MRS. DR. MOSS—The Celebrated Clairvoyant Now Located at No. 513 Wabasha, Opposite Capitol—Since the beginning of history man has been persistent in his efforts to find out the things that would do him good. The scientific mind has been at work investigating the hidden mysteries of nature, trying to solve the many questions that would benefit him and his kind. The lady whose name begins this article is one of nature's pure, noble women, and her power simply borders on the miraculous. She is so endowed that she can be of inestimable help to her fellow man, and in all things stands ready to lend a helping hand. She can reveal the secrets of the past, and accurately foretell the coming events of the future. She tells where hidden treasure may be found. She advises in matrimony, divorce, love, business and troubles of all kinds. The very best business people of the city consult her daily, and she has been the means of saving many a man from financial ruin. These things taken into consideration, she is preeminently one of the world's great wonders, and the many thousands of our readers who are in need of pure help and advice should not hesitate to consult her at once, and they will bless the day they read this article.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.

DIAMONDS, WATCHES AND MISCELlaneous Goods—We are able to offer a discount of 30 to 50 per cent on the following described forfeited pledges; you find our descriptions for value and condition of goods always accurate and correct; the following is only a partial list of our immense stock of forfeited pledges. At Lytle's Loan Office and Diamond Parlors, 411 Robert st., Room 1, opposite the Ryan hotel.

IF YOU LOOK in Lytle's jewelry case you will see something that one person in a million has never seen. You will see three diamonds lying on a little cloth, one in the rough as found in the mines, one in half-state of cleavage, which means partly made, the other in a more advanced state of perfection, but still requires labor of several days to complete to a perfect diamond. The syndicate of London representing $175,000,000, the Rothschilds belong to the syndicate, they handle the output of all the mines in the world; they are sold by the syndicate in the rough for $25 to $60 a karat; the waste in construction is about 60 per cent; to produce a perfect diamond from the rough costs from $10 to $50 according to size and quality; the duty on diamonds in the rough is 25 per cent, cut diamonds 10 per cent; part of the diamonds sold
