WANTED—LADIES—$100 in gold given away. Cut this out and save it. It will not appear again. Who can form the greatest number of words from the letters in READERS? You are smart enough to make fifteen or more more words, we feel sure, and if you do you will receive a good reward. Do not use any letter more times than it appears in the word. No proper nouns. No foreign words. Use any dictionary that is standard. Use plurals. Here is an example of the way to work it out: Readers, read, red, sad, ear, ears, dear, etc. These words count. The publisher of Woman's World and Jenness Miller Monthly will pay $20.00 in gold to the person able to make the largest list of words from the letters in the word Readers; $10.00 for the second largest; $10.00 for the third; $10.00 for the fourth, and $10.00 for the fifth, and $5.00 each for the eight next largest lists. The above rewards are given free and without consideration for the purpose of attracting attention to our handsome ladies' magazine, twenty-four pages, ninety-six long columns, finely illustrated, and all original matter, long and short stories by the best authors; price, $1 per year. It is necessary for you, to enter the contest, to send 12 two-cent stamps for a three-months' trial subscription with your list of words, and every person sending the 24 cents and a list of fifteen words or more is guaranteed an extra present by return mail (in addition to the magazine), of a large 192-page book, "The Other Man's Wife," by John Strange Winter, a remarkably fascinating story. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case or your money refunded. Lists should be sent at once, and not later than Oct. 20, so that the names of successful contestants may be in the November issue, published in October. Our publication has been established nine years. We refer you to any mercantile agency for our standing. Write now. Address James H. Plummer, Publisher, 905 Temple Court Building, New York City.
