We copy the following from the Rochester Democrat:

Two hundred and seventy thousand barrels of Flour reached tide water last year after the second week in November. The receipts at tide water in the month of October this year were about one hundred thousand barrels less than the corresponding month last year. Suppose that from the West and the few mills which yet run in this State, there should seventy thousand barrels of flour reach New-York after the 15th inst (which by the way we very much doubt,) there will then be a deficiency of three hundred thousand barrels.

The Guardian Insurance Company have declared a dividend of four per cent.

The injunction case of the Buffalo Bank will come before the Chancellor on the 22d inst. The business of the Bank in the meanwhile remains in the hands of the Cashier, Mr. John R. Lee.

The quantity of Flour and Wheat delivered from the Erie Canal during the first week in November, at the places named below, is as follows, viz:

	Bbls. Flour.	Bush. Wheat.
Schenectady	9,0	570
West Troy	24,550	32,312
Albany	55,033	9,081
Total	80,583	41,963

State of the Domestic or Country Market,

(Wholesale Prices.)

Reported for The New-York Tribune.

APPLES continue to be in brisk demand, and good quality sell for $1 75 per barrel. 50 barrels of very fine streaked pippins from up the North River sold at $2 25. This was an uncommonly fine lot, many of the apples weighing 19 and 20 ounces.

APPLES DRIED.—Market full—no demand whatever. Sales lower than ever before known. 75 cents to $1 a bushel.

BUTTER continues plenty, but the prices of last week are fully sustained.

BROOMS, CORN.—New-York is principally supplied with Corn Brooms from the States of New-York and Massachusetts, although very large quantities are brought in from New-Jersey and Pennsylvania. The sales amount to about one million of brooms a season, and vary, according to the quality, from $8 00 to $25 per 100. This is the season for bringing them in, and we believe there is a ready market for all come.

CABBAGES.—Sales from the sloops have been made mostly at $3 per 100 heads, though some sold as low as $2 75. About 50,000 heads came to market during the week.

CRANBERRIES.—In demand and ready sale at $4 75 and $5 00.

EGGS.—Continue scarce and high. 20 barrels were bought during the week at 19 cents per dozen, and we heard of a sale of 90,000 at about the same rates. We understand that speculators buy them up in the country and deal them out to the City dealers as sparingly as possible. This enables them to obtain such exorbitant prices. A Pennsylvanian by the name of Wells, during the last season bought up from the farmers in his neighborhood between 200 and 300,000 at about 9 a 10 cents a dozen. He now brings about 1000 or 1500 dozen a week to New York and sells them at 19 and 20 cents per dozen. The farmers are in this way egregiously imposed upon; the City dealers unable to buy at a rate which allows him a fair profit and the consumer is compelled to submit to an it nat extortion. We will aid the farmers all in our power to break up this monopoly.

GAME.—But little variation from our reports of last week. Venison is rather more in demand, but will not command more than 8 c nts, very prime saddles would sell for 12 cents. With the exception of what may be in the Restaurateurs, there is prob bly not more than 1000 lbs. in the City on sale.

HOGS.—Plenty—4 and 4½ cents.

ONIONS.—About 500 bushels arrived during the last week. Sales red 50 and 56 cents per bushel—white 75 and 81½ cents. The largest supply is received from Rhode Island, and the principal part of the red are shipped from New-York to the West Indies.

POTATOES.—A trifle lower than our last week's report. The market is not overstocked however for the season.

POULTRY.—All kinds rather down. Turkies sell for 8 9 and 10 cents per pound. Chickens from 25 to 75 cents. Average size about 37½ cents.

TURNIPS.—Not many in market, and no great demand. Sales at 25 cents per bushel.

WOOD.—The amount in yards for winter supply is small. Virginia Pine from the vessels sells for $5 a cord—Jersey Pine for $4,00—Oak Wood from $5 25 to $6 00. Hickory $50 to $7 00.

A LITERARARY GEM.

Rich, Amusing, and Instructive Book.

IN PRESS:

And will be published early in March, 1842

☞ SPLENDIDLY ILLUSTRATED WORK, Containing several hundred superb new Engravings, making the finest series of illustrations ever presented to the American public, in one handsome large octavo (handsomely bound) of Six Hundred pages. Price only $3 00. This splendid volume will, in itself comprise a complete "LIBRARY OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE," condensed in form, familiar in style, and copious in information, embracing an extensive range of subjects in LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND ART. The subjects of the Engravings will be strictly illustrative, being representations of actual Scenery, Costumes, Manners, Monuments, and Objects of Natural History, and executed in the first style of the Art. It will be a work of universal utility; and we have no hesitation in pronouncing it the most splendid work for the price ever produced in this Country. The work will be got out in a style nearly equal to our best Annuals, and at less than one-tenth their price, considering the amount of matter and great number of Engravings—the original cost of which alone will exceed

Four Thousand Dollars.

My object will be to produce a Book that shall meet the wants and wishes of a very large and most respectable class of readers, whose opportunities of studying are as infrequent as their aspirations after KNOWLEDGE are ardent. ROBERT SEARS, Editor and Publisher.

P. S.—The work will be ready for delivery on or about the 1st of March, 1842.

☞ AGENTS—Responsible Men—wanted in every town and village throughout the United States.—Address Publisher (as above) post paid.
