BOY KILLED, THREE OTHERS HURT IN AUTO CRASHES.

Long Island Accident Fatal—Mrs. W. T. Jerome Injured.

Investigation is being made of the accident yesterday in which a Long Island Railroad train struck an automobile at South Lynbrook and killed Raymond O'Connell, seven, a son of Mrs. Morrell S. O'Connell of Lynbrook, and injured the mother and an elder son, Morrell jr., twelve.

Inquiry is also being made into the accident in which Mrs. William Travers Jerome, wife of the former District Attorney, and several others were injured near Poughkeepsie Saturday when the Jerome car was in collision with another machine driven by William S. McClure of Brooklyn. Mrs. Jerome's left leg was broken. The others were not seriously injured.

Mrs. O'Connell was driving the machine in which her son was killed in Lynbrook. The boy died as he reached the Rockville Centre Sanitarium.
