COULDN'T STOP WIFE'S ELOPING SO LET HER GO

Preacher Durea Prays for Her but Doesn't Expect She Will Return.

BEACON, N. Y., July 16.—"I haven't sanctioned or condoned the elopement of my wife with Earl Ver Nooy. I was helpless to prevent it, and so I just decided to let her go to the end of her rope."

So Clark Durea, pastor of the Holiness Gospel Mission at Monticello, N. Y., summarized his attitude toward his wife's elopement. He was found to-day at the camp meeting of the Church of the Nazarene on the outskirts of Beacon, where he has been since he closed his deserted house at Monticello.

"If I had a home to give her and she would come back to me, I would forgive her," he said. "Mine is the perfect love; I love her with all my heart, sinful as she is."

Durea is a slight figure of a man, thirty-eight years old, and wasted by his four years' struggle with lung trouble. Most of his energy, he explained, has been used up by sickness and worrying about his wife.

"But now it is ended," he said. "She won't come back, because I have nothing to give her. I will devote the rest of my life to the church, and we will pray for her.

"When I first knew that she was going around with Ver Nooy, I gave them both Christian advice. Later I just talked with her, trying to exhort the devil out of her and make her see the light. I particularly warned her of the laws of God and the consequences on the day of judgment.

"Then my aunt wrote me and told me she couldn't send us any more money. I told my wife, and she said, 'Well, I know what I'm going to do. I'm going to go!' Then one night after I had gone to bed I heard him downstairs. Pretty soon she came up and said, 'I'm going to-night.' So I just said, 'All right.' Then I rolled over and went to sleep.

"A few hours later she came up to say goodby, and she brought the boy and the girl with her. I said goodby to her and to Ross and to little Gladys—she's just nine—and then I heard them go away."

Durea said he plans to return to Monticello and resume the work at his little mission.

GIRL SWIMMER TRIES VAINLY TO SAVE ATHLETE.

Amateur Boxer Drowns When Young Woman Is Exhausted Holding Him.

Despite the efforts of a sixteen-year-old girl to hold him up until assistance came, George Henkel, twenty-six, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henkel of Minesola, was drowned in Long Island Sound off Centre Island beach yesterday.

Henkel went in for a swim with Edith Beamisch and John Halleran. They swam 150 feet out to a float and after reaching it started for another float 100 feet away. Miss Beamisch and Halleran reached the second float, but Henkel became exhausted and cried for help. Halleran went to his assistance and then called for the girl. She held Henkel while Halleran went ashore for aid. The girl held Henkel up five minutes and then her strength gave out and she was forced to let go her hold.

Henkel was an amateur boxer and had a sort of training camp on the beach. He ran six miles in the morning and later put on the gloves with Halleran. It is believed he weakened himself too much for the swim. The body was recovered.

PLAN $5,000,000 LOAN FROM U. S. TO LIBERIA

Mellon Says Advance Is to Keep Concessions From British and French.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—The American Government is preparing to loan Liberia $5,000,000 to prevent valuable concessions from falling into the hands of the British and French, according to Secretary Mellon in his testimony before the Senate Finance Committee.

The legislation necessary to obtain the consent of Congress for the advancement of this sum has already been formulated. A bill is in the hands of Senator Penrose, but he will not formally offer it until he has consulted the State Department through which negotiations for the loan have been conducted.

Mr. Mellon denied that an agreement had been reached to defer payment of interest on the British debt fifteen years.

MRS. EDDY CENTENARY.

Founder of Christian Science Born 100 Years Ago, To-Day.

This is the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science, which now claims 2,000,000 enrolled members. Curiously enough, it is among her most devout followers that an acute controversy has arisen concerning the propriety of marking the day with special observances.

The Christian Science Board of Directors opposes the plans of the Mary Eddy centenary committee, for a pilgrimage to Bar, N. H., her birthplace and the erection of a monument there.

NURSE SWALLOWS POISON.

A woman who said she was Mrs. Jean Robson, thirty, a trained nurse of No. 58 West 72d Street, was taken to Bellevue Hospital in a serious condition yesterday afternoon after she had swallowed bichloride of mercury in the office of Dr. Benjamin Rosenbluth at No. 124 Madison Avenue.

Dr. Rosenbluth had been attending her for a nervous illness. He found her on the floor of his reception room and summoned an ambulance from Flower Hospital. On the way to Bellevue Patrolman Dwyer questioned her and she told him she was despondent over the loss of money in a real estate deal. She first placed the amount of the loss at $10,000, and then at $5,000. She said her husband had died recently.

Stars Who Will Be Seen Next Week In the Broadway Film Productions

Mlle. Lenglen Sails For U. S. A. In Just a Week

Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the French tennis champion, will sail for America a week from to-day, according to cable messages received here by Julian S. Meyrick, President of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, from A. R. de Joannis, Vice President of the French Lawn Tennis Federation. The French official stated that all arrangements have been completed for the sailing of the French team also.

Myrick stated that the only tournaments in which Mlle. Lenglen will compete would be the women's national championship beginning Monday, Aug. 15, at Forest Hills, and the national mixed doubles championship, at Longwood, beginning Aug. 22.

"Mlle. Lenglen, of course, will play a limited number of exhibition matches between Aug. 1 and 15, and Sept. 1 and 15," continued Myrick. "She will enter no other tournaments than the national championships and probably will not play more than ten exhibition matches.

"As these will have to accommodate both the East and the Middle West it will be impossible for her to appear at all the clubs which have asked to have her play. All details are being arranged in co-operation with the American Committee on Devastated France. It is expected that her schedule will be announced in a few days."

The fact was revealed that already more than thirty clubs have applied to the National Association to secure the famous French girl for special competitions. It is realized that her tour must necessarily be limited and that her own wishes must be followed, after her arrival here, about the first of next month.

NEW YORK TRAPSHOOTERS WILL INVADE NEW HAVEN FOR EASTERN ZONE SHOOT

The second Eastern Zone handicap trapshooting tournament will be held in New Haven, Conn., under the auspices of the New Haven Gun Club on July 20, 21, 22 and 23.

This tournament is the biggest thing in a shooting way that will be held in the East this year. It will also be one of the best tournaments. The New Haven Gun Club is the oldest gun club in the United States, and they want the shooters to go away from New Haven saying it is the finest club, too.

The 18 yards Eastern Zone amateur and professional championships will be shot on the 20th, as well as the doubles championship of the East. There will be a special event of 50 targets this day. There will be a 200 target race on the 21st, the final hundred counting on the Eastern Zone singles, amateur, professional and woman championships. The first 100 targets on the 22d completes the championship race. This will be followed by the preliminary handicap. The Eastern Zone Handicap will take place on the 23d. Previous to the handicap there will be 100 targets from 16 yards.

The all-around championship will constitute the 18-yard championship, doubles championship, 16-yard championship, the preliminary and Eastern handicaps—550 targets.

There will be more than 100 trophies given by merchants and sportsmen of New Haven, the American Trapshooting Association and considerable cash besides.

During the shoot the zone five-man team race will be shot. There will be one team from every State in the zone, and the winning team will represent the zone in the team shoot at the Grand American Handicap in Chicago in August.

Here are the teams as selected:

New Jersey—C. R. Woodward, C. B. Platt, C. Z. Vaughn, F. J. Hineline, Fred Plum.

New York—A. C. Skutt, C. L. King, W. H. Patterson, Paul Von Boekeman, J. H. Wantling.

Massachusetts—Jay Clark, L. F. Curtis, E. A. Staples, F. H. Andres, J. L. Snow.

Pennsylvania—Walter Posey, H. W. Goeller, Edw. Hellyer, W. A. Lindsay, S. M. Crothers.

Vermont—D. M. Barclay, H. B. Moulton, F. W. Yeaton, C. H. Burr, A. L. Estey.

Connecticut—H. C. Barstow, F. O. Williams, H. E. Alling, W. A. Flinn, W. E. Beers.

New Hampshire—R. H. Stubie, E. Stilton, F. E. Beldon, E. E. Reed, H. T. Wendell.

Delaware—H. L. Morgan, I. D. Willis, Geo. Simon, W. Foord, J. Masten.

Rhode Island—C. H. Dillon, E. C. Griffith, D. Robert Donaghy, W. J. Stainton, N. F. Reimer.

100 Shot in Mingo Strike, Miners' Leader Tells Senators.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—One hundred casualties resulted during the past year from labor troubles in the Mingo, W. Va., coal fields, C. F. Keeney, President of the Miners' District Union, testified before a Senate investigating committee. Mr. Keeney agreed with representatives of the operators, who placed the casualties in the same period at twenty-seven, that the dead were "ghastly men on the other side."

Great Britain's Davis Cup Team To Sail To-Day

LONDON, July 16.—To-day the British Isles Davis Cup team sails for America on the Baltic. This team, consisting of Max Woosnam, F. Gordon Lowe, O. G. N. Turnbull and J. B. Gilbert, are, with the exception of the last named, internationals. Lowe and Woosnam both played in the recent ties with Spain and the former played on the British Isles team in 1912, when it captured the cup from Australia in such a sensational manner.

The omission of Randolph Lycett means that a new doubles partner must be found for Woosnam. It probably will be Turnbull, as that pair won the doubles event at the last Olympic Games at Antwerp a year ago.

"Had it been possible to include Kingscote and Lycett," Gordon Lowe said to-day, "I firmly believe that we should reach the challenge round. All the same, it is a good thing that the younger players are having their chance, as they can learn much from their American experiences, which will be a most valuable help for them in the future.

"From a sporting point of view it is much better that we should take our stand with the other nations rather than withdraw on the plea that we cannot have a fully representative team. Woosnam is sure to be a very popular captain, and I feel certain that under him we shall give a good account of ourselves. I fancy our chances against Australasia, as I have seen Anderson and Todd play. They are good players of the modern school, but they have not the wide experience of Norman Brookes and the other famous Australians. Hawkes may prove a severe obstacle, as he has a great reputation at home, and when he was a youth of twenty he beat Norman Brookes in Australia.

"Should we win at Pittsburgh we ought to beat Denmark, but if Japan reaches the final round that team very likely will give us a very hard match, especially as Kumagae is reputed to be a much better player than Shimidzu, and we all know how good Shimidzu is."

CHARGE PLOT TO REVIVE HANGED MEN IN CHICAGO.

Second Offer Made and Case Is Reported by Lawyer to Authorities.

CHICAGO, July 16.—An organized gang banded together to seize bodies cut from the gallows and resuscitate them by means of pulmotors has been revealed by Walter E. Boerger, attorney for Harry Ward, the "Lone Wolf bandit," who was hanged yesterday.

Boerger said that before the hanging he was approached by a stranger with an offer to attempt to resuscitate Ward. He proposed that the body be obtained immediately after the hanging and taken to an undertaker, where the effort to revive life would be made. Boerger refused the offer and told the authorities.

A similar attempt was made recently, according to jail officials, in the case of Sam Cardinella, a gang leader.

HIRSHFIELD IS SUBPOENAED.

Meyer Committee Wants Police Sergeant Civil Service Records.

Commissioner of Accounts Hirshfield was served with a subpoena yesterday by the Meyer committee ordering him to produce any municipal civil service records in his possession dealing with the examination of Sergeants in the Police Department in 1916 and 1917.

The subpoena drew forth from the Commissioner another attack on the Meyer committee, in which he charged "a large number of the committee's investigating force has for some time past been shadowing me and investigating concerning a city car and the policeman, who accompanies me as my guard and at the same time, to save the expense of a chauffeur, drives the car himself."

NEW BRIGHTON THEATRE—Cecil Lean and Cleo Mayfield in "Look Who's Here" will head the bill.

Picture Plays For Next Week

RIVOLI—Alice Brady will be seen in "Little Italy," written by Frederick and Fanny Hatton. The heroine lives in an Italian colony near New York, where the spirit of the vendetta exists. A Prizma scenic called "Feathers," a Christie comedy, and the Rivoli Pictorial will complete the film part of the programme. The overture will be Rossini's "La Gazza Ladra." Four dancers will appear in "Columbine's Dream."

RIALTO—Thomas Meighan in "The Conquest of Canaan," an adaptation of Booth Tarkington's novel, moves to this theatre from the Rivoli. The story deals with a youth of fighting spirit who conquers the prejudices of influential citizens of a small town. There will also be "The Soul of the Cypress," a comedy called "At the Ringside," and the Rialto Magazine. The music programme will open with Verdi's "La Ferza del Destino," played by the orchestra.

CRITERION—"The Golem," based on a Jewish tradition, goes into its fifth week. Additional features will be Tony Sarg's Almanac and a Buster Keaton comedy called "Hard Luck." There will also be concert numbers and a Benda mask dance by May Kitchin Cory.

STRAND—Norma Talmadge will appear in "The Sign on the Door," Channing Pollock's play. The story is concerned with a young stenographer who is taken to a questionable restaurant by her employer's son, and when she marries the father, and the son is murdered, she takes the guilt of the crime upon herself to protect her husband. A Sunf Pollard comedy and the Strand Topical Review will also be shown. Selections from "The Mikado" will be played as an overture.

DAN CUPID IS TOO CLEVER EVEN FOR COLLEGE FRATS.

And So Imprisonment of Syracuse Student Fails to Stop His Elopement.

SYRACUSE, July 16.—Perhaps the Einstein theory can explain why a college fraternity is no match for the chubby little god of the bow and arrow, but certainly the members of Sigma Beta at Syracuse University are willing to admit defeat at his hands in the case of the elopement of William Thompson McNutt and Miss Dorothy Constance Weaver.

Miss Weaver's parents wanted her to wait until her graduation before marrying. Both Joe and McNutt, a nephew of Homer Dodge of the Dodge Motor Company, are second year students in the College of Business Administration. The objections of Sigma Beta are not clear, but hearing the proposed elopement was to be staged during the week end they imprisoned McNutt in the attic of their house.

For several days he remained there quietly enough, but Friday night he left. Sigma Betas are still wondering how. To-day they received word that the marriage had been performed in Schenectady on Saturday, just as the two students had planned.
