CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY, May 26.

LAWYER'S DIARY FOR FRIDAY, MAY 27.—COMMON PLEAS.—Part First—Nos. 85, 101, 105, 107, 51, 119, 135, 137. Part Second, at 4 o'clock—Nos. 19, 106, 14, 126, 28.... SUPERIOR COURT.—Nos. 12, 65, 85. Notes of issue for the June term must be filed on or before Monday next. CIRCUIT COURT—Only one case on yesterday's calendar proceeded on.

CIVIL COURTS.—In the Circuit Court an action for false imprisonment was brought by Daniel Blakely against John Rice—the damages placed at a heavy amount. The plaintiff was Captain of a canal-boat and landed a quantity of flour belonging to defendant, during bad weather, by which it became injured, and Rice sued Blakely for $200 damages, issuing a capias and causing him to be arrested as he was leaving the city. He was detained in the Kitridge-street prison till next day. The Court thought the defendant authorised to issue the capias, but the case could be passed upon by the Supreme Court, to which the plaintiff stated it would be submitted. Verdict for plaintiff, $25.

In the same Court an action of replevin was brought by John L. Bigelow against Wm. C. Heaton. The plaintiff had brought flour in a canal-boat for defendant, the freight of which was $150, and was to be paid for on delivery. He delivered it, but defendant found it had been injured, and refused to pay until the damage had been repaired. The plaintiff then replevined 75 barrels. The Court held that a common carrier loses his lien upon goods after having delivered them, and his debt then becomes one of an ordinary character. Verdict for defendant, $473.

In the Court of Common Pleas an action for assault and battery was brought by Elisha Johnson, a seaman belonging to the bark Binney, against Capt. Paine, of that vessel, the damages laid at $1,000. Some difficulty occurred in relation to a porpoise which had been caught, part of it being given to the men for breakfast, but one of the crew clandestinely threw the rest overboard, at which the Captain was angry, and refused the men any thing but bread and beef for dinner, at which the crew assumed a menacing attitude, and the Captain, after much opposition, caused Johnson to be flogged. The Court thought that he acted correctly and recommended a verdict for defendant. The jury, however, found a verdict for plaintiff in little more than nominal damages, viz. $15.

POLICE OFFICE.—THEFT OF A GOLD LEVER WATCH, &c.—Officer Spencer arrested a female named Elvina Birck, a native of Canada, charged with having on the 21st inst. stolen a gold lever watch, with chain and key, worth $150, from the premises of William S. King, No. 9 Spring-street. She delivered the watch (or safe keeping to Mr. D. H. Haines, No. 169 Fulton-street, Brooklyn, who handed it to the officer, she stating to Mr. Haines that she had just taken it out of pledge. In her examination she said that when intoxicated she took it from a girl No. 19 Reade-street, and was committed to answer.

STEALING A MINIATURE.—A colored girl named Julia Fann was arrested by officer Relyea and committed for stealing a gold framed miniature, worth $25, from Miss Alice Huntington of No. 6 Courtlandt-street, which was found in her possession.

CORONER'S OFFICE.—The Coroner held an inquest on Wednesday night at No. 198 Varick-street, on the body of a boy named William Stepney, whose mother resides at the above place. The deceased was employed in the Engineer's department of the steamer Troy, and when the boat was at Troy on Monday he went into the wheel-house to oil the shaft without notifying the Engineer. The latter, as is usual, set the engine in motion preparatory to warping the boat, and the boy being caught between the buckets and a brace, was so badly crushed that he died an hour afterwards. He was brought to this city for burial, and an inquest held to entitle the body to interment. Verdict, accidentally killed, &c.

A small business doing in Foreign Exchanges. Sterling is 8¼; Francs, 5.35.

No material change in Inland Exchanges. Best New Orleans banks sell at 3 a 3½; others 4½ a 5. Virginia is in demand. We quote—

Treasury Notes are rather scarce and wanted at ¼ discount to par.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Co., held on the 25th inst., Charles Stebbins, Esq. of Madison County, and Joseph W. Alsop, Jr. and Ernest Fiedler of this city, were elected Directors of the Company to supply existing vacancies.

The Boston Atlas cautions the public against bills of the Citizens' Bank of Augusta, Me. altered to Citizens', Worcester; Phœnix, Providence; Phœnix, Westerly, &c. &c. The denominations are one, two, three and five dollars; and the plate bears the name of Terry, Pelton & Co. engravers.

At Philadelphia there was more animation in the stock market than has existed for some days, generally at a slight advance in prices. Exchange on this City par, Foreign Exchange rather droops. Upwards of a quarter of a million of dollars in specie was received at Philadelphia belonging to the Santa Fe Traders.

There appears to be little doubt felt at New Orleans of the successful result of the resumption movement. Under date of the 17th the Courier correspondent says that the run on the City Bank, so much more severe than on any other institution, was the result of the avowed hostility of the down town suspended institutions to Mr. Peters, its President, and his policy. The City Bank is very strong; her outstanding circulation is $450,000, against $770,000 in specie and $310,000 in New-York funds. She disposed of $60,000 sight checks on New-York yesterday, at 1 per cent. prem.

There were no transactions in private bills, nor was any other business transacted yesterday. Citizens' Bank notes are now at a discount of from 10 to 15 per cent. Consolidated and Louisiana State, 5 a 10. Mr. Lavergne, the President of the Consolidated Bank has resigned in consequence of the refusal of the Directors to co-operate in the resumption. The State Bank refuses to receive the notes of the Citizens' in deposite. Much indignation was expressed at the conduct of the non-resuming banks in getting individuals to draw specie from the paying banks on the bills held by the non-paying banks instead of making the usual settlement of balances, while on the bills of the non-paying banks held by the paying banks nothing could be obtained but shinplasters.

The committee of the stockholders of the Bank of Columbus, Ga., have made a statement in which it is asserted that, in the belief of the committee, the stock is worth 27 per cent. after providing for the payment of all the liabilities of the bank.

At Cincinnati Exchange on New-York had fallen to 4 per cent prem. Specie dull at 2 to 3 prem.

The Sangamon Journal expresses a belief that the State Bank of Illinois cannot resume in June with the other Western Banks and will, in consequence, forfeit her character. The Journals says:

"The Branches of the State Bank at Chicago, Jacksonville and Danville, have been discontinued and their specie deposited with the Mother Bank. This does not look much like preparing for resumption—but more like liquidation. Those who have its paper, had better pay their debts with it as soon as is convenient, and others, who have their hands full of it, and wish to purchase farms, cannot do better than buy lands of the bank."

In relation to the stocks of the State of Ohio, the Cincinnati Gazette says:

"We are glad to find that these stocks are gradually improving. If at the coming session of the Legislature, nothing is done to shake our credit, we feel satisfied that they will steadily move upwards, until they reach their par value.

"Various causes contributed to occasion the decline of these stocks last winter; but the chief one was, the fear felt, both at home and abroad, that the majority of the Legislature would cripple the resources of the State. They did much in this way; but fortunately not enough to endanger the ability of the State to pay what it owes.

"We may trace the effect of this cause by a reference to the rise and fall of State Stocks at New-York. So the table speaks:

	Aug. 1841.	March '42.	May '42.
Ohio Sixes	81a85	51a53	70a75

"The lowest point was in March and April last, and had it not been for the strenuous efforts of the Fund Commissioners, and Governor Corwin, backed as these efforts were by the united action of the Whig party, there is no telling how low the credit of our great State might have been sunk.
