Thursday, P. M.

The operations at the Board to-day were not large, excepting in Harlem, of which the sales exceeded 2600 shares, at some improvement on yesterday's prices. 125 shares United States Bank sold at 3½ a 3¾, which is an improvement of ½ per cent.; Mechanics' Bank fell off ½ per cent., Mechanics' Banking Association 2, Farmers' Trust ½, Mohawk improved ½, New-Jersey ½.

In the State Securities the sales reached $60,000. The market is heavy and holders appear to be pressing sales.

The Corning & Blassburg Railroad appears to be in a very flourishing condition. In a statement in the Evening Journal, the earnings are set down at $57,451 81 from 1st May to 9th Oct. a few days over five months. The receipts for the balance of the year are estimated at 45,000 to $50,000. Making an aggregate, should the receipts correspond with the estimate, of $62,000 to $7,000. The annual expenditures of the road, including repairs, is estimated at $30,000.

We understand that the business on the New-York and Erie Railroad already exceeds the most sanguine expectations of its friends, and that more engines and cars are consequently needed. When finished to Lake Erie, it promises to put to shame the croakings of its opponents.

Five dollar notes of the Commercial Bank of Milbington altered to Commercial Bank of Buffalo, are in circulation. N. Adams and H. H. Ellis were never officers of the last named institution.

An idea has been started which may, perhaps, produce some practical effects. It is to hold a Convention in November in Cincinnati of delegates from the Western and Southwestern States, to devise some scheme to improve the currency of those States. Such a reform is very much needed. Kentucky alone is said to pay $5,000,000 per year in Exchanges.

Several of the Maine Banks have had their capital reduced. The Portland Argus says 'the Banks throughout the State have declared dividends, and as we learn are doing a safe and profitable although not an extensive business. The three principal Banks in Bangor, however, viz: the Bangor, the Eastern and the Kenduskeag are exceptions; they are doing a larger and better business than they have ever done.'

Large quantities of real estate mortgaged to the Sinking Fund of the Indiana State Debt, are advertised for sale at Indianapolis on the 11th December next.

By the official report of the Bank of Tennessee and branches it appears that the

The Comptroller of the State has given notice that the bills of the Mechanics' Bank of Buffalo will be redeemed at the Bank Department on and after the 21st inst., at 63 cents on the dollar.

INDIANA SINKING FUND.—The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, Ia., have advertised a large number of parcels of real estate, for sale on the 11th December, 1841, in Indianapolis. This real estate was mortgaged to the State, to pay the interest on the Sinking Fund on the Indiana debt. The real estate is located in different parts of the State, and the total amount due is large. The land will be sold for the amount of the mortgage debt, and some of it is to be on long credit.

New-York Markets.

ASHES.—The receipts are moderate. Sales of Pots today at 6.37½, and small sales at 6.25. A parcel of Pearls has been sold at a shade under 6.00.

COTTON.—Sales to-day of 500 bales. The market is very firm.

FLOUR.—The demand continues good, and there are but few sellers of Genesee to-day at less than 6.00. Ohio 5.87½ a 6.00; Michigan 5.87½. The tendency is still upward. Southern is without change, with light sales—Georgetown and Howard street 6.00 a 6.12; Brandywine 6.25.

GRAIN.—The market is still bare of Wheat. There is very little Corn or Rye offering. Of the latter we have no sales to report. Sales of Northern white Corn at 70, measure, and Jersey at the same rate.

☞ Boston Brown Bread.—Mr. Editor—Strolling along Division-street the other day, I saw a show bill announcing the above article for sale, so I just stepped in to see what it looked like, and I found it was the same kind as we used to have at home. I can assure you it was a great treat to me when I sat down to my breakfast the next morning, to see the real stuff itself (smoking hot) on the table. By the bye, if some of your pale faced ladies were to eat some of it every day, they would not complain so much of dyspepsia, besides it would improve their looks by giving them a healthy appearance. I am an Eastern man and know that there are a great number of Yankees in this City that would like to get some as well as myself; so I reckoned that if I told you that you would tell them, and then it would get known all over creation, through the extensive circulation of your valuable paper. A DOWN EASTER.

DARING ATTEMPT AT IMPOSITION—A person lately discharged from my employ has had the bare-faced audacity to possess himself of numerous show-bills and fancy labels connected with the sale of my Tricopherous. He has likewise issued a hand-bill headed "Chirehugh's Tricopherous," into which he has had the impudence to copy verbatim the principal advertisements of my wrapper, and has put a label and printed "directions for use" on each bottle, similar in every respect to the original, and adds "that it is the same article which he manufactured while in my establishment. The circumstance of such a gratuitous, unmitigate, and unblushing falsehood only requires to be denied by me, and the person making such assertion held up to public scorn.

I scarce deem it necessary to say that no one at any time, in or out of my employ, was ever entrusted with the secret, and could not by any means arrive at it, and that none but my self and son ever knew any thing of its composition or manufacture. His attempt to impose a spurious imitation of the genuine Tricopherous, which he, in his ignorance and cupidity thinks the public will be entrapped to purchase because charged only 50 cents, will be duly appreciated.

The individual who could be guilty of such conduct will not hesitate as to any means he may adopt to deceive and impose on the public. VAIR CLIREHUGH.

The original and genuine Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound for the Hair, is to be had only at Chirehugh's Principal Office, 267 Broadway, and of his appointed Agents, J. S. Dodd, Druggist, corner of Bleecker-street and Broadway, Wm. Milnor, Druggist, corner of John-st. and Broadway, and Mrs King, Bookseller, Fulton street. All others are counterfeits. o2 1mis

NEW-YORK CARD PRESS.—This new and superior article is offered to the public as combining more advantages than any other article in the market. Some of the advantages are, that it is portable and easily conveyed from place to place. It may be worked by one person, either by hand or treadle, and with very little labor. It will turn out work as quick and good as any other press, and as the number of its parts are few it is less liable to get out of order. Those who have used the Press as well as other persons acquainted with Presses, pronounce it the best and cheapest that has yet been produced. Persons desirous of procuring the article can obtain them at 21 John-street, between William and Gold-streets. *24 1mis
