanded by the strikers.

DEPRESSION IN GRAIN.

Everything Started Weak, Wheat Leading in the Slump.

Corn Influenced by Favorable Crop Conditions.

Wheat and Corn.

CHICAGO, July 18.—All grain markets started weak today, wheat leading in the slump. The weather was perfect for crops. Cattle were off outside trade lacking, and the bears hammered the market energetically. September wheat opened 1/2¢ lower at 66 1/2¢, broke to 66 1/4¢ and rallied to 66 1/2¢.

Corn was weak on favorable crop conditions. September opened 1/2¢ lower at 44 1/2¢, broke to 44 1/4¢ and rallied to 44 1/2¢.

Cattle were weak with wheat and corn. Provisions were slightly lower at the start in sympathy with the weakness in grain.

UNDER THE BIG TENT.

Baptist Young People's Convention Begins at Baltimore.

PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS.

Representative Men Assemble at Toronto to Discuss Religion and Education.

BALTIMORE, July 18.—The fifth international convention of the Baptist Young People's union of America was begun today. It was sweltering hot within the enclosure of the great tent brought here from Cleveland for the convention. The decorations were simple. Banked behind the officers' stage was the chorus of 500 voices. The delegations began to arrive early. New York marched in singing and was welcomed with a generous clapping of hands. Brooklyn soon followed, the caps of the delegates bearing the words and figures, "Brooklyn, 1897," a suggestion that the convention should go to the City of Churches two years hence.

At 9:30 the 1,500-pound bell rang out its call for delegates and people generally to gather at the tent, and the arrivals were rapid thereafter. Promptly at 10 o'clock President John H. Chapman of Chicago arose and called upon the chorus, which responded with two selections. Rev. C. A. Hobbs, D. D., of Delavan, Wis., made an earnest prayer. The president was very happy in his address and called forth much laughter when he alluded to the warm hearts and warm sun of the south.

The annual report of the board of managers was then presented by Rev. Frank L. Wilkins, D. D., grand secretary. The several committees were appointed and the morning session was adjourned.

Preparing to Receive Presbyterians.

COLUMBUS, O., July 18.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the inauguration of the Young People's Christian union of the United Presbyterian church, which will convene here Aug. 31. Three thousand delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada are expected. Half fare railroad rates have been secured.

Welcomed to Toronto.

TORONTO, July 18.—About 5,000 delegates to the pan-American congress of religion and education have arrived here and thousands more are on their way. This afternoon the delegates assembled in Horticultural pavilion, where addresses of welcome were delivered.

Shot His Mother-in-Law.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Paul Balke shot and fatally wounded his mother-in-law, Mrs. Augusta Kell, and put two bullets into his father-in-law, Charles Kell. Balke's wife, who is now in Grand Rapids, Mich.; left him some time ago because of ill treatment. Balke while drunk went to his wife's parents and demanded to know her whereabouts. They refused to inform him and the shooting followed. Balke was arrested.

Deed to Sell the Short Line.

PORTLAND, July 18.—Judge Bellinger has signed the decrees ordering the foreclosure of the consolidated mortgage of the Oregon Short Line and Utah Northern and a sale of the road. He has appointed John B. Cleland of this city commissioner to conduct the sale of the property of the company at Salt Lake. The decree must be concurred in by Judges Sanborn of St. Paul and Merritt of Utah before the road can be sold.

Taylor-Meeks Murder Case.

CARROLLTON, Mo., July 18.—Both sides announced themselves as ready to go to trial in the Taylor-Meeks murder case and a special venire was ordered by the court from which to select the jury. The trial proper will probably begin Thursday of next week. The defense was granted permission to take the deposition of four witnesses who are ill and unable to appear in person.

To Testify Against Durrant.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—Maud Lamont, sister of the unfortunate victim of the revolting Emmanuel church murder, has returned here from Montana to testify for the prosecution in the forthcoming trial of Theodore Durrant. The police believe she will prove a valuable witness. She was her sister's most constant companion during the leisure hours of the murdered girl and also knew Durrant.

Betrayers Ask For Compensation.

PORTLAND, Or., July 18.—The notorious Nat Blum and W. B. Jacklin filed a petition in the United States court asking for a large compensation for betraying their fellow smugglers, testifying at the trials for the prosecution and for having furnished information which led to the seizure of the old Haytian Republic.

Lavigne Challenges McAluffe.

NEW YORK, July 18.—George Lavigne issued a challenge to Jack McAluffe of Brooklyn, the champion lightweight pugilist, to meet him for the championship honors. If McAluffe does not care to meet Lavigne the latter offers to fight any man in the world at 135 pounds before a responsible club.

Charged With Embezzling $150,000.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Charles Newman, late a magistrate on the island of Trinidad, has been arrested in Brooklyn upon the charge of embezzling $150,000 from estates of which he was administrator. He fled from Trinidad early in 1893.

Large Building Collapses.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 18.—A large building in course of erection on Second street collapsed. Seven men buried in the ruins were extricated. Two were fatally injured.

German Politician Dies.

BERLIN, July 18.—Herr Richensperger, ex-leader of the Centrist party, is dead.

WILL BE A LIVELY CONTEST.

Two Eastern Women Are Rival Claimants For the Clark Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—After waiting nearly 20 years to find the heirs to the estate of Captain Fred G. Clark, who was lost with the bark Dagmar in 1877, a lively contest is soon to begin at which two eastern women are to appear as rival claimants. Friends of the captain say it was his verbally expressed wish that his property should go to his betrothed, Nellie Ormonde of Boston, in the event of his death, but Miss C. A. Wilkes of Alabama, who asserts that she is his sister, has employed a lawyer to prosecute her claims. Miss Wilkes says that the true name of Captain Clark was James Pinckney Wilkes, that during the civil war his brother enlisted in the federal army and was taken sick in Memphis, and was left there to die. Recovering, he was on his way to his home in Alabama when captured by one Tom Clark, and his notorious gang of freebooters, who raided the surrounding country, seizing anything of value they could find, torturing their victims, and frequently slaying those who offered resistance. Tom Clark, who, as Wilkes' neighbor, had known him as a fearless lad, induced him by threats and promises to become one of his outlaws. Mayor Curran of Boston said he is the estate for the late captain's old sweetheart, Nellie Ormonde. Her brother, James Ormonde, now a Boston millionaire, and Clark served together in the war.

NINE MINERS ENTOMBED.

Work of Rescue Delayed by Continued Falling of Ore.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., July 18.—No positive information as to the safety of the entombed miners at the Powable mine can be given. Slow progress is being made through the mass of ore, broken timbers and rocks, and work is being much delayed by continued falling of ore. It does not seem possible that any of the nine men have been rescued, and the report that communication had been established with the men last night appears to have been false.

From a miner who was employed in the rescue crew it is learned that no signals were had with the room in which the men are supposed to be confined, and he is of the opinion that all but three have been killed. The cave-in occurred just as the men were quitting work, and it is certain that some were caught. Edward Webb, James Ewolden, Peter Canine and John Johnson are among the entombed. The other five but recently entered the employ of the company and their names are unknown. The accident was caused by the timbers and pillars on the first level giving way.

It is known that some of the miners are alive, as hammering on the pipe leading into the room in which the men are confined has been responded to with nine raps given, and this is accepted as evidence that the men are all together, but whether all escaped injury cannot be established.

Horsewhipped by His Wife.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 18.—Edward Larnie, a barber, was horsewhipped last night by his angry wife in the presence of a large crowd of people. Larnie was sauntering up Broadway at 8 o'clock. He was pursued by his wife and her sister, who supposed he had a meeting with a woman. Mrs. Larnie thought she saw her husband going to speak to a woman, so she drew out a horsewhip from the folds of her dress and made a rush for him. The sister acted as a second to his wife, and kept shouting "Give it to him, give it to him." The appearance of the police saved Larnie from a worse whipping than he had.

Given Up as Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 18.—The British bark Fenimore, with left. Newcastle, Australia, on Jan. 26, for Panama, has not yet reached her destination, and has been given up as lost. Nothing has ever been heard of her since she sailed from the colonial port and a month ago reinforcements were freely offered at 90 cents per ton. She was a steam iron vessel of about 1,500 tons burden and was in command of Captain Higgins. She should have made the voyage by the date of April, and she is now posted as being three months overdue. She was loaded with Australian coal.

Double Hanging at Greensburg.

GREENSBURG, Pa., July 18.—John Goode and William Freeman, two negroes, were hanged this morning in the court yard here. The men waited to the scaffold with firm steps. Death resulted from strangulation. The crime for which Goode was executed was the killing of Mass Slaughter, a fellow coke worker, over a game of craps. William Freeman shot and killed his mistress, Gerie Timberlake, because she refused to give him money. He was also employed in the coke region. About 300 persons witnessed the executions.

Condition of Injured Firemen.

CINCINNATI, July 18.—The 20 firemen injured by falling walls at the burning of the warehouses on Walnut and Water streets last night are all doing well today. The only ones who are now considered seriously injured are Michael McNally and Edward Newton. The latter will recover but McNally may die. Some of those injured will soon be out again. The corrected list shows a loss of $190,000; insurance, $120,000.

Bullet Marks in a Church Door.

An interesting discovery has been made at the Church of St. Mary, with St. Andrew, Tenymhan, in Kent. The western door recently underwent restoration, and the removal of all special covering disclosed that the portal was of fine massive oak, which, on examination, was found to be scarred in several places with bullet marks. There are eight distinct punctures, in some of which the leaden bullets still remain imbedded. It is supposed that they were fired into the door by some of Cromwell's soldiers when engaged in the spoliation and desecration of the Kentish churches.—London Letter.
