MINOR MENTION. -The Gordon cornet band leaves for Omaha next Monday night to attend the State fair. -On Monday evening Judge Ray married Furd Palmer to Miss Anna Herfeldt, both of Maywood. -A dozen friends dropped in upon Mrs. L. P. McDonald Tuesday evening and assisted in celebrating her birth anniversary. -We welcome to our exchange list the Gering Courier. It is the brightest and best looking paper published in the North Platte valley. -W. C. Lemon brought into town Tuesday, from his farm north of the river, a watermelon which weighed thirty-seven pounds. -Railroad men can find the Asbestos fire and water proof gloves at the Wilcox Department Store. -The Daughters of the King gave a very enjoyable little social at the guild house Monday evening to the members and their young lady friends. -M. K. Barnum this week trimmed up some of his Wyandotte fowls and sent them to Omaha to compete in the poultry display at the Nebraska state fair. -After Sunday next Rev. Graves will take a short vacation of a couple of weeks, being the first he has had since he took charge of the Baptist interests in this city. -The interior arrangement of the Fair store has been materially changed this week in order to make more room, and which remodeling adds greatly to the convenience. -Rev. C. H. Mitchelmore, of Genoa, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday, morning and evening, at the Presbyterian church in this city. He has been here attending presbytery and is said to be a very fluent talker. -An Alliance printer passed through the city Wednesday on his way to a visit with Gotherburg friends. He made the journey across the country upon a bicycle. His costume consisted of a pair of green knickerbockers and a look of fatigue. -Nearly every dilapidated crosswalk in the Second ward has been torn out and replaced with new ones. These improvements were badly needed, and after the dirt filling is settled Mayor Baker will have the thanks of pedestrians. -Men's gloves at the Wilcox Dept. Store. -English Billy's team took a lively little spin down Locust street yesterday afternoon. Upon reaching the Court-house park they entered and collided with a tree, when they became detached from the wagon and each continued the race after his own fashion. No great damage was done. -According to signal officer Piercy Tuesday and Wednesday of this week were the record smashes in the way of temperature for the month of September for this locality. Upon each of those days the mercury stood at 100 degrees. This is rather singular, as on the morning of the 7th there was a light frost. -Last night the Gordon cornet band of this city presented N. Klein what is undoubtedly the finest Eb clarinet ever seen here. It is of the famous C. G. Conn manufacture, and has a five years' guarantee, which is a sufficient indication of the maker's faith in the durability and other good qualities of his handiwork. The instrument is handsomely silver plated, and is indeed a thing of beauty, and we trust that in the skillful hands of the Professor it may prove a joy forever. John Lonergan made the presentation in behalf of the band boys, and his speech, in the language of one of the members, "completely knocked Klein off the perch," and the Professor could only articulate that the instrument was too dry and needed wetting. -T. J. Foley has become interested in an Illinois implement manufacturing concern and will have charge of the western depot to be established at Council Bluffs. He will remove his family from Sioux City to Council Bluffs within the next month. We believe that Mr. Foley and family will never feel fully contacted until they again take up a residence in this city, where they were for so many years identified with the business, social and church interests of the city, and where they were ever esteemed.

-A party will be given to-morrow afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dillard in honor of their little daughter. -Quite a large display of fine fruit from the Oregon Short Line country, went through yesterday morning for exhibition at the Nebraska state fair. -By special request Rev. Graves will preach a sermon at the Baptist church next Sunday morning on "Non-partisanship in Municipal Affairs." Seats free and all welcome. -Clinton, the jeweler, leaves next week for the eastern markets where he says he will purchase the largest stock of holiday goods and novelties in his line ever brought to this city. -By reason of not consulting a calendar, an error occurred in Tuesday's paper in regard to the M. W. A. "log rolling" at Sutherland. The correct date is Friday, Sept. 20th. -The North Platte mills continue to pay the top market price for grain, but old Agricola, who is a little timid for fear of another famine upon the uplands next season, is a little slow in letting go his grip upon the same. -A traveling man in the city yesterday is authority for the statement that it was contemplated that the best of the Nebraska agricultural exhibit at the State fair would be taken to the Atlanta exposition. It would be a great scheme. -Quite a number of emigrants from the dry portions of Colorado and Wyoming passed through this city yesterday. In one of the outfits was noticed a collection that would do the heart of "Joe" Zeibert good. It consisted of a case containing a number of wild geese and pet rabbits. -Rev. L. P. McDonald would be glad to sell some articles of furniture at the Episcopal rectory. An Art Garland hard coal stove, as good as new, a small heater, a fine folding bed, hat-rack and dining room table may be had very cheap by applying at the rectory. -The North Platte Broom Factory has completed and sent specimens of its work to the State fair at Omaha to be placed in the Lincoln county exhibit. They are very handsome specimens of the broom-maker's handiwork. Fred Gina resumed his old vocation long enough to assist Charley Minshall in their manufacture. -Arthur C. Blase and a young man named Hughes, arrived in the city Wednesday evening on their way east on bicycles. The former claims a Colorado championship. The last named was rather badly used up by his trip to this city, and they spent Thursday here recuperating. Blake gave a very fine display of trick and fancy riding yesterday. -B. I. Hinman is having a portion of the county road northwest of this city broken up. It is said the land adjoining has been sold under contract for agricultural purposes next season, hence the action. This has aroused considerable indignation upon the part of our citizens, and litigation may follow. As a counter irritant some are urging the forcing of Mr. Hinman's property into the city limits. -Ladies' kid gloves, best quality, 95 cents a pair at The Wilcox Dept. Store. -While Prof. James Hall, not the pugilist but North Platte's lightning manipulator of the razor, was absent, he managed to secure surreptitiously or otherwise, a supply of the latest style patterns and modes of amputating the hirsute covering of the head without pain or the use of gas. That other anesthetic, the barber's melody, is but little used, and his methods will not fail to please even the most fastidious. Give him a call at Doc Sizemore's place when you wish the most fashionable hair cut or an easy shave. -While the capturing of the first prize at the State fair for the best collection of agricultural products would be a great thing for the people of Lincoln county, considered as a state matter, yet THE TRIBUNE'S proposed potato train, and other agricultural products, would be a greater advertisement, and have a much wider effect. Besides it would not cost anything like as much to prepare the display as it would if it were intended for competition. The matter should not be allowed to lag, but should be taken hold of with vigor by the Lincoln County Immigration Ass'n and pushed vigorously forward to a successful completion. -A number of ministers of the Presbyterian denomination from the district west of Central City and north of the B. & M. railway, assembled in regular presbytery session in this city Tuesday of this week and held a two days' meeting. Regular routine business of importance to the church was transacted. The attendance for various causes was not nearly so large as it should have been, but eighteen ministers out of about fifty being present. The representatives were very hospitably entertained by our people, and are loud in the praises of the treatment afforded them. -Wednesday forenoon the delegates present who desired were given an opportunity to view the irrigated district west of this city, an account of which appears elsewhere in this paper. On Wednesday evening the session session closed its labors, feeling that it had been a profitable one despite the limited attendance.

NEWS OF THE TIME. Last winter our people were very enthusiastic in regard to the erection of a beet sugar factory, but the matter was deferred until our comprehensive system of irrigation was more nearly completed. At present this objection to the enterprise is very nearly obviated, and there is no reason why the agitation of the subject may not be resumed. Like the Chinese these institutions have come to stay, and become an important factor in the upbuilding and development of our country's wealth. The industry has passed the experimental stage, and is destined to become a great success. Lincoln county possesses in exceptional degree all the elements necessary to the successful cultivation and propagation of the sugar beet. Under this system of agriculture many more thousands of acres of her soil could be profitably tilled. Neither hard times nor drought seem to be able to cut much figure in opposition to the growth of a healthy sugar beet. In a number of cities and towns in Nebraska the matter of the erection of sugar factories is being carefully canvassed, and North Platte cannot afford to lag behind the procession. Within the next decade the sugar beet industry is bound to rival in value the present output of any two of her greatest agricultural crops at this time. It behooves this city, then, to be up and doing. If it is not possible at the present to procure the erection of a manufactory which will be able to turn out the finished product upon the market, let us secure reduction works where the first stages may be accomplished, as a sort of nucleus around which a larger plant and refinery may be constructed. The present is the proper time for the initial steps to be taken in the matter in order that farmers may have ample time to properly prepare the ground for next year's crop. It is the opinion of expert beet-growers at Grand Island and Norfolk that had they the use of our system of irrigation that they could show results in this direction which would astonish the world. If, as admitted, that by means of irrigation we can discontinue them in other kinds of crops, why not in the matter of the culture of the sugar beet? It is a great project for the advancement of Lincoln county and North Platte, and it should be at once taken hold of by our people and pushed forward to a successful consummation. -The Grand Island band at the State fair next week will be reinforced by Prof. Benesch and three of the best players of Kearney's Midway band. -Tom Brown, the drayman, was severely kicked by one of his horses in the stable the other morning, but not so badly injured as to prevent his being about. -All members of the North Platte Gun Club are requested to meet at Mr. Park's office at 7:30 this evening (Friday) to transact important business. M. K. BARNUM, Pres't. -As an indication of the number of people that will attend the State fair from this place it is said that over 100 passes were received here in one day for railway employees who are making calculations upon attending. -Who would think that Dennis Redmond would ever evolve into a newspaper man? Yet such is the fact. Since last June he has been getting out boom (?) editions for various Texas papers, and reports that a great country for the working of that sort of snaps. -The meeting of the gun club to-night is one of special interest to its members, as the matter of ordering a new supply of birds, adoption of a constitution, and the purchase of a club medal or trophy to be competed for monthly will be considered. A full attendance of the membership is desired. -I. A. Fort returned Thursday morning from a visit to the State fair grounds in Omaha. He stated that the Pierce county people were the first upon the grounds with their exhibit, and were claiming that they would capture the first prize; but in his opinion they would weaken their claim when they saw the Lincoln county display.

We Received a new line of Clocks this week. Do you need one? If so, come and see us. CLINTON, The Jeweler.

View the Garden of Eden. The Presbyterian church extended an invitation to its members of the Kearney Presbytery while here to visit the lands under irrigation and see the results of the artificial application of water as shown by the farms in this vicinity. The interest manifested by the delegates was sufficient to cause them to adjourn the forenoon session Wednesday in order to accept. At 8 o'clock a. m. fifteen delegates took seats in carriages furnished by Messrs. Dillon, Hinman, Hiller, Swarthout and Palmer, and were driven over the following route: Through a part of the residence portion of North Platte, past the Cody residence to the Cody ranch, with a stop at ranch buildings, thence over a part of the Cody lands now in corn, alfalfa, broom corn and hay. From the Cody ranch they were driven over the lands of Isaac Dillon. The trees, alfalfa, potatoes and corn were favorably commented upon, as was also the Cody & Dillon canal. Mr. Hilliker suggested that there was a watermelon patch in the vicinity but some said that perhaps the preachers could find them. Without further delay several watermelons were collected and eaten. One of the delegates said he understood that fruit could not be raised in this vicinity. When told that it could be, he said he would like to see it. They were then driven to the farm of H. Otten. Mr. Otten being at home, took them through his orchard, showing them thrifty apple, plum and pear trees and grapes of which they were invited to eat. All were highly pleased with the showing, as well as the courtesy shown them by Mr. Otten. The gentleman who had expressed the desire to see the fruit said that he was well repaid for his trip if he saw nothing else. After leaving the Otten farm the delegates were driven north and west past a number of ditch farms. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with the appearance of things in general, and regretted the lack of time to make a more thorough examination of the results of farming by irrigation.

Remarkably Low Rate. Commencing next Monday night the Union Pacific R'y will put on sale for train No. 8 round trip tickets to Omaha for the sum of $5 plus fifty cents for admission to the fair grounds. The tickets are good until and including Sept. 21st. This is a remarkably low rate and our people who have business in Omaha should avail themselves of this opportunity. N. B. OLDS, Agent. -James S. Robbins, of Wallace, who will be a candidate for clerk of the district before the republican convention, was in town Tuesday. -Gus Huffman has had his two lots on west Sixth street fenced, and the sod broken, preparatory to putting out trees and otherwise improving them next spring. -For dishes and glassware go to The Wilcox Dept. Store. -Republican caucuses for the purpose of nominating delegates to the county convention were held in each of the three wards last evening. In the First ward the ticket selected was as follows: C. P. Ross, G. W. Finn, G. A. Hosse, N. F. Donaldson, W. J. Hendy, John Sorenson. Second ward: W. T. Wilcox, B. L. Robinson, H. W. Hill, C. Weingand, Hans Gertler, M. E. Cryderman, C. L. Williams, M. H. Douglas, J. S. Hoagland, Chas. Brown and I. L. Bare. In the Third ward thirteen names were nominated and from which the voters will select six delegates at the primary to be held to-morrow.

RAILWAY RESUME. John M. Sullivan had the bad luck to mangle one of his fingers Wednesday while operating a lathe, in consequence of which he is losing some time. Wm. Jeffers, who has been filling the position of telegraph operator at Ogallala, according to the News, has been transferred to the superintendent's office in this city. Yesterday was the banner day this season for icing refrigerator cars at this station. Forty-two cars were iced in the twenty-four hours with 47,049 pounds of the congealed moisture. Six regular "Buckingham" freight trains for the west out of this city yesterday would seem to indicate that the road is doing a good business in that line. Passenger traffic is equally good.
