CIVIL COURTS.....Oct. 27.

At the Circuit Court, in the replevin case mentioned yesterday of Solomon against Acker, the Jury gave a verdict for defendant of $1,804, being the value of the goods, and $1,795 damages for the parties detaining them from the creditors.

In the same Court Benj F. Cragin brought an action against Joseph J. Travis for slander, laying his damages at $5,000. The parties were dealers in prints &c. and in comfortable circumstances Mr. Travis accused Mr. Cragin of perjuring himself in a suit which was tried at the Court of Common Pleas, prevented him, by the charge, from getting a certificate of good standing from the Carmine-street Church, to which they both belonged, and told at the house where Mr. C resided, that he meant to put him in the States Prison for perjury, and have him in chains before the next night. He repeated the assertion wherever he went, and Mr. C. found himself much avoided by his former friends. The case was still on when the Court adjourned.

In the Court of Common Pleas an action was brought by Henry Perks and Elizabeth Jane, his wife, against Hiram P. Gray, whose family keeps a millinery store at No. 60 Catharine-street, for assault and battery, and unjust imprisonment; the damages laid at $1,000. Mrs Perks went into the store, selected a bonnet, had it trimmed, waited about three quarters of an hour for it, and finally was going off without taking it, when Mr. Gray seized her by the arm and then by her black mantle or scarf, to detain her. A crowd gathered round the door, and considerable excitement was observed. The Jury gave a verdict for plaintiff of $60 damages and 6 cents costs.

POLICE OFFICE.....Oct. 28.

THEFT OF A SHAWL.—A man named Daniel Fagan, was caught on Tuesday night by watchman Beaty, in the act of stealing a shawl worth 50 cents, from the store corner of Church and Warren-streets, for which he was committed.

STEALING CLOTHING.—Two black fellows, named John Bunborn and Stephen Latimer, were yesterday arrested for stealing two pair of pantaloons worth $9 from the store of William Donovan, No. 39 South street, for which they were committed for trial.

EXAMINATION FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.—Sylvester Spencer, who had been committed for embezzling $10,972 of the funds of Shepperd Knapp, Pension Agent of the U. States for this city, was yesterday brought out of Prison, before Justice Matsell for examination, attended by his Counsel, J. S. Morrell, Esq. To the question of "What is your age, place of birth, residence and occupation," he replied, "I am innocent of the charge upon which I now stand committed. I cannot answer the same for the reason that previous to my committment my papers, and vouchers were taken from me, and I have no means at present of explaining my accounts, which I think I could do satisfactorily, if they were in my possession, or if I even had access to the same; and by the advice of my Counsel, John S. Morrill, Esq. I shall decline answering any questions at present."

He was then committed in full to answer the charge.

STEALING PIG IRON.—Daniel Cronin was yesterday arrested and imprisoned for stealing a pig of iron from Peck Slip, property of Joseph G. Russell, No. 170 Grand-st

STEALING A ROUNDABOUT.—A man named Thomas C. Cassady was yesterday arrested and committed for stealing a cloth roundabout jacket worth $8 from William T. Welsh, No. 124 Nassau st.

CORONER'S OFFICE.....Oct. 27

KILLED BY A FALL.—Yesterday the Coroner held an inquest at No. 56 James-street on the body of Christopher Howard, aged 31, a native of Prussia. The deceased was the second mate of the ship Orleans, lying at the foot of Wall-street, and on Tuesday about noon, while engaged alone in painting one of the top-sail yards, accidentally fell to the deck. He was taken up insensible, and conveyed to the Hospital, where he continued in the same state, and maugre the exertions of the physicians—he died at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Verdict, died of injuries received by falling from the top-sail yard of the ship Orleans on the 26th instant.

Commercial and Money Matters.

Wednesday, P. M.

At the Stock Board to day there was only a moderate amount of business and prices had a downward tendency. About 250 shares United States Bank were sold closing 3¾, a decline of ¼ per cent. Delaware and Hudson declined ¼, Mohawk ¼, New-Jersey and Canton Co. improved ½ per cent.

In State Stocks the transactions were light.

Illinois Sixes declined ½, Indiana Bonds ¼, and Kentucky Sixes ¼.

There has been to-day a fair amount of business in Sterling and French Exchange at 9¼ a 10 for the former and 5 20 for the latter. The supply of bills is moderate Some drawers of sterling are asking 10¼ prem.

Some curiosity has been expressed in relation to the Bonds of the Ohio Life Ins. and Trust Co. advertised for sale at auction on the 1st December. They have been sent here for sale we understand from London, where they were pledged by the Bank of the United States for loans obtained in that city. They came into the possession of the Bank about five years since as payment of a portion of the assets of the Branch at Cincinnati. They are redeemable in 1855, and the interest has been heretofore regularly paid by the Trust Co.

The Notes of the United States Bank of Buffalo will be redeemed on the first of November by the Comptroller at 77 per cent. Union Bank of Buffalo on the 31 November at 81 per cent. Merchants' Exchange Bank, Buffalo, on the 6th November, secured by public stocks at 81 per cent, secured by stocks and real estate, 65 per cent. Two mortgages belonging to this Bank are in the hands of the Attorney General for collection, and if collected, an additional dividend of about 15 per cent, will be made.

A portion of the cargo of Teas per Lowell was offered at auction to-day. The company was very large, but contrary to expectation, the biddings were rather languid. A large portion of the low grades country Teas were withdrawn, none being sold under 61, to go on only 60 could be obtained. One or two chops Canton made were sold at 44 and the balance withdrawn, that price not being for more. The advance on the previous sales was from 2½ to 6 cents per lb. No doubt much less than the owners anticipated.

NOTICE.—COMMERCIAL BANK—The undersigned hereby gives notice that he has been appointed Receiver of the Commercial Bank in the city of New York. All persons, firms and corporations indebted to said bank, whether severally or jointly, are required by the fifteenth day of December next, to render to the Receiver an account of all debts and sums of money owing by them respectively to such bank, and to pay the same. All persons having in their possession any property or effects of such bank are required to deliver the same to the Receiver by the day aforesaid. All the creditors of said bank are required to deliver their respective accounts and demands to the Receiver by the day aforesaid. All persons holding any open or subsisting contract of said bank are required to present the same in writing and in detail to the Receiver by the day aforesaid.

The Receiver will make a partial dividend among the creditors of the Bank as early as the realization of the assets of the Bank will permit. In the meantime he will issue to the creditors and depositors certificates, if desired, showing the amounts which by the books of the bank, appear to be due them respectively. It is provided by law that if a final dividend of the effects of the bank does not satisfy and discharge all the debts of the bank with interest, the Bank Fund in the Treasury of the State is liable for the deficiency. The Comptroller of the state is now redeeming the circulating notes of the bank in the city of Albany. The office of the Receiver is at No. 1 Hanover street.

Dated New York October 27, 1841.
