GIVES $10,000 FOR BEST YEARLY HELP TO PHILADELPHIA

Edward Bok Establishes Prize for Men and Women Rendering Best Service to City.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Announcement was made to-day that Edward W. Bok has founded what is to be known as "the Philadelphia Award," by which $10,000 is to be given each year "to that resident, man or woman, of the metropolitan district of Philadelphia, its suburbs or vicinity, who during the preceding year shall have done an act or rendered a service best calculated to advance the largest interests of Philadelphia."

The award is to take the spirit of the Nobel prize and the proposed Woodrow Wilson prize and apply it to the city, the announcement stated. Mr. Bok has deposited with a local trust company securities to the amount of $200,000, yielding an annual income of more than $10,000.

The purpose of the award is to be interpreted in the broadest respect, it is stated, so long as the service for which it is made benefits in the largest sense the city or its citizens. It is especially desired, the announcement said, that the award may serve as an inspiration to young men and women by recognizing in its widest sense the idea of service to others.

Should no signal service be noted during any year no award is to be made, but the $10,000 shall be devoted to or toward free scholarships for boys and girls resident in the Philadelphia metropolitan district, such scholarships to be divided among the following ten institutions:

University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Finance of the university, Philadelphia School of Industrial Art, Jefferson Medical College, Bryn Mawr College, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine eArts, Settlement Music School, Drexel Institute, National Farm School at Doylestown and the School of Horticulture at Ambler.

Mr. Bok was formerly editor of the Ladies' Home Journal.

SUICIDE AT HOSPITAL.

Samuel Levy Jumps From Window at Mt. Sinai.

Samuel Levy, forty-six, of No. 332 East 95th Street, jumped from a rear third-story window of Mt. Sinai Hospital, Fifth Avenue and 100th Street, at 4 A. M. to-day and was killed. He had been in a public ward on that floor.

He was admitted two weeks ago to be treated for heart disease and had told some of the other patients he knew he could not recover.
