CLOTHING STRIKE IS ENDED BY MOVE TO SAVE INDUSTRY

Both Sides Get Together Because of Drift of Trade to Other Cities.

At a meeting of the Clothing Manufacturers of New York City to-day at No. 42 East 11th Street, called by Mark L. Abrahams, the new President, reports were received which show that the great strike in the clothing trades is virtually over. Several manufacturers announced that they had either reached an agreement with the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America or were negotiating with the object of reaching an agreement.

Philip Friedman of the firm of J. Friedman & Company, of No. 708 Broadway, unreservedly told an Evening World reporter that he is conducting negotiations which he hopes will enable him to reopen his factory next Monday. Another big firm which is about to close with the union is Schwartz & Jaffee, of No. 850 Broadway.

From admissions made by both sides it appears that the manufacturers and the union were in shape to continue the struggle indefinitely in so far as resources and spirit were concerned, but outside influences prompted getting together. For instance, the big woollen manufacturers, because of unsettled conditions in the trade here, insisted on spot cash for woollens shipped to New York. The trade of the country was drifting to other clothing manufacturing centres and the New York market was threatened with ruin.

Alderman A. L. Shiplacoff of the Joint Board of the Amalgamated said this afternoon:

"At the beginning of the trouble 60,000 workers were idle in this city. To-day there are only 10,000 idle and they will all be at work by June 15.

"We are not signing agreements with manufacturers because we are desirous of getting the industry back into its stride at the earliest possible moment. We are simply reaching mutual understandings with each manufacturer. The minor details can be worked out when work is resumed, and when all points are settled contracts will be signed.

"Under the terms of the understanding the old working conditions are to be restored. We have accepted wage cuts of from 8 to 15 per cent.

15 COUPLES WEDDED AT ONE CEREMONY

Brides Collected at Ellis Island, Grooms Located and Group Marriage Arranged.

A marrying bee was held by Deputy City Clerk John R. Dalton in the Municipal Building License Bureau at noon to-day, when he united fifteen perspiring males, several of whom wore celluloid collars, to fifteen palpitating females in one ceremony. The contracting parties were Turks, Greeks and Swiss. None of the brides spoke English. Each of the grooms lives in New York and was here before the war. They left sweethearts behind in Europe who came here last week.

The Travelers Aid Society rounded them up and took them to the home at No. 465 Lexington Avenue. The prospective grooms were notified and a group marriage was arranged. Guided by representatives of the society, the contracting parties marched to the Marriage License Bureau in a body.

POLICE RAID HOOCH JUST GIVEN BACK

Half Hour After It Was Restored by Legal Order It Is Seized Without Warrant.

A proceeding begun in the Supreme Court to-day to be argued before Justice Whitaker on Thursday reveals that on May 14, half an hour after Federal Prohibition officers had returned a quantity of liquor to Michael Lorenzo at his home, No. 144 Chambers Street, in accordance with an order signed by United States Commissioner Hitchcock, a police lieutenant and four patrolmen invaded Lorenzo's home without a warrant, seized the liquor and arrested the owner.

Lorenzo was discharged the next day by Magistrate Sweetser, when it was shown that he was legally entitled to custody of the liquor but the police have refused to return it.

Lorenzo, through counsel, James C. McEachen, seeks an order directing the Police Commissioner to return his property and also a ruling on the right of the police to seize liquor without a search warrant.

BUCKS A MOOSE; HIS AUTO DITCHED

Animal Butts Car off The Road, Then Disappears Into the Woods.

EASTON, Maine, May 31.—An encounter with a moose which ditched their automobile was related to-day by Walter Chase and his wife of this town. They were driving at dusk when the moose sprang from the woods with his head down and struck their car with such force as to swing it into a roadside ditch. The occupants were unhurt. The moose stood still, apparently dazed by the headlights. When Chase started up again his fender bumped the animal, which immediately disappeared in the woods.

$10,000 GEM THEFT AT AMBASSADOR BAFFLES POLICE

Jewels Stolen From Mrs. Duncan McMartin's Apartment While She Was Away.

Police, as well as the management of the Hotel Ambassador, are mystified by the first robbery that has occurred in the house since it opened, April 21 last. This initial robbery is the theft of jewels valued at $10,000 from the three-room suite of Mrs. Duncan McMartin, a wealthy widow. Her husband made a fortune in the cobalt region in Canada.

Mrs. McMartin discovered her loss yesterday upon her return to this city from New Haven, where she had gone for the Yale Commencement. She found her clothes strewn about the room and the drawers of the chiffonier and dresser disordered. Her jewel box was empty. From all the circumstances she feels confident it was an inside job.

The hotel management believes that while a maid was cleaning the suite on Saturday or Sunday, a thief entered and made off with the missing property. Police of the East 51st Street Station at work on the case have no clue, they admit.

The jewels stolen, according to the hotel list, are a diamond lavalliere, a diamond and platinum wristlet, a diamond ring and gold and diamond cuff links.

At No. 420 Riverside Drive, an apartment house which she owns, Mrs. McMartin denied the list as given out was that of the jewels stolen, but refused to give out a correct list.

Justice Minturn's Wife Dead.

Mrs. Minnie T. Minturn, wife of Supreme Court Justice James F. Minturn, died yesterday at her home, No. 620 Hudson Street, Hoboken, after a long illness. The funeral will be held Thursday.
