CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THURSDAY, July 28.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Betts.

IMPORTANT DECISIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.—John W. Hall and Alvin H. Smith.—This was an application for compulsory bankruptcy. Objections were raised to the right of creditors in declaring them such. The petition states that Hall & Smith were merchants and copartners. In the four months from August to November last, they purchased from petitioners, and others, goods to the amount of $10,000, principally with a view of selling such again in New-York, instead of which it has been ascertained that they shipped them off with a view of defrauding their creditors. In the early part of December they failed, not having paid any part of said $10,000, and decamped themselves insolvent. Hall absconded from the city and is still away, and Smith sold the remnant of property that had been left. The Court, after giving its views in relation to voluntary bankruptcy, concluded as follows: "Considering these debtors as continuing insolvent, and partners, up to the time the petition was filed, I shall deny their claim more positively, without a doubt if I entertained one, which will be sufficient to ensure the proceedings, but that may be able to be declared bankrupts upon their application, and discharged from their participating against their creditors, of the bankrupt act, as set forth in the petition. The petition may, therefore, be granted against the bankrupts."

JOHN BAILEY.—Objections have been made to petitioner on the ground of fraud in contracting at various times large sums of money during the course of his business, and not paying his creditors. A composition had been allowed, and his affairs gone into for the last twenty years. He went to Goshen in 1828, and commenced business on a capital of $400, and is running about $200 worth of household furniture. He has since that kept a store, a tavern, been keeper of the county jail, a butcher, clerk, &c. Every thing was subsequently swept from him, and he removed to Middletown. His son-in-law bought a some of his property, and it is contended that the sale was not bona fide. Sums of money have also been in his possession, &c. The Court held that a man being seen with a thousand dollars in January, could not, as a matter of consequence, be declared to have been possessed of it in March. Although carelessness in keeping his books was evinced, his insolvency can readily be accounted for by his ungainful adventures, land speculations, &c. It was shown he had never possessed any claim to the real estate since his son-in-law bought it, nor had he for a year previous to his petition, to the personal. Objections disallowed, and petition permitted to proceed to decree.

RAGGS KING.—This case had been referred to a commissioner, objections having been raised by Platt Rogers. Exception was taken by the petitioner on the ground that the creditor had not proved his debt. This was sustained by the commissioner, and the question referred to this Court. One of the charges is for making a false assignment—also that he has not made out a full list of his creditors. The Court, during its remarks, in alluding to a petitioner in bankruptcy, held the following emphatic language: "After he has come in, and given up all his effects, a new relationship commences between him and his creditor—one in which the ulterior hazards are all his, and the advantages, if any can exist, fall to the side of his creditors. The decree can never be revoked, and his property cannot be restored—that is now allotted absolutely to his creditors; and he will, further, be deprived of the benefit of a discharge, (the expectation of which was his inducement for seeking a decree of bankruptcy,) under certain circumstances pointed out by the act." The Court decided as follows: My opinion is that the creditor cannot rightfully file objections, and make opposition to the discharge of the bankrupt, for want of having properly proved his debt.

CHARLES OAKLEY.—New schedule allowed, on payment of costs for opening decision of bankruptcy.

SAMUEL L. DANFIELD.—Order of leave to amend, on payment of costs of first opposition, &c.

DAVID H. ROBERTSON.—Objection is made to the petitioner having a decree of bankruptcy on the ground of fraud. It is asserted that while deeply in debt he purchased a house on the 2d Avenue, paid $6,000 down, and immediately made it over to his mother. He also contested a judgement for $10,000 to his mother, and under it caused his household furniture, three horses, his carriage, and other personal property to be sold, all of which was bid in by his mother; at the same time it was known that the mother had no property, but was dependant upon her son, and the family have continued in the house. The Court, after remark, held that the transaction having been in 1839, could not be considered in anticipation of bankruptcy. The property having passed from him, he could not safely take an oath that it belonged to him. This, however, does not affect his creditors. If the judgement was without legal or just consideration it is mere waste paper as against his creditors or against his assignee in bankruptcy. Objections to a discharge disallowed, but they may be used as a bar to final discharge.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—Before Judge Betts.—Benjamin Denver, charged with robbing a letter placed in the office at Greene county, where he was postmaster, was arraigned. He plead not guilty, and his trial was set down for Tuesday next.

POLICE OFFICE.—THEFT OF GOLD AND SILVER.—A seaman named David Lewis, belonging to the ship John Minturn, was arrested by officers Colvin and Sweet, charged with having stolen 15 doubloons and $245 in silver from Paul Paterson, a passenger on board said ship on her passage hither from New-Orleans. The complainant gave his money to Mr. Lander, the mate, on the 6th inst., to keep for him, and the day before the vessel arrived hither it was discovered to be stolen. Search was made in vain, and on Wednesday Paterson sued out a search warrant and the officers found $50 of the silver in a bag in a paint pot, and $24 more in a mattrass in the forecastle, where Lewis, on being arrested, confessed he had placed it. He denied, however, having taken any gold or the other silver, and said he stole the dish, broke it open, and threw it over-board. He was committed to answer.

SENT TO BE RECLAIMED.—A young girl of 14 named Mary Harrison was arrested on Wednesday night, about 12 o'clock, on the Battery, by Capt. Scott, of the Watch, where she was, with two young men, indulging in indecent and lascivious conduct and color. She was sent to the House of Refuge to be reclaimed if possible.

ARREST OF A CONVICT.—James Jones, a convict on Blackwell's Island, who escaped with others some time since, was arrested to-day by officer J. L. Smith and Mr. Ruckel, former Deputy Keeper, and sent back to serve out his term of sentence.

ARREST OF A LATE CAPTAIN OF THE WATCH.—William O. Webb, late Captain of the 5th District Watch, was arrested on the 23d inst. and held to bail in $800, at the Upper Police Office on a charge of misdemeanor in discharging from his watch-house a prisoner charged with burglary, on the 19th June last.

A LATE JUSTICE IN PRISON.—The Supreme Court having denied the application for a new trial of William Wiley, late Ward Justice, convicted of receiving stolen money of the Bank of Frederick, the most of which he paid over to them, it ordered the case back to the Oyer and Terminer for sentence, the term of Mr. Wiley surrendered himself to-day, and he was committed to await his sentence.

CORONER'S OFFICE.—HEMORRHAGE OF THE LUNGS.—The Coroner held an inquest at his office to-day on the body of Hannah Jones, colored woman, of No. 72 Orange-street, a native of Long Island, who had been ill with a cough and copious expectoration for some time and having been attacked with discharge of blood from the lungs on Wednesday night, 9 o'clock, died 2 hours afterwards. Verdict died of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Commercial and Money Matters.

THURSDAY P. M.

There was a larger amount of business at the Stock Board to-day than for some time past. Prices generally were firm. Upward of 500 Long Island sold at 40¾. Harlem improved 1 per cent. There appears to be a prevailing impression that the "shorts" in this stock will be caught in a bad way. For Delaware and Hudson 85 was offered, 88 asked; Mohawk 35½ offered, 39 asked.

There was also more done in State Stocks, and at firmer prices. State Sixes improved ½; Kentucky Bonds ½; Indiana ½; Kentucky Fives sold at 61. For State Sevens, 1845, 100½ offered, 101½ asked; Sixes, 1845, 92½ offered; 1860, 90 offered, 95 asked; 1862, 91½ offered; Fives, 1845, 91 off; 1851, 80 off; 1856, 80½ off, 81 asked; Ohio Sixes, 1850, 75½ offered, 77 asked; 1860, 75 off, 75½ asked; Kentucky 70½ off; Fives 61 off; Alabama 50 off; Arkansas 50 off; City Sevens 1852, 100 off; Water Loan, 1858, 73 off, 80 asked.

There was a fair amount of transactions in Sterling and Francs to-day at 5 a 6¼ and 5 a 42½. Both descriptions have slightly improved. The Banks are still in the market for Exchange for the purpose of importing Specie.

There is no improvement in Inland Exchanges. Alabama remains as before, 45 disc. There is little or nothing doing.

A letter from Amsterdam, of 28th June, published in Le Commerce of the 7th inst. says:

"Great sensation has been excited on Change to-day by a notice given by the house of Hope & Co., which announces that the coupons of the American stock which become due on the 1st of July will not be paid, because the house has received nothing to make this payment. On this point there is not much to say, because it was foreseen that the funds for payment of the coupons would not arrive. But what is openly blamed, and will probably be the foundation of an action against Hope & Co is, that their bankers having been furnished by the Bank of the United States with a quantity of effects (valeurs) as security for the tenders, have thought themselves authorised to part with a portion of these securities in exchange for others. As chance would have it, though the nominal value has remained the same, it turns out that Messrs. Hope & Co. have parted with the most valuable, in exchange for such as have hardly any value at all. We need not say that the holders are furious."

The Tolls on the Canals of this State received to the 23d inst. amount to $711,334

Same time 1841 847,392

Difference in favor of 1841 ..... $136,058

The Newark City Council having passed a Resolution that the Morris Canal Co. be required to repair the bridges over the Canal, or upon failure the Street Commissioners be authorized to fill up of those points, a correspondent of the Newark Advertiser enters his protest and says that there are no funds with which to make these repairs; that the property is in the hands of Receivers for the purpose of liquidation, and that the Canal which the Council thus propose to destroy is the only property left to pay the creditors of the concern, whose claims amount to $9,000,000, in the following order of title:

Due to the Dutch	$850,000
State of Indiana about	2,000,000
State of Michigan about	500,000
British bond-holders about	1,200,000
Stock-holders	4,400,000
Total	$7,950,000

besides numerous domestic creditors. The correspondent calculates that the Newarkers would by such a course not only commit a gross imposition upon the creditors, but also bite off their own noses.

The gross receipts on the Eastern Railroad from 1st Jan. to 30th June were $116,498

Same time 1841 116,947

The road from Boston to the Portsmouth depot has cost $2,734,600.

The precise operation of banking in Cincinnati from April to June is thus stated:

Means reduced.		Means paid out.
Discounts	$161,051	For Depos. reduced	$34,648
Bank Notes	14,834	Bk. Balances paid	18,130
Bank Credits	861	Circulation increased	28,267
Total Reduction	$199,327	Total	$79,205

It will be seen that in the last two months, there has been a continual reduction of the business of the Cincinnati Banks, and in fact, it now is merely nominal. The $28,367 increased circulation is the difference between the increased circulation of the Life and Trust Company, and the diminished circulation of the other Banks. None of the Life and Trust notes are seen in circulation there.

The amount of circulation in the aggregate is 327,993

Deposits	943,600
Specie	233,900
Bank Notes	592,494
Discount	3,024,249

The largest circulation in the State is the Bank of Wooster, $290,278, the largest amount of specie, the Bank of Norwich, $131,366.

Exchanges at Mobile have been getting worse daily.—Sight checks on New York, and specie, have gradually advanced from 45 per cent (the rates last quoted) to 50 a 60 per cent premium. Checks on New York five days sight have been sold at 56, and sight checks for small amounts have commanded as high as 60 per cent prem. There are but few drawers, and transactions are very limited. The demand for specie for the New Orleans trade has not diminished. It has been sold as high as 62, though the current rate is 60. Sight checks on New York 55 a 58 per cent prem; and specie 58 a 62, and scarce.

Under the head of "Astounding Developements" the Augusta Chronicle says that a rumor is current that a system of fraud on the part of some of the Darien financiers, in connection with the Bank of Darien, will be soon disclosed which will far exceed in extent and enormity any thing of the kind that has transpired in Georgia.

The Bank of Orleans at New Orleans, has gone into active liquidation under W. C. C. Claiborne, M. Caruthers and J. B. Hullen. Rumors were afloat than an affair of honor was about to come off between two bank Presidents.
