VESSELS MISSING.—Among the vessels now missing is the brig Attention, Robert P. Chase, master, of and from Boston for Pernambuco, sailed Oct. 15. She had not arrived Feb. 26, nor has she since been heard from. Captain Chase was a native of Salisbury, Mass., and was married thirty-six hours previous to his sailing, to Miss Helena M. Freeman, who took passage in the vessel. The other passengers were Mrs. Fisher and son, and Mr. Charles H. Hayward.

The whale ship Cadmus, from Sag Harbor, on the night of October 22, in the Gulf Stream, came in contact with a vessel unknown, supposed to be a schooner, which it was feared went down soon after, as the C. hove to and set a light, but nothing more was seen of the unknown, and it is now feared that she was the Attention, which was an hermaphrodite brig, and might be supposed a schooner in the night.

Another vessel missing is the schooner Columbia, Otto E. Wilson, master, of and from Boston, for St. Thomas and Porto Cabello, sailed Dec. 9, and has not since been heard from. She was a good vessel, about six years old, built in Maryland, valued at about $3000, and insured in Boston for $2500. She was owned by Mr. Silas G. Whitney, and had a cargo of wine, beef, pork, soap, cordage, fish, chairs, &c., shipped by different persons, about one-third of which was insured.—[N. O. Pic.

FROM CAMPEACHY.—By the arrival of the schooner Litchfield, Captain Smith, in 7 days from Campeachy, we have some late information from Yucatan. On the 9th instant, a U. S. sloop of war belonging to the West India Squadron, touched at Campeachy on her way to Vera Cruz. The Texas war schooner San Antonio was at Campeachy, having on board one of the Santa Fe prisoners who had escaped and made his way to Tobasco, where the Texas schooner was lying, and by which he was rescued. The San Antonio was to sail in a few days for New Orleans, for the purpose of refitting.

The citizens of Yucatan were anxiously expecting the arrival of the new Commissioners from Santa Ana, who were empowered to settle the difficulties now existing between them, but it is supposed that no treaty can be made, as the will of Santa Ana is well known to be adverse to one. The consequence will be war, for which active preparations are now making by the Yucatecos. The man-of-war "Yucatan" was to sail in a few days, the "Gen'l Lleman" and two schooners were lying in the roadstead awaiting orders. The "Litchfield" brought 13 cases of antiquities and specimens of Natural History. The Governor has promulgated a decree confirming the powers of Col. Francisco Peraya, as Yucatanese Agent in Texas, and repeating the instructions relative to the co-operation of the Yucatanese and Texan navies, with the exception of one clause prohibiting hostile operations upon Matamoros. EXTRAORDINARY CAPTURE.—A devil fish of unusual size was taken by some negro fishermen off the reef that runs out from Castle Pinckney about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and carried with extreme difficulty into Market Wharf. The size of this extraordinary inhabitant of the deep, so seldom seen in our waters, is by actual measurement as follows: length 3 feet from the head to the root of the tail; breadth 17 feet 6 inches; breadth of the mouth 3 feet 2 inches; length of flaps or horns 2 feet 4 inches, and is supposed to weigh 2 tons. [Charleston Patriot.

STEAMBOAT BURNT.—The steamboat Auburn, lying at Maysville, O. was destroyed on the 22d where she had been discharging freight. She had a large number of passengers on board, and a large quantity of freight. The passengers escaped with life, but lost their baggage. The loss is very great. The fire was occasioned by a candle in the hold aft, and almost immediately enveloped the whole boat. [Cin. Gaz.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

SATURDAY, April 30.

In the SUPERIOR COURT an action of trover was brought by the State of Indiana against Dwight Danforth, a broker in Wall street, to recover $15,000, being the value of 45 $1000 bonds left with him by Gen. Stapp, Fund Commissioner of the State, to be put in his iron safe for secure keeping, but converted to his own use. It appeared that after Gen. S. had been superseded in the office of Commissioner he came to this city for the bonds, but not being able to get them he took an endorsed obligation from Danforth in the sum, with penalty to a large amount. The State, however, would not acknowledge the transaction, and now bring suit. Verdict for plaintiff in principal and interest, being $17,993 95.

In the COURT OF COMMON PLEAS an action was brought by Wm. F. Van Antringe against James Rowe to recover $300, the value of a quantity of molasses sold to Beman & Barnard on the assurance of defendant that they were sound and worthy of trust, which did not prove to be the case. It was contended on the defence that Mr. Rowe was not actuated by any sinister design in giving the recommendation. Verdict for plaintiff, $25.

In the MARINE COURT an action was brought by Samuel Ross against Abijah Matthews to recover $100, being the value of a set of teeth, payment of which was contested on the ground that judgement was recovered in the Common Pleas on a bill of items, and that this should have been included. Its not being so debarred any further claim being brought. It was denied that the amount was due then.—Judgement for plaintiff.

A Sheriff's Jury was empanelled on Friday evening to assess damages in an action brought by a woman named Jane Graham Weston against Capt. Frederick Hewett, of the Havre packet ship Utica, for breach of promise of marriage. The suit had been entered in the Superior Court and suffered to go by default. The plaintiff has kept a house of ill fame in Duane street and other places in this city for several years, and, it is said, at the same time was proprietress of a similar establishment at Philadelphia, which she still retains. She was at Havana in 1831 (having gone from New-York) and took passage in the ship Manchester, commanded by defendant, on her return home. An intimacy commenced between them at that time and continued to the year 1840, when she sold her furniture and went to New Orleans, expecting to meet him there. He, however, had married some one else. A number of letters written by him to her were read in Court, expressing great affection and a determination to marry her. For the defendant it was contended that her lewd course of life rendered the promise invalid. The Jury, after being out about two hours could not agree, and were discharged.

POLICE OFFICE.—THE CASE OF ATTEMPT TO KILL IN BROOME STREET.—John Tighe, of No. 103 Broome street, who was committed to prison, together with his wife Margaret, for a desperate assault with attempt to kill Mary Reynolds by nearly scalping her with a razor, was discharged on bail of $500, he being less guilty than his wife. The latter is in prison labouring under an attack of delirium tremens from which she may or may not recover. Mrs. Reynolds is in the Hospital and there is a probability of her recovery.

SUNDAY, May 1.

WRONGFULLY OBTAINED.—On the 26th of last month Mr. John De Forest, of No. 51 Beekman street, had a note drawn by Asa Gardiner, which having three months to run he stated the fact to a person named Stacy Hall, who offered to get it discounted for him. Mr. De Forest wishing it cashed sent his apprentice with Hall for that purpose, desiring him not to return without the cash on the note. After Hall and the lad had proceeded some distance, Hall obtained the note, and after walking him through the streets for nearly or quite 9 hours, refused to give up the note, and has since retained it although frequently asked to deliver it up. He was arrested on Saturday and committed to answer.

STEALING BEEF.—John James, a perfect specimen of a loafer, on Saturday night stole a large piece of beef from the store of Craston Schiaper, No. 89 Rosevelt street. He was arrested at the time, and to-day fully committed for trial.

DISHONEST WASHERWOMEN.—Officer Tappan this day arrested Jan Keenan and Catharine Storrs, two women in the employ of Messrs. Cable & Dooley as servants. Cable & Dooley contracted with a large number of steamboats to get their linen washed for them, to wit: the Atlantic steamships, the Hudson River Association and many others, but for some time past have made bad returns in consequence of many articles being missing. Suspicion at length fell on the two females, and on their being arrested numerous linen sheets, damask napkins, &c. &c. were found in their possession, some of which bore the marks of the 'Great West ern,' 'The South America,' the 'Rochester,' &c. &c., in all perhaps of the value of from 70 to $100 and which they to doubt had obtained by dripleis. Fully committed to answer.

SATURDAY, April 30.

CORONER'S OFFICE.—DEATH BY A FIT.—The Coroner held an inquest at the house of James Parker in Manpattanville, on the body of Cornelius Pool, a native of Long Island, aged about 54 years. The deceased, who was subject to fits, was attacked with one on Thursday morning from which he partially recovered, but, relapsing, soon after died. Verdict, died of epilepsy.

FOUND DROWNED.—The Coroner, on Saturday, held an inquest at the foot of Twentieth street, North River, on the body of Daniel C. Melty, a native of Maine, aged 35 years. On the 31st March the deceased, who was a plasterer by trade, and appeared to be labouring under some mental malady, left his boarding house in Twenty-first street late at night leaving his coat, vest, hat and boots behind him, and though he was advertised no trace of him could be obtained. His body was found on Saturday morning floating in the dock at the foot of Nineteenth street, North River.—Verdict, found dead at the foot of Nineteenth street, supposed to have been accidentally drowned. He left a wife and family at Kitary in the State of Maine.

SUNDAY, May 1.

A CHILD DROWNED IN A TUB OF WATER.—The Coroner to-day held an inquest in Fifteenth street near the First Avenue on a male infant, the child of James and Harriet Willock. The mother was cleaning house on Saturday morning and placed the infant on a bed in the back room while she attended to cleaning the front windows, it being fast sleep at the time. About an hour and a half afterward she was called into the room by a little girl and found the child drowned in a tub of water which was left standing near the bed, having rolled therefrom into it during her absence. Verdict, death by accidentally falling from the bed into a tub of water. The child was about 10 months old.

☞ Mr. Curtis has, through the exertion of high constables Pierson and Coulson, recovered all the money of which he was robbed at the Railroad Depot in Albany on the 23d. The amount, including various drafts, was about $9,000.
