EIGHT BISMARCKS JOIN MOVE TO CAST OFF GERMAN NAMES

Berlins, Bremens and Other U. S. Cities With Teutonic Titles to Follow Suit.

Following the lead of the citizens of Bismarck, N. D., to "change the name of the town to something decent," the ferment against a civic moniker made in Germany has spread to the eight other Birmarcks in Arkansas, Illinois, Michigan, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

It is expected the Berlins, the Bremens and all other American cities sporting a German town for a name sponsor will fall in line and eradicate the implied hyphen in their municipal title. The Evening World has received despatches from two Bismarcks which are indicative of zeal for a rebaptism on the part of their citizens. These despatches follow:

Missouri for Something 100 Per Cent. American.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BISMARCK, Mo., July 18.—This town wants another name. All of the citizens are behind a movement of the town fathers to drop "Bismarck" into the discard and substitute something 100 per cent. American. So far, however, no decision has been reached upon what the substitute name will be.

Pennsylvania Would Change to Coleman.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BISMARCK, Pa., July 18.—With the entry of the United States into the war against Germany residents of this town began an agitation to change the name to West Cornwall. The Post Office Department vetoed the proposition because there is a West Cornwall in Connecticut. The residents have now petitioned the Post Office Department to call the town Coleman in honor of one of the leading families. William J. Noll, President of the Board of Education and Chairman of the Republican County Committee, is at the head of the movement to eliminate everything Teutonic in the community.

Keep Your Home GERM-PROOF

If your boy is in one of the National Army cantonments, he is safer than before he left you—unless you keep your home free from disease-bearing germs.

What the army doctors have done, YOU can do, right in your own home; simply and easily, at a cost of only a cent or two a day.

Kill the germs in your home with ACME Chlorinated Lime before they have a chance to do their deadly work.

Medical men everywhere endorse the use of chlorinated lime in the home. A little ACME in your garbage pail arrests fermentation and decay; destroys foul odors. ACME keeps your sink and toilets fresh and clean. On pantry shelves, protects the food and keeps away roaches, water-bugs and vermin.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character. The symptoms of diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College Street, Boston, Mass., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in the newspaper. The prescribed remedies can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

The aid of an invigorating tonic medicine, like a tube of three-grain cadomene tablets taken as per directions for various periods, has in my practice been of great benefit in many cases of nervous troubles, such as nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of ambition, etc., and I want everyone who reads this to know what a blessing it may be to them. Cadomene tablets are a tonic and not a habit-forming drug. Cadomene tablets are sold by all druggists at $1 a tube.

Lady writes: "I am writing for advice for my husband, who is troubled with pimples and boils. He also seems to be all run down. I know he is very fond of pickles, which I think should be eliminated from his diet. Kindly advise us what to do."

Answer: Your husband should take a course of three-grain cadomene tablets and use Dr. Baker's Blood Ointment for the skin troubles, as per directions for several months.

Mr. writes: "When I cough my head aches so that I think it will split. Also have a bad taste in my mouth and feel very nervous. Please advise me what to do."

Answer: Your cough is due to a cold in the head. Use Dr. Baker's Catarrh Snuff and take three-grain cadomene tablets, as per directions for several months.

"Restless" writes: "I am uneasy about my health. My kidneys and bladder are not well. I have spells of depression, do not sleep well, have to rise frequently. Urine has odor and burns very scant sometimes. My ankles puff and under eyes puff up. I have pain. Please prescribe."

Answer: Your symptoms indicate you need treatment to tone up the functions of kidneys and bladder. Obtain three-grain cadomene tablets and use as per directions for several months, or until relief is experienced.

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been giving free advice and prescriptions to thousands of people through our press columns, and doubtless he has helped to relieve those and distress. Now you may single individual in the country, without charge. Address Dr. Baker, care this paper. Hundreds have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence.—Adv.

Notes in Society

Miss Alene Southard Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Pierson of New York, was married yesterday at her parents' summer home at Westhampton, L. I., to Ensign Richard B. Bevier, U. S. N., of No. 212 Berkeley Place, Brooklyn. The ceremony was performed by Mgr. David J. Hickey of Brooklyn. The bride's father is president of the Irving National Bank.

Miss Grace Vanderbilt, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, will make her debut the evening of July 27 at a dinner and dance at the Beaulieu, at Newport. There will be about sixty guests at dinner, including both members of the younger set and their elders. Miss Vanderbilt's father, in France, and her brother, Private Cornelius Vanderbilt jr., in the service here, will not be able to be present.

First Lieut. Charles John Aufferth jr., a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Aufferth, of No. 530 West 166th Street, and Miss May Adele Snyder, a daughter of Mrs. Lucille Cecelia Snyder of White Plains, were married yesterday at St. Thomas's. A dinner for the families followed at the Hotel Plaza.

HAS MOTHERED POLICE FOR MORE THAN 36 YEARS

But Mrs. O'Melea Has No Pension in Sight Despite Long Service at Station.

Larry O'Melea was a policeman and died from pneumonia contracted in the performance of his duty. But as he had not been ten years in the service, his wife received no pension. So she went to work taking care of the dormitory of the Elizabeth Street Police Station to earn money to support their three children.

That was thirty-six years ago. "Mother" O'Melea is sixty-five years old now and still acting as mother professor and bed maker for the boys of the Elizabeth Street Station. For years she has been a sufferer from rheumatism. This spring, for the first time, it drove her to her bed, but after two months she is back at work.

Mrs. O'Melea is employed by the men of the station, not by the city. So she is not entitled to a pension, though she has served thirty-six years. Her husband worked for the city, but she did not get a pension because he had not served long enough. If the law can't be made reasonable, the boys of Elizabeth Street are wondering if some of the wealthy women who sometimes pension police horses wouldn't like to look in on "Mother" O'Melea.

WOMAN RESCUES DROWNING MAN IN HALF-MILE SWIM

Awakened by Cry at Dawn, Brings Him in on Back After He Sank Twice.

A young woman clad in a flowing night dress ran down the beach at Edgemere, L. I., at dawn to-day, swam out half a mile to sea and rescued a young man whose first cry for help had awakened her in her beach bungalow.

She was Mrs. Herman L. Reiss, No. 30 Beach 47th Street, a city swimming teacher and life saver. The youth who owes his life to her is Milton Gross, No. 12 Beach 49th Street.

Gross had been seized with a cramp in both arms while taking his morning dip. Unable to help himself, he drifted out, crying for help. At a distance down the beach a boat was made ready and volunteer life savers manned it.

But Mrs. Reiss was nearer, and she was in the water within a few minutes of the first distress cry. Gross had sunk once as she reached the water. He sank again as she drew near. And as she reached him he lost consciousness and was sinking a third time.

Dipping under him, Mrs. Reiss got him on her back and swam to shore, where she gave first aid. When it was apparent that Gross was recovering Mrs. Reiss went back to her bungalow to finish her interrupted sleep.

STEWARD HELD UP IN RAIN AT MIDNIGHT BY THREE MEN

Policeman, Pursuing Highwaymen Up Broadway, Fires Five Shots Before They Halt.

Emanuel Amayo of No. 252 West 59th Street, who is steward for the Childs restaurants in this city, was walking, head bent against the rain, through Chambers Street toward Broadway at midnight when three men stepped out of the shadows and closed on him. One threw a raincoat over his head, drawing it tight about his arms, while the other two searched his pockets. They took $90 and started to run.

Policeman Cunningham of the Beach Street Station, who had seen the robbery from a distance, pursued the trio up Broadway, firing five shots after them before he persuaded them to halt and surrender themselves at Duane Street.

When arraigned to-day before Magistrate Cornell in the Centre Street Court on a charge of highway robbery they gave their names as Louis Guma of No. 54 Oliver Street, Richard George of No. 229 Front Street, and Michael Considenis of No. 106 Roosevelt Street. The stolen money had been found in Guma's possession.

All were held in $2,500 bail and sent to the Tombs.

ASSAULTED: HER GEMS GONE

Robbery of Jewels Worth $1,180 Charged Against Woman's Escort.

On an affidavit by Mrs. Lillian Meyer of No. 126 East 25th Street, the Bronx, Jacob Gasser of No. 3803 White Plains Avenue, was held by Magistrate Nolan in $2,000 bail on a charge of robbery. Mrs. Meyer alleges that after she and Gasser had enjoyed drinks together in several cafes on Tuesday night Gasser was joined by three other men when he was escorting her home and that some one of them struck her with a blackjack.

When she regained consciousness jewels worth $1,180 which she wore were gone; also Gasser, she says, who was the only one of the four she knew.

DIES OF HEMORRHAGES.

Naval Pay Inspector Doherty Had Been Ill Six Months.

Pay Inspector Henry Doherty, U. S. N., recently assigned to duty at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, died in his rooms at the Sherman Apartments, 73d Street and Broadway, at 9 A. M. on Tuesday from internal hemorrhages. He had been ill six months. When the last attack came Doherty was attended by Dr. Beck, the apartment physician. His wife was with him when he died.

Naval authorities of the Brooklyn Navy Yard have taken charge of the body, and have made plans for the funeral, not yet announced.

Inspector Doherty had spent some time in the Navy Yard Hospital and was absent on sick leave when he died.

This insures customers receiving goods promptly as per schedule, same as if our stores were open, and deprives no employee of a holiday.
