

Served Exclusively to the Over Twenty-One Million People... JOHN HERROD Sells the above Coffee together with a complete line of STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES. Prices Always Reasonable. HIGHEST MARKET PRICE Paid For Country Produce.

MINOR MENTION. —John Conway, of Sutherland, transacted business in this city yesterday. —A small amount of the 1895 crop of corn is being marketed. It is of a very fair quality.

—Teeth extracted absolutely painless to the patient at Dr. Morrill's by the Mueller (Berlin) method. This method is harmless. —W. H. Johnston leaves this week for Clarinda, Iowa, where he has secured employment as plasterer on a building being erected by the state.

—Judging from the Washington Post's account our own and only "Buffalo Bill" was given a tremendous reception at the nation's capital last week. —The Sidney Telegraph prints cuts of its candidates for county offices. Four years ago the Era in this city did the same thing and it defeated every one of them.

—The Council Bluffs Nonpareil yesterday devoted a considerable space to the initial sermon of the new rector in that city, Rev. L. P. McDonald, and was very favorably impressed with his first utterances. —For Sale—A new 12-passenger wagonette or carryall, suitable for depot use, for hotel, or for pleasure parties. Price $250.

—The "Globe Trotters" will be at Lloyd's opera house on the evening of the 22d inst. The company is under the management of Wm. Hoey, of "Hoss and Hoss" notoriety, which is a guarantee of its excellence. —At the M. E. conference held at Kearney last week W. J. Crusen of this city was elected lay delegate to the general convention of the Methodist church to be held at Cleveland next May.

—The second regular contest of the gun club for the gold badge will take place next Saturday, Oct. 12th, at the grounds of the club. Hereafter the badge shoot will be held twice a month on the second and fourth Saturdays. —Smoke Wright's Royal Sports and Havana Rose—5-cent cigars.

—A number of school girls of this city indulged in circulation of some very naughty doggerel, with the result that they were suspended from school. The board at its regular meeting Monday evening, sustained the action of the teacher. —The falsifier is already abroad in the land circulating a report that Miss Hosford is not a church member. Her father was a minister, a sister now in India is a missionary while she is not only a member and an officer in one of our churches, but a devoted christian and an active church-worker.

—A petition was yesterday circulated among the electors placing before the people of this district the name of J. S. Hoagland as a candidate for state senator, vice W. R. Akers, resigned. Mr. Hoagland will be elected, but unless "Uncle Si" concludes to call a special session he will not have a chance to use his title the present term. —The Kearney Democrat laboring under the impression that there would be no democratic ticket in the field in Buffalo county, made a number of tie-ups with "pop" candidates. Yet last Saturday the democrats under the leadership of W. D. Oldham held a convention and nominated a full ticket, certificates of whose nomination have been filed. This puts the aforesaid paper in an embarrassing position.

—The ladies of the M. E. church are making preparations to have the interior of that church edifice repainted, repapered and otherwise renovated. —J. A. Goodman went to Ogalalla yesterday for the purpose of purchasing 200 or 300 stock hogs, providing he could secure them at a proper figure. —A number of eastern towns along the line of the Union Pacific are enjoying a cut rate by the dealers in anthracite coal. Do not forget the Corn Festival under the auspices of the S. A. Douglas Circle No 20, Ladies of the G. A. R. at Lloyd's Oct. 11th. —Charles Simpson goes to Omaha next week for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment for an ailment which has troubled him for a number of years. —Our city grocers received a carload of apples Saturday which they retailed for fifty cents per bushel. They were of fair quality and it is needless to say went off rapidly. —Alex. Fenwick is thinking of taking his crippled son for treatment to the faith healer in Denver who is creating such furore there. He appears to have caused some phenomenal cures. —J. H. Seaton of Wallace, has been elected chairman of the "pop" county central committee. We mention this fact as the Era appears to be dissatisfied with this selection as no reference is made of the same in its columns. —The Daughters of the King held their bi-weekly social at the guild house last evening. These gatherings are of a literary nature and prove both interesting and instructive to the members. —Grapes from the Lake Erie region in Pennsylvania and New York have been selling in this market for the past week at thirty and thirty-five cents per nine pound basket. They reach here in prime condition. —Rev. Snively, of North Bend, is the new preacher sent here to fill the Methodist pulpit for the coming year. He comes here recommended as a most worthy and excellent gentleman, well qualified for the position. —A letter received in this city from H. R. Ottman states that Geo. R. Hammon has purchased property at Grand Junction, Col., and that the latter will return to this city and ship his household goods to that place, where he will make his future home. —The democrats held a slimy attended convention Saturday but three or four precincts outside of North Platte being represented. The following ticket was placed in nomination: For treasurer, Alex. Fisher, of Wallace; clerk, H. L. Walsh; sheriff, Luke Haley; county superintendent, Mary E. Hosford; county judge, B. I. Hinman; coroner N. McCabe; clerk of the district court, Frank A. Johnson; county commissioner Peter F. Dolan, of Maxwell. No nomination was made for county surveyor. —One of North Platte's most progressive citizens is of the opinion that by our people now taking hold vigorously it will be possible for this city to secure the erection of a beet sugar factory. He has been in correspondence with eastern capitalists interested in the subject, and is of the idea that by taking hold of the matter and pushing it, the accomplishment will not be difficult. This industry is obtaining such a foothold in the country that every one should be aware of its importance, and it is self-evident that the first factories started can be made, with proper management, to grow the strongest. There is no place on earth where the sugar beet can be grown so advantageously as in the irrigated district of the great Platte valley.

—The Presbyterian people at a congregational meeting last Wednesday evening voted unanimously not to accept the resignation of their pastor Rev. J. C. Irwin, but to extend his vacation six months longer, in the hope that his health may be so restored as to enable him to continue the work. The church is arranging to have a supply for the next six months, who will remain on the field and give his whole time to the church work. Doubtless the church will continue in its prosperous condition.

—Mrs. C. F. Iddings entertained a party of ladies at cards this afternoon, the affair being in favor of Mrs. Kate Long, who is a guest at the Iddings' residence. —Rev. A. J. Clifton, who formerly preached here, has been appointed by the bishop as agent of the Preachers' Aid society, with headquarters at Culbertson. The Curtis Enterprise publishes his picture. —The Nebraska House is serving excellent meals to its patrons, and the patronage of the house is daily increasing. Lunches and short orders are served at all hours. Home-made bread and pies for sale. —No dental work allowed to leave Dr. Morrill's unless entirely satisfactory. —W. F. Stafford, the Julesburg pump irrigationist, advertises in the Chappell Register to sell "cabbage at 1/2 cent a pound and other vegetables correspondingly cheap." Tally another one for the windmill pump and reservoir system of irrigation. What do you "sandhillers" think of the above. —"Nebraska Land in 1895" with Comic tableaux, at Lloyd's Oct. 11th. —John Schopp, of Vroman, transacted business in town Saturday and paid this office a substantial visit. He reported the death, the day before, of John Sullivan, one of the oldest settlers in that section of the county, and a man well known by many of the old timers of this city. —A pleasant little dancing party was given at the home of Gus F. Meyer's and wife Friday night which was attended by a number of North Platte young people. All report enjoying themselves heartily by reason of the most courtesies shown them by the host and hostess. —Bob Oberfelder, of Sidney, has just received a letter from an old friend who was formerly a member of the 21st U. S. infantry. At present he is captain of an independent company of Cuban insurgents at a salary of $100 per month in gold, which he says he regularly receives. A number of other ex-soldiers of the U. S. regular army are with him. His name is Edwin C. Watson and he sends a very flattering report of the prospects of the insurgents. —Dr. Muller's (Berlin) painless extraction of teeth at Dr. F. J. Morrill's dental parlors. —G. W. Allen, who for three years or more has been superintendent of the Fort McPherson national cemetery, has been transferred to Nancy, Pulaski county, Kentucky, where he will assume charge of a larger cemetery. He is succeeded at McPherson by Ludwig Baeger, who was formerly stationed at Chattanooga. Captain Allen and family leave for Kentucky next Friday, and accompanying them will be the best wishes of hosts of friends.

—The Presbyterians at a congregational meeting last Wednesday evening voted unanimously not to accept the resignation of their pastor Rev. J. C. Irwin, but to extend his vacation six months longer, in the hope that his health may be so restored as to enable him to continue the work. The church is arranging to have a supply for the next six months, who will remain on the field and give his whole time to the church work. Doubtless the church will continue in its prosperous condition.

—A new floor has been laid in Harrington & Tobin's store which adds much to the comfort of their patrons. —M. C. Keith yesterday shipped a valuable standard bred mare to Gibson, the big stock breeder at Clarks, Neb. —The corn festival at the opera house next Friday evening should be well patronized. It will be from start to finish an evening of pleasure.

—Yesterday Judge Ray married Melvin J. Barroughs to Mrs. Della A. Hutchens, both of Douglas county, Col. —You can have your artificial teeth reset at Dr. Morrill's for $6. —W. F. Marsh, formerly of this city, is candidate for county surveyor upon the republican ticket for Deuel county. He is a first rate man. —The S. A. Douglas Woman's Relief Corps has postponed its proposed entertainment until further notice. MARY T. PATTERSON, Secretary.

—Mrs. C. F. Iddings entertained a party of ladies at cards this afternoon, the affair being in favor of Mrs. Kate Long, who is a guest at the Iddings' residence. —Rev. A. J. Clifton, who formerly preached here, has been appointed by the bishop as agent of the Preachers' Aid society, with headquarters at Culbertson. The Curtis Enterprise publishes his picture. —The Nebraska House is serving excellent meals to its patrons, and the patronage of the house is daily increasing. Lunches and short orders are served at all hours. Home-made bread and pies for sale. —No dental work allowed to leave Dr. Morrill's unless entirely satisfactory. —W. F. Stafford, the Julesburg pump irrigationist, advertises in the Chappell Register to sell "cabbage at 1/2 cent a pound and other vegetables correspondingly cheap." Tally another one for the windmill pump and reservoir system of irrigation. What do you "sandhillers" think of the above. —"Nebraska Land in 1895" with Comic tableaux, at Lloyd's Oct. 11th. —John Schopp, of Vroman, transacted business in town Saturday and paid this office a substantial visit. He reported the death, the day before, of John Sullivan, one of the oldest settlers in that section of the county, and a man well known by many of the old timers of this city. —A pleasant little dancing party was given at the home of Gus F. Meyer's and wife Friday night which was attended by a number of North Platte young people. All report enjoying themselves heartily by reason of the most courtesies shown them by the host and hostess. —Bob Oberfelder, of Sidney, has just received a letter from an old friend who was formerly a member of the 21st U. S. infantry. At present he is captain of an independent company of Cuban insurgents at a salary of $100 per month in gold, which he says he regularly receives. A number of other ex-soldiers of the U. S. regular army are with him. His name is Edwin C. Watson and he sends a very flattering report of the prospects of the insurgents. —Dr. Muller's (Berlin) painless extraction of teeth at Dr. F. J. Morrill's dental parlors. —G. W. Allen, who for three years or more has been superintendent of the Fort McPherson national cemetery, has been transferred to Nancy, Pulaski county, Kentucky, where he will assume charge of a larger cemetery. He is succeeded at McPherson by Ludwig Baeger, who was formerly stationed at Chattanooga. Captain Allen and family leave for Kentucky next Friday, and accompanying them will be the best wishes of hosts of friends.

—The ladies of the M. E. church are making preparations to have the interior of that church edifice repainted, repapered and otherwise renovated. —J. A. Goodman went to Ogalalla yesterday for the purpose of purchasing 200 or 300 stock hogs, providing he could secure them at a proper figure. —A number of eastern towns along the line of the Union Pacific are enjoying a cut rate by the dealers in anthracite coal. Do not forget the Corn Festival under the auspices of the S. A. Douglas Circle No 20, Ladies of the G. A. R. at Lloyd's Oct. 11th. —Charles Simpson goes to Omaha next week for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment for an ailment which has troubled him for a number of years. —Our city grocers received a carload of apples Saturday which they retailed for fifty cents per bushel. They were of fair quality and it is needless to say went off rapidly. —Alex. Fenwick is thinking of taking his crippled son for treatment to the faith healer in Denver who is creating such furore there. He appears to have caused some phenomenal cures. —J. H. Seaton of Wallace, has been elected chairman of the "pop" county central committee. We mention this fact as the Era appears to be dissatisfied with this selection as no reference is made of the same in its columns. —The Daughters of the King held their bi-weekly social at the guild house last evening. These gatherings are of a literary nature and prove both interesting and instructive to the members. —Grapes from the Lake Erie region in Pennsylvania and New York have been selling in this market for the past week at thirty and thirty-five cents per nine pound basket. They reach here in prime condition. —Rev. Snively, of North Bend, is the new preacher sent here to fill the Methodist pulpit for the coming year. He comes here recommended as a most worthy and excellent gentleman, well qualified for the position. —A letter received in this city from H. R. Ottman states that Geo. R. Hammon has purchased property at Grand Junction, Col., and that the latter will return to this city and ship his household goods to that place, where he will make his future home. —The democrats held a slimy attended convention Saturday but three or four precincts outside of North Platte being represented. The following ticket was placed in nomination: For treasurer, Alex. Fisher, of Wallace; clerk, H. L. Walsh; sheriff, Luke Haley; county superintendent, Mary E. Hosford; county judge, B. I. Hinman; coroner N. McCabe; clerk of the district court, Frank A. Johnson; county commissioner Peter F. Dolan, of Maxwell. No nomination was made for county surveyor. —One of North Platte's most progressive citizens is of the opinion that by our people now taking hold vigorously it will be possible for this city to secure the erection of a beet sugar factory. He has been in correspondence with eastern capitalists interested in the subject, and is of the idea that by taking hold of the matter and pushing it, the accomplishment will not be difficult. This industry is obtaining such a foothold in the country that every one should be aware of its importance, and it is self-evident that the first factories started can be made, with proper management, to grow the strongest. There is no place on earth where the sugar beet can be grown so advantageously as in the irrigated district of the great Platte valley.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The ladies of the M. E. church are making preparations to have the interior of that church edifice repainted, repapered and otherwise renovated. —J. A. Goodman went to Ogalalla yesterday for the purpose of purchasing 200 or 300 stock hogs, providing he could secure them at a proper figure. —A number of eastern towns along the line of the Union Pacific are enjoying a cut rate by the dealers in anthracite coal. Do not forget the Corn Festival under the auspices of the S. A. Douglas Circle No 20, Ladies of the G. A. R. at Lloyd's Oct. 11th. —Charles Simpson goes to Omaha next week for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment for an ailment which has troubled him for a number of years. —Our city grocers received a carload of apples Saturday which they retailed for fifty cents per bushel. They were of fair quality and it is needless to say went off rapidly. —Alex. Fenwick is thinking of taking his crippled son for treatment to the faith healer in Denver who is creating such furore there. He appears to have caused some phenomenal cures. —J. H. Seaton of Wallace, has been elected chairman of the "pop" county central committee. We mention this fact as the Era appears to be dissatisfied with this selection as no reference is made of the same in its columns. —The Daughters of the King held their bi-weekly social at the guild house last evening. These gatherings are of a literary nature and prove both interesting and instructive to the members. —Grapes from the Lake Erie region in Pennsylvania and New York have been selling in this market for the past week at thirty and thirty-five cents per nine pound basket. They reach here in prime condition. —Rev. Snively, of North Bend, is the new preacher sent here to fill the Methodist pulpit for the coming year. He comes here recommended as a most worthy and excellent gentleman, well qualified for the position. —A letter received in this city from H. R. Ottman states that Geo. R. Hammon has purchased property at Grand Junction, Col., and that the latter will return to this city and ship his household goods to that place, where he will make his future home. —The democrats held a slimy attended convention Saturday but three or four precincts outside of North Platte being represented. The following ticket was placed in nomination: For treasurer, Alex. Fisher, of Wallace; clerk, H. L. Walsh; sheriff, Luke Haley; county superintendent, Mary E. Hosford; county judge, B. I. Hinman; coroner N. McCabe; clerk of the district court, Frank A. Johnson; county commissioner Peter F. Dolan, of Maxwell. No nomination was made for county surveyor. —One of North Platte's most progressive citizens is of the opinion that by our people now taking hold vigorously it will be possible for this city to secure the erection of a beet sugar factory. He has been in correspondence with eastern capitalists interested in the subject, and is of the idea that by taking hold of the matter and pushing it, the accomplishment will not be difficult. This industry is obtaining such a foothold in the country that every one should be aware of its importance, and it is self-evident that the first factories started can be made, with proper management, to grow the strongest. There is no place on earth where the sugar beet can be grown so advantageously as in the irrigated district of the great Platte valley.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection of Locust and Sixth streets. The old one was in a rather unsafe condition, and it was a wise precaution to make the change in time. —Newell Burritt did a little campaign work in Cottonwood and Maxwell precincts the first of the week, his political fences in those precincts being out of line.

—The Sunday Wedding. At the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Mande Holman, on Sunday afternoon, October 6th, 1895, by Rev. J. C. Irwin, George E. Garman was married to Miss Lutie S. Welch, both of this city. This little event has been anticipated for some time by our people as the symptoms all pointed in this direction. The bride has grown from girlhood to mature years in North Platte and has a large circle of friends who in connection with THE TRIBUNE will wish her much happiness for the future. The groom has been a resident of this city for two or three years past, and is known as a most exemplary, steady and industrious young man. At present he is employed in Baskin's meat market. —Ray Langford returned from his eastern trip Sunday night, having had a very pleasant visit. He tarried in Boston for a month, where he was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ayres, formerly of this city. He reports the Doctor doing an excellent business. En route home Ray stopped four days in New York, where he was a guest of a brother of Wood White, of this city, who is a prominent Gotham business man, and major of the noted Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G. From New York Ray went to Philadelphia, Washington and Canada and thence home. —Work upon the South Side irrigation canal is progressing very satisfactorily. Yesterday morning the contractor began the work of putting in the auxiliary head-gate in the South Platte river, and this morning R. D. Thomson and a force of men went to work putting in its proper place the 200 feet of flume swung out of position last spring. The company expects to have all its work in and about the river completed by the first of November, after which the remainder of the work will be rapidly prosecuted. —Two changes have been made in the voting place of the electors in Cottonwood, Mylander and Sunshine precincts, which may be seen by consulting the county commissioners' proceedings upon our first page. Interested voters should be governed accordingly. —A new tile culvert has been put in by the city at the intersection