Commercial and Money Matters.

SUNDAY, P. M.

The sales at the Brokers Board were large yesterday, and stocks continued to improve. Delaware & Hudson went up 3½ per cent; Mechanics Bank 5 per cent; Bank of America, Bank of Commerce and American Exchange Bank each 1; Farmers Loan 1½; New Jersey 2½; Long Island ½; Harlem ¼; Mohawk ½; Canton ¼.

State Stocks generally sold at an advance. New York sixes 1 per cent; Ohio sixes 1 per cent; Illinois bonds 5 per cent; Kentucky 4½; Indiana 3.

SECOND BOARD.

1000	Indiana.....	22	4000 Illinois..... 19
4000	State sixes.....	90

The following table exhibits the improvement in some of the principal stocks, which has taken place within the last ten days:—

Delaware & Hudson	90	97	Syracuse & Utica	108	115
Mechanics Bank	59	64	Ohio Life & Trust	50	60
Bank America	80	88	New York sixes	84½	90
Bank Commerce	full 75	83	New-York fives	76½	83
Am. Ex. Bank	58	63	New-York 5½	79½	85
Farmers Loan	17½	27½	Ohio sixes	64½	70

Harlem	8½	12	Illinois	15	17½
Mohawk	46	54	Indiana	18½	22
Canton	18	24

Sterling exchange is firm, and sales have been made of leading bills at 7½. The current rates is 6½ a 7. Francs are also rather better, and some bills are held at 5.35; we quote 5.37½.

Inland bills continue dull, and the rates do not materially vary. We quote—

Philadelphia	¼ a ¼		Montgomery	25	a 25½
Baltimore	¼ a—		Tuscaloosa	25	a 25½
Virginia	7 a 7½		New-Orleans	⅞	a ⅞
North Carolina	5½ a 5		Nashville	18	a 20
Charleston	1½ a 1½		Louisville	⅞	a ⅞
Savannah	2 a 2½		St. Louis	17	a 20
Augusta	2 a 2½		Cincinnati	7	a 7½
Mobile	22½	a 22

The cheerful feeling in the street continues to be perceived. The banks are discounting freely. The out door rates for paper are easier, and the right kind of paper is scarce. If our merchants get through May safely we shall look for a good business during the coming fall season. A sale of cloths came off yesterday, at which the prices obtained were ten to fifteen per cent advance on previous sales.

The Long Island Railroad has called in an instalment of 25 cents per share, payable on the first May.

The Silver Creek Bank has established a branch at Buffalo under the direction of Oliver Lee, Esq. The canal tolls will be temporarily deposited in this branch.

Markets.

ASHES—About 300 bbls have been sold to arrive on private terms. The market here is nearly bare.

COTTON—The market was quiet yesterday.

FLOUR—Very little doing. The arrival of some 6000 bbls from New Orleans, and 4000 more being on the way, has checked operations. We hear of no sales of importance, we quote Genesee $6,12½ a $6,18¾; Troy $6,12½; Ohio Canal $6 a $6,12½. For New Orleans $5,75 was offered; Georgetown $5,87½; Brandywine $5,81¼ a $5,87½. Low priced Southern Flour continues rather scarce.

GRAIN—Corn has rather a downward tendency. Sales 1800 Virginia and Maryland at 60 a 61½c. measure, for the East. 1000 bushels Rye brought 62½c. weight. 2900 bush. Southern Oats 40 a 42c, the latter with a mixture of Barley Oats. 400 bush. Barley Oats brought 50c. Some lots of N. Orleans Corn are unsold.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Reported for The New-York Tribune.

SATURDAY, April 23.

CIVIL COURTS.

In the Superior Court the case of Schermerhorn vs. Bibby, relative to the will of the late Henry Van Cortland, of Yonkers, was brought up. The last trial (on which the Jury could not agree) was to test whether or not Mr. Van C. was of sound disposing mind at the time of making the codicil. The only question now presented was whether the codicil had really been made by him. To this the plaintiff made no objection. The witnesses to the codicil were examined, when the Jury gave a verdict in the affirmative.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

A large number of petitions in Bankruptcy passed to decree. Objections were offered to that of Thomas H. Chambers. Authority was given the assignee to sell at private sale a quantity of furniture which remained (over the $100 allowed by law) in the hands of a bankrupt, to a relative, at the appraised value.

POLICE OFFICE.

FEMALE PICKPOCKETS CAUGHT.—As John Nowland, of No. 70 Centre-street, was passing along Orange-street, on Friday night he was invited into a house by two colored females named Prudence Oakley and Almira Treadwell, the former of whom thrust her hand into his pocket and drew out a half eagle and $2 in change, which in the struggle fell on the floor. The pair hastily gathered the money up and fled, but were subsequently arrested by officer Stokely, and on Saturday committed to prison.

ARREST FOR FORGERY.—On Saturday morning officer Cockelar arrested a young man named Richard S. Howard, formerly a book-keeper of Mr. Daly of Broadway, and lately in the same employment for Mr. Rice in John-street, charged with having on the 16th inst. forged a check for $1000 on the Bank of Commerce purporting to be signed by Messrs. Thomas G. Hunt & Co. on the corner of William and Platt-streets, payable to the order of Messrs. Noyes & Morris, and their names forged thereon as endorsers. This check he gave to a boy named Philip Livingston, whom he found standing on the steps of the Bank of New York, to take to the Bank of Commerce to get cashed, promising to give him two shillings for the execution of his errand. On the check being presented it was pronounced a forgery and efforts made to find the forger, but he had abruptly left the place appointed for meeting the boy and was not to be found. The way Howard obtained the signature of Messrs. Thomas G. Hunt & Co. for imitation is as follows. He addressed a letter to them from the Astor House, setting forth that he was a merchant who had recently arrived hither and was desirous of purchasing some $10,000 worth of cloths, &c. for which he would pay part in cash and the residue on short dates, to be satisfactorily secured, and soliciting an answer to his letter. This was sent and of course contained the signature of the firm, putting him in possession of what he desired. Having failed in his first financial enterprise Howard hastened to originate a second, and therefore addressed from Lovejoy's Hotel a letter to Messrs. Wilson G. Hunt & Co. corner of Pearl and Chatham-street, opening a negotiation for $1000 worth of clothes, and soliciting an answer through the Post Office. This latter firm having seen informed by Messrs. Thomas G. Hunt & Co. of the circumstances connected with the forgery of the $1000 check and being satisfied that their correspondent was the same individual, confided the whole affair to officer M. Lounsle, who taking with him officer Cockelar, proceeded to the Post Office where, on the arrival of Howard for his letter, he was arrested, identified by the boy, taken to the Police Office and committed to prison to be tried for his forgery of the $1000 check.

ROUTING DISORDERLY HOUSE KEEPERS.—On Saturday Ann Chapin was arrested and held to bail in $500, charged with keeping a disorderly house and house of infamy at No. 1 Benson-street; and Eliza Stevens was also arrested and held to bail in $300 for keeping a house of the same description at No. 2 Benson-street.

THEFT OF A KETTLE, &c.—John Williams, colored man, was on Saturday arrested and committed for stealing a wash kettle and other articles worth $7 75 from Mrs. Jane Crowell, widow, of No. 56 Orange-street.

ROBBERY ON A STEAMBOAT.—On Saturday officer Reives arrested three men named Charles Anderson, William Glow and Joseph Miller for having stolen three pair of boots worth $7 from a case on board the steamer Cleopatra, from Providence, hither, the property of Lewis S. Boughton of this city. They were committed to answer.

CORONER'S OFFICE.

MAN DROWNED.—The Coroner on Saturday held an inquest at the corner of West and Warren-streets, on the body of an unknown man of small size, with black hair, aged about 25, who was found in the water near Newburgh pier foot of water-street, having been a long time in the water. Verdict, found drowned.

WASHINGTON INSTITUTE.—Education for Boys.—The annual Summer Arrangements are now made. Pupils at an early age are received as members of the family, and are carefully Educated, by uniting attention to the proper development of their physical, moral and intellectual faculties, and with special reference to their probable destination and pursuits in life. Health, as a fundamental acquisition, is made the object of profound superintendence; and virtuous and honorable principles, with refined and polished manners, not less than the philosophical discipline of the mind, are inculcated with the persevering assiduity which their importance demands. The course of instruction is ample and thoughtfully distributed; the number of teachers being in such proportion to the residential number of the taught, that while due encouragement to effort exists on the one side, adequate opportunities are afforded on the other.

Parents and Guardians interested in the matter may procure circulars, and all requisite information, by calling on the Conductors, at the premises so long occupied by them, in Whitehall-street, near Union Place. References may be furnished in the names of hundreds whose sons have been made the care—some for five, six, and seven years consecutively, or of gentlemen now filling important stations in society, who have themselves been educated at the Institute.
