COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—Before Judge Edwards and Aldermen Benson and Purdy.

Sentence of Ezra White.—This prisoner was brought into Court on Saturday morning to receive sentence, while the District Attorney moved should then be passed upon him. He appeared quite composed and apparently indifferent to the proceeding of the Court in his case; and, when asked what he had to say why the judgement of the law should not be pronounced against him, replied, "Nothing."

Judge Edwards then addressed the prisoner at considerable length, and stated in substance that, after a fair and impartial trial, he had been convicted of the crime of manslaughter in the 3d degree in causing the death of Peter Fitzpatrick by stabbing. Three others (he continued) had been stabbed and wounded also on the same occasion, and doubtless by the hand of the prisoner. Fitzpatrick, the victim of the prisoner's violence, was now mouldering in his grave, and his wife and children were thrown upon the cold charities of an unfeeling world, and left, perhaps, in a state of great destitution by his means. His Honor then spoke of the habits and mode of life of the prisoner and his companions, who had indulged in vicious courses and led lives of disorder and depravity, that had resulted in the death of one murdered man. He said, to deter those companions from their persistance in such courses the law would exert its authority and punish to the utmost extent allowed, notwithstanding the recommendation to mercy of the jury. The Court said they could see no mitigating circumstances in the case, and accordingly sentenced the prisoner to 4 years' imprisonment at hard labor in the State Prison at Sing Sing. He was then remanded to prison, and the Court adjourned for the term.

Also for an outrageous assault and battery on Saturday in the jury room, adjoining the court-room, on his wife, whom he seized by the throat, choked and beat her, and attempted to bite off her nose, within sight of the Judges, when she was rescued from his grasp with difficulty by Officers Davis, Bean and others: guilty—Penitentiary another 6 months, making a year altogether.

Charles Brown, a boy—stealing a box of old iron from Michael Coghlin: guilty—City Prison 30 days.

Edward Delany, a boy—stealing a dollar in change from the money-drawer of John Farley: guilty, and sent to the House of Refuge, where he had been before.

Patrick Rourke—stealing a barrel of pork from Philo Lewis: guilty—Penitentiary 60 days.

James Sutton—violent assault and battery on his wife Margaret: guilty—Penitentiary 6 months.

Margaret Cotton, alias Curran—assault and battery on Mary Jane Fitzgerald: not guilty.

Harriet Williams, colored—stealing clothing from Martin Waters: guilty—City Prison 20 days.

Discharged.—Garret Riley, Ann Vogan, Henry O'Neil, Mary Wagan, Mary Hart, Lucy Townsend and William Allen, charged with assault and battery, and Peter Hawkins with petit larceny, were generally discharged, no witnesses appearing against them to prosecute.

POLICE OFFICE.—Female Counterfeiter.—A female named Ann Foster (but who occasionally, for the purposes of business, gave the name of Deforest) was sometime since arrested, lodged in prison and subsequently indicted for passing three several $2 bills of the Phenix Bank, Hartford, Conn, altered to twenties, to different individuals for dry goods, receiving the change in each case. On Friday evening she was complained of again by W. D. Hamilton, boiler clerk of Cornelius L. Hope, of No. 235 Greenwich-street, for having passed a similar $2 bill, altered as above, to said clerk, on the 15th of January last. She purchased 6 yards of linen for $4 67, and received the change, and was fully committed also to answer this charge, which she resolutely denied.

Vagrants and Disorderlies.—On Saturday night about 11 o'clock, Justice Mansell, aided by some watchmen, arrested 7 women and 2 men at the Five Points, charged with vagrancy, disorderly conduct, &c, and lodged them in the watch house.—Yesterday morning they were all sent to prison for examination and future disposition, except one female, who was discharged.

Stealing from Bales, Boxes, &c.—Two young pickpockets, named Peter Wagner and Robert Jones, were arrested on Saturday and sent to prison for stealing rather extensive specimens of the contents of boxes, barrels, hogsheads, bales, &c, which were exposed at Coffee House Slip.

CORONER'S OFFICE.—The Coroner on Saturday held an inquest at the house of Patrick McIntyre, No. 20 Cross street, in the rear, on the body of a male infant child of the above and of Ann, his wife, aged 11 days. The deceased was born on the 13th inst., and, although healthy, was greatly exposed in a miserably uncomfortable attic apartment, and was found dead in bed on Saturday morning. Verdict—Died of congestion of the brain.

Also yesterday at the Barge Office at the Battery on the body of an unknown man, found by H. De Silver, a soldier belonging to the U. S. Garrison at Governor's Island, about in the dock of the battery early yesterday morning, and more fast. The deceased had black hair, appeared to be about 40 years of age, and evidently been a long time in the water as the face was so much was erased by its action as to render the features undistinguishable. He was clad in a rough pea-coat, raspberry jacket, blue cloth pantaloons, white muslin and flannel shirts, flannel drawers, long woollen hose and brogans. Verdict—Found drowned.

Also at the house of Michael Gormley, No. 37 Willett-street, on the body of William, infant son of the above, aged 3 weeks. The mother of the child was an intemperate woman, and on Saturday morning she informed her husband, who is a sober and industrious mechanic, that the child was ill, and requested him to furnish her with money to purchase some medicine for it, which he gave her and went away to his employment. On Saturday night, on his return home about 10 o'clock, he found his wife lying on the floor in a state of intoxication asleep, and the child lying under her with her nipple in its mouth, dead, having been laid upon and killed unconsciously by its mother, who had purchased liquor instead of medicine. Verdict—Died of suffocation by being overlaid by its mother.

CONFECTIONARY.
THE subscriber respectfully informs his customers and others, that he has removed from William-street, to the store formerly occupied by Mr. Charles Lee, the celebrated Blacking Manufacturer, No. 265 Broadway, between Warren and Chambers-streets, opposite the City Hall, where he will continue to manufacture DRY CONFECTIONS of the purest kind, and warranted to keep in all climates. Although the expenses attendant on so large an establishment and in so public a situation, must necessarily be greatly increased, yet the additional facilities afforded him in the manufacturing and sales department, both of which being under his immediate control, will enable him to sell at his usual low prices; and he hopes, by so doing, to merit a share of the public favor. It may not be improper to say that the subscriber is a practical workman, and has been engaged in the manufacturing of Confections for upwards of 16 years, which he flatters himself entitles him to a favorable notice.

JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.
Come all ye bald, and all that's grey,
Come listen to my ditty,
I wish to tell, without delay,
What brought me to your city.
It is to clothe your naked heads,
With nature's proper covering,
Renew the soil, that's almost dead,
Nor under wigs be hovering.
My name and fame is extended wide,
Beyond the distant ocean;
Both France and England, Spain beside,
Have all got in the notion.
A bald Parisian cannot be found,
Nor one throughout the nation,
And all because they fill the sources
With his vinegrous preparation.
I offer now both free and pure,
Although your case is chronic,
And warrant all a perfect cure,
In Dr. JAYNE'S HAIR TONIC.
Sold at wholesale and retail by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, 79 and 100 Fulton-street, and 77 East Broadway. Price $1.

DR. F. FELIX GOURAUD'S
POUDRES SUBTILE.
HAIRY excrescences, if not the greatest, are perhaps the most common drawbacks to personal appearance. The skin may possess perfectly purity of color, it may be heightened by the bloom of health, and rich with the smoothness of youth; but if these attractions are obscured by an overgrowth of Hair, the advantages they would otherwise yield their possessor, are immeasurably lost. Dr. FELIX GOURAUD'S POUDRES SUBTILE have been found highly efficient in removing such disfigurement. When applied cold, this preparation is used by some in lieu of a razor for removing the beard, which it effects with more ease, with as much rapidity, in a more satisfactory manner and at less expense, while at the same time it leaves the skin soft and delicate to the touch. To uproot the beard entirely it must be applied warm. It will also destroy the Hair when found to encroach upon the forehead, and will rid one of many little annoyances in the shape of furze, or straggling and superfluous locks. In fact, it is a valuable appendage to the toilet, and will be found such by those who may have occasion for its use. Purchasers can see the preparation tried, if required. $1 per bottle.
GOURAUD'S LEAU DE BEAUTE.—This inestimable French preparation thoroughly exterminates eruptions, tan-pimples, freckles, redness, and all cutaneous imperfections whatever; arrests the neck, hands and arms in ravishing whiteness, bestows on the complexion juvenile bloom, renovates beauty when on the decline, realizes it when before absent, and sustains its pristine splendor to the latest period of life.
