THE TRIBUNE.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, June 9, 1842.

The Army Appropriation bill as it passed the House was taken up in the Senate this morning, and after a significant debate, was finally referred to the Committee on Finance. Mr. EVANS and Mr. PRESTON expressed their surprise at the novel character of the bill and protested against the extraordinary mode of legislation by which it was attempted to reorganize the Army of the United States by the operation of the provisions of an annual appropriation act. Although Mr. SEVIER and a portion of his colleagues entertained for a moment a motion to refer the bill to the Committee on Military Affairs, they soon yielded to the unanswerable argument of our friends. The House have used the knife too freely, and I trust they will be convinced of the fact before the Navy and Army bills shall have passed the Senate.

After making some progress in the bill providing for the revolutionary claim of the Representatives of Silas Deane, the Senate resumed the discussion of the second section of the Apportionment bill. Mr. LISS, in advocating his amendment to postpone the operation of the District system to the 29th Congress, inculpated the Whig party and distinctly ascribed the measure to party motives alone. He lost his usual self-possession and courtesy and railed at his opponents in a most unwarrantable and unbecoming manner: Mr. ARCHER, however, responded to him with so much urbanity and intelligence, that the Senator promptly qualified his hasty allegations, and seemed to regret he had subjected himself to the rebuke. By the way, Dr. LISS, if sometimes impulsive and erroneous, is full of the best charities of our nature; there is hardly a member of the Senate but cherishes the warmest personal regard for him. Mr. BAYARD, Mr. WOODBURY, Mr. WALKER, and Mr. WILLIAMS participated in the debate, and the question was at length taken on an amendment to the amendment submitted by Mr. BAYARD, restricting the operation of the section for the next Congressional election, to the States, which under existing laws elect by Districts, and carried by one majority. Three or four Whigs were absent when the vote was taken, so there is no reason to doubt that when the bill leaves the Committee the amendment will be lost.

The discussion yesterday on this subject was much more piquant and spicy; Mr. EVANS, Mr. TALLMADGE, Mr. WOODBURY, Mr. WRIGHT, and Mr. WALKER, principally figured on the occasion; and Mr. TALLMADGE was particularly effective. In the course of Mr. WRIGHT's remarks, without attempting to challenge the constitutionality of the proposition, he deplored it as a measure of hostility on the part of the General Government against the rights and independence of the several States and declared that if his colleague Mr. T had imbibed more of the principles of Clinton, Tompkins and Livingston, and less of those of Hamilton, he at this day, would not have been found among the supporters of the measure now under consideration. Mr. Tallmadge was peculiarly happy in defending his principles, as well as the Republican tendency of the measure, and to the conviction of most of his hearers refuted the position of his adversary. But he did not stop here. He deemed it a duty he owed the Senate and his native State, to humble the Republican pretensions of his colleague: He invited him to turn his eye to the earlier scenes of their political history and review their respective acts in the Legislature of N. York in 1834, and if he could he bid him triumph in the contemplation. A bill was at that time introduced changing the Electoral Law of the State, and committing the choice of Presidential Electors directly to the People. Nothwithstanding the implied pledge said to have been given by the Senator in favor of the law, and his reputed approval of it in conversation with the members of the State Senate pending its discussion, Mr. SILAS WRIGHT defeated the bill by his single vote in defiance of a large majority of the People of the State. The Legislature were supposed to be under the control of Mr. Van Buren at this period, and the choice of Electors devolved upon them at that session. The Electoral vote had been pledged to Mr. Crawford and Mr. Van Buren was afraid to trust the People. This was an exemplification of Mr. Senator Wright's Republicanism! While on the other hand, Mr. T. confessed that his Democracy flowed in one broad stream for the common good, and taught him to repose unlimited confidence in the People; He voted for the law.

I think I never saw Mr. Wright so much agitated and off his guard. He acknowledged his youthful error, as he called it, but pronounced the charge against his integrity, by the journals of that day, false and malicious. He never had given a pledge or approved the law. Yours, &c. CURTIUS

Pumps! Pumps! Pumps!

H. WARREN, Manufacturer of Miner's Patent Pumps for Wells and Cisterns.

The advantages peculiar to these Pumps are Cheapness, Durability, Ease of Operation and Security against Frost. They are also light and portable, and easily set up or removed.

The immense number of them in use, and the universal celebrity which they have obtained where they are best known, are now deemed sufficient reference.

☞ As a caution in regard to similar kinds of Pumps in circulation which have not my label upon them, the pipe and wooden parts of which being made of white-wood and some of them of cucumber-wood, I deem it proper to say that all the wooden pipe of my manufacture is selected from the best of white pine heart stuff, free from sap, and being boiled and well saturated in a resinous composition, is warranted in every respect a superior article.

CROTON WATER.—Ewbank's Leaden Pipes, lined with Tin.—In consequence of the deleterious effects of drinking water, as well as ale, cider, and other fluids, out of lead, the adoption of these pipes for carrying the Croton water through the dwellings of the citizens, has been strongly recommended by the professors of Chemistry in the University, Columbia College, College of Physicians and Surgeons, &c.; by the Mayor of the City; the State Commissioners and Engineers of the Aqueduct; the Superintendent of the Fire Department and Commissioner for furnishing water to the houses; by Professor Silliman, Dr. Chilton, and other eminent medical and scientific gentlemen. Those who are having pipes, pumps, baths, &c., fitted up in anticipation of receiving the Croton water—to the friends of the temperance cause, and the citizens at large, these pipes are particularly commended, as well for their superior strength and durability, as for their quality of transmitting the first necessary of life free from the most insidious of poisonous solutions. The tinned pipes will be fitted up at prices varying but slightly from those charged by plumbers for common ones. Like every improvement in the arts, they have had to contend, both here and in Europe, with the bitter hostility of those who imagine their interests affected by them. All who desire information respecting them are invited to send for circulars, and give their orders to THOS. EWBANK.

Messrs. Greeley & McElrath:

GENTLEMEN—I observed with pain, in your paper of the 9th inst. a departure from your usual good taste and sense of justice, in certain personal animadversions upon the supposed illiberality of Mr. W. B. Astor in not subscribing for the relief of the destitute citizens of Hamburg. Is this right? Have you or I any business to say whether Mr. Astor shall contribute any, or what sum to any particular charity? Is it necessary that every man shall give publicity to his benefactions, to save himself from personal attacks for his want of charity? Mr Astor may have contributed or he may not. In either case he is the sole, absolute judge of his own affairs. He may be churlish and penurious—but is this system of meddling with his practice the way to cure him, and is it calculated to enforce the Scriptural rule of not letting the left hand know what the right hand doeth? I have the slightest—a mere speaking acquaintance with Mr. Astor, and have no possible motive in defending him against such attacks, other than a desire to render to all that which is just and equal, and to practice that charity which "Doth not behave itself unseemly," and which "Hopeth all things" and "thinketh no evil." R.

For The Tribune.

Mr. Editor:—I beg leave to inquire whether there is no alternative but to endure the noise and disturbance of domestic quietude from Sabbath to Sabbath in the neighborhood of the Third Avenue, from 18th to 22d streets, or to pull up, as the saying is, and remove to some other section of the City, where some little respect is paid, at least, to the statute and City ordinance with regard to a proper observance of the Sabbath. Yesterday, (Sabbath) 5th inst., we were annoyed with ball playing, dog fighting, shooting, hallooing, and every variety of lowerism that is disgusting to order and decency.

Have our functionaries in this Ward no authority, or are they mere party pets, laying pipe for future promotion, and holding office simply for the honors and emoluments of them. I do not make these inquiries, and desire not to have them come before the public, out of any ill feeling toward our officers, because I do not know an officer in this Ward; but I saw in your paper some two or three weeks since a communication on the same subject, and did believe it would produce a salutary influence, but it is absolutely on the increase.

Please insert the above and oblige a subscriber, and not only one but all persons of order in the community. H.

HAVING presented to the Public the claims of my first premium Cologne for so long, I now take the liberty of laying before them another article of equal worth, viz: "The Virginia Shaving Cream." This vegetable composition I can safely say is unequaled by any now offered to the American public for the pleasure it affords in shaving. It is not only fragrant, producing a rich and lasting lather, but possesses qualities of so highly soothing and healing a nature, as to raise it far above any rival article. All those who have tried my Cologne have found it to be all that I said, so they who use this Cream will acknowledge that the half of its virtues have not here been told.

Whereas, I, Henry C. Otto, of the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, did obtain letters patent of the United States for a certain invention called China Gloss, which letters patent bear date 28th day of February, 1842.

HENRY C. OTTO.

This is to certify that Ackerman & Miller are the original purchasers of the patent right for the China Gloss in the city of New-York. HENRY C. OTTO.

The subscribers having purchased from H. C. Otto of Philadelphia, the right to use his patent China Gloss in this city, and had sufficient experience to satisfy them of its durability would recommend it to the public, and request them to call at the following places, where it has given general satisfaction: Samuel Jowett's, No. 296 Broadway; Lapham & Stoddleone, "Cornucopia," 22 Park Row; G. W. Kimball, 14 Vesey street; Genin & Van Voorhis, 512 Broadway.

The following certificates were furnished at the time of purchasing:—

I take pleasure in giving testimony in favor of Henry C. Otto's patent China Gloss with which my parlors have been painted. Three years having elapsed since they were painted, they are still beautiful and admired by all who have seen them. I cheerfully recommend this mode of painting to all who wish their house handsomely painted, as it is more durable as well as beautiful.

Phila. SARAH EMLIN CRESSON, 251 Arch st.

NOTICE to RUPTURED PERSONS.—Dr. A. G. HULL, No 4 Vesey street, Astor House New York.—Persons afflicted with Ruptures may rely upon the best instrumental aid the world affords, on application at his office, 4 Vesey street, New York, or either of his numerous agents in the chief towns of the United States. Parents must be careful to examine the back part of Dr. Hull's Trusses, to see if they are endorsed by Dr. Hull in writing. None other are genuine or to be relied on as good. Dr. Hull guarantees cures to all otherwise healthy patients who call at his office for treatment. If the cure be not radical and permanent, so as to preclude the necessity of wearing any truss whatever, the money advanced is returned on the expiration of the term specified for the cure, whatever progress the rupture may have made toward exclusion.

Children under twelve years universally cured without further expense than the cost of the Truss. The radical cure has been under progressive practical improvement for more than twenty years past, in Dr. Hull's Truss Office, and is now brought to a state of unrivaled perfection.

Many treacherous agents have undertaken to vend imitations of Dr. Hull's celebrated Hinge and Pivot Truss for the easy and safe retention of Ruptures. These imitations cannot be relied on—they are made by unskillful surgeons and mechanics, and are no better than the ordinary Trusses of the market. The genuine have my full name in writing. AMOS G. HULL & CO.

Dr. Hull has at the request of several respectable physicians, fitted up a room exclusively for Ladies, having separate entrance from the business department, wherein a lady is in constant attendance, to apply Trusses and Supporters to female patients.

THE TRUSSES AND SUPPORTERS of Dr. Hull's invention continue to receive my decided preference. For twenty years past I have employed the Trusses of Dr. Hull with success. The Supporter was invented in 1831 by the Dr., with my advice and approbation; and I am happy to say that it is extensively adopted in Europe as well as in this country.

DR. PHINNEY'S FAMILY PILLS. These Pills have justly acquired the highest reputation in curing Bilious and Dyspeptic complaints, as the following certificate, from one of the most respectable citizens of Albany, will show:

From Benjamin Knower, Esq.

Having suffered for some time with indigestion and flatulence, I was advised to try Dr. S. Phinney's Anti Dyspeptic or Bilious Pills, and after using them for some time, am prepared to say that they are the mildest and yet the most efficacious in their operation of any article of the kind I have ever used; and what I esteem of great importance, they occasion no sickness at the stomach, producing full, free and satisfactory discharges, and leaving the bowels in a natural condition. And I the more cheerfully recommend their use to all who are of bilious habits, or need an excellent family medicine, in consideration of the high standing of the proprietor in the community as a medical man.

DR. ALLEN'S BALSAM of Horehound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, has gained a reputation in the cure of Consumption and Liver complaint, never acquired by any other medicine. This medicine is not intended like the common humbugs of the day, to cure every disease, but is only for the cure of diseases of the lungs and liver, and for these complaints it has no equal on earth. Raising blood, a cough, and loss of strength are certain symptoms of consumption. Dr. S. D. Allen's Balsam of Horehound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, is a never failing remedy, and if the sick and distressed resort to it, they are certain of being restored to health. It contains no opium or deadly poison to lull and stupify the senses, but it removes the disease, heals the lungs, gives health and strength. Let the sick use it.

OPINION OF THE FACULTY—Disease of the Lungs—Dr. Allen—Dear sir: I have prescribed your Balsam of Horehound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, in severe coughs and consumption, and it has proved effectual after other remedies had failed. I am glad to find so valuable a medicine without any deleterious or narcotic ingredients. I entertain a high opinion of your Balsam, and shall continue to recommend it to my patients. Yours, &c. C.
