☞ A Card.—Whereas I find that some scurrilous remarks have been made by a Mr. Washburn, who imposed upon me by passing off a child generally thought to be from ten to thirteen years of age for twenty-one! and having announced him as such, trusting to another's description of him, the receipts of this institution have been materially injured, as nothing which deceives the public will answer for this refined place of resort. Mr. Washburn has broken his first and second engagement with me, and after all the time he was paid from our treasury over forty dollars, I have long been known by those who seek amusements throughout the United States, and if I have not been able to pay my debts it has been for the want of means and not from a lack of honesty. I am not indebted to Mr. Washburn, and could have prosecuted him for a breach of engagement and for a libel, but I been disposed to punish him for his conduct toward me, and the institution under my control. I am the public's most obedient and very humble servant. G. H. HILL.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FRIDAY, June 3.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER.—The trial of Col. Edwards, on a charge of forgery, is set down for Monday. Heavy counsel is engaged on both sides. On behalf of the prisoner, Hon. T. Marshall, of Kentucky, Mr. Dallas of Philadelphia, Charles O'Conor, J. Prescott Hall, and others. For the prosecution, Hon. Ogden Hoffman, Jacob R. Whiting, and we believe one or two more. The trial will probably occupy three or four days.

CIVIL COURTS.—In the Circuit Court an action of replevin was brought by Henry F. Ketchum against Isaac Carpenter [represented by his agent, Mr. Thomas Carpenter] to test the legality of a landlord's warrant for over $8,100, which had been levied upon a lot of horses and carriages in Oct. last, at No. 125 Grand street—said property having been brought there three days before from 75 Allen street, which is a livery stable belonging to defendant, and which had been leased to Mr. C. Grifin for $1 000 a year. The plaintiff claims that he bought the stock from Griffin the previous June with the knowledge of Mr. Carpenter, and subsequently sold to a Mr. Sloan, who removed the property, which was appraised at $1,575. Verdict for plaintiff.

In the Court of Common Pleas an action for assault and battery, the damages laid at $2,000, was brought by William Williamson against Christopher A. Devenbocher, Jacob Devenbocher, and Peter Scawvan. The parties are Germans, and appear to be of good standing. The difficulty occurred in February last in the bar-room of the public house 147 Washington street, and originated in a dispute as to drinking mulled ale. The plaintiff was struck but not severely beaten. He appeared to be somewhat the aggressor and the jury found for defendant.

POLICE OFFICE.—BURGLARY.—Officer Duncker today arrested a man named Dennis McLaughlin, charged with having on Thursday night burglariously entered the dwelling of Mr. Joseph H. Ash, No. 110 Liberty-street, by forcing the window of the front basement and therein stealing 15 glasses, clock, &c., worth $10, the property of Catherine Conery, a servant in the family. He was committed in full to answer.

☞ Concert Committee.—A meeting of the friends and Committee of Arrangements of the beneficial Concert of Mr. M. WALL, the blind Irish Harper, will be held at the City Hotel on Monday evening next, 6th inst., at 8 o'clock.

☞ New Work by Bulwer. FOR ONE SHILLING.—AE EATON BROTHER JONATHAN will be published on MONDAY NEXT, June 6th, containing EVIRAL EVA;—A TRUE STORY OF LIGHT AND DARKNESS. THE ILL-OMENED MARRIAGE, &c. By Sir E. L. BULWER, Bart., Author of "Pelham," "Devereux," "Paul Clifford," "Eugene Aram, "Night and Morning," "Zanoni," &c.

The publishers of the Jonathan have purchased from the distinguished author, at a heavy expense, the proof sheets of this new Work in advance of its publication in London, and will issue it, as above announced, for the low price of 12½ cents. [London price, one guinea!] This low price, the publishers trust, will insure for it an immense circulation.

The usual discount made to booksellers, who must send in their orders and cash immediately.

Price 12½ cents. Post-Masters and others sending us $5, free of postage, will be entitled to 10 copies.

N. B.—The Post-Master General has decided that extras of this description, without stitching or covering, "cannot, consistently with any, even decision of the Department, be rated otherwise than at newspaper postage." The country edition of the Eatanswill named, will be printed and issued strictly in conformity with this decision—but the city edition will, as usual, be bound in a handsome yellow cover.
