HAVE JUST PUBLISHED
THE
WIVES OF ENGLAND.
Their Relative Duties, Domestic Influences, and Social Obligations.
BY MRS. ELLIS.

☞ A Cheap Book Edition, in 12 mo., printed in large type and neatly bound—PRICE ONE SHILLING.
☞ Likewise an Edition bound in boards with cloth backs—PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

☞ Also, an Edition on fine white paper, bound in cloth, gilt, to match D. A. & Co.'s Edition of "The Daughters of England," "Women of England," &c., by the same author. PRICE FIFTY CENTS.

"The plan of the work before us is excellent. Glancing at thoughts before marriage, it enters upon the subject by the 'first year of married life,' proceeds to the characteristics of men,' 'the behavior rational and fit to husbands,' deepens into those beautiful subjects 'the love and the trials of married life,' and forgets not at its close to touch on what may be considered minor matters, but which are weighty in their consequence—such as order, justice, domestic management, and attention to servants. In the chapter on the behavior of Husbands, there is a truism very sweetly told—'What is it,' says Mrs. Ellis, 'that man seeks in the companionship of woman? An influence like the gentle dew and the cheering light, more felt throughout the whole of his existence, in its softening, healing, harmonizing power, than acknowledged by any single act or recognized by any certain rule. It is in fact a being to come home to, in the happiest sense of that expression.'

"God shield thee, fair writer—on and prosper. Sir E. Bulwer drew a mighty, and mental scheme; but one page of thine outweighs his aggregate of works. The Wives of England will be read when the Devereuxs, Pelhams, and Paul Clifford's idle and mischievous heroes are forgotten, and no little happiness reflected on thy own warm heart, even in this world, for an impulse given to virtue, and an offering to truth."

Liverpool Standard, March 18th, 1843.

The present edition contains the last corrections of the author, with the preface as published in London. Any other American edition does not. a24 2tis ☞ Sacred Concert.—A Concert of Sacred Music will be given at the First Baptist (Dr. Cone's) Church, corner of Broome and Elizabeth-street, on Wednesday evening, April 26, 1843, to commence at half past 7 o'clock. The music will be of the highest order, being selected principally from Handel's Messiah, and the choruses will be sustained by a large Choir and Orchestra accustomed to performing the Oratorios, who have kindly volunteered their assistance on the occasion.

The aid of the most eminent musical talent in the city has been secured, viz: Mrs. Strong, Miss Pearson, Mrs. Clarke, Mr. Comes, Mr. Oakley and Mr. Rogers, with an efficient band led by Mr. U. C. Hill. Pianist, Mr. D. R. Harrison.

The whole under the direction of Mr. A. B. Clarke.

Tickets 50 cents—to be had at Saxton & Miles', Broadway; Firth & Hall, Franklin Square; H. & S. Raynor, Bowery, 122 Nassau-street, and at the door on the evening of the performance. a21 3tis*

☞ Bristol's Sarsaparilla vs. Sands's Sarsaparilla.—The public have been referred for some months past to one George Dulay, 111 Willett, who is said to be cured by Sands's Sarsaparilla, as published in our city and country papers. The case as portrayed in the papers would, if true, be one of the tallest kind, but there is certainly some mystery as to the fact. George Dulay, late of 111 Willett st., has been dead three or four months; and it is said by some that the man never was cured, unless it be that he died cured; if the latter be the fact Sands's article beats all others and far exceeds even Bristol's hitherto unrivalled extract, for Bristol's only cures persons while living, and none of his patients die cured, but are compelled to remain on earth for a time and suffer the perplexities of life that man is born to. We would like to know whether it is the peculiar efficacy of Sands's wonderful newly-found out preparation, that makes so many die cured, or whether it is the effect of some fatality attending those who take the article. Can any one tell us how it is, and why a dead man is thus referred to as one enjoying good health, &c. Now with regard to Bristol's Sarsaparilla, those who have been cured by it can be found with ease, for they yet live and move amidst the cares of life. We prefer Bristol's, as it is no humbug or catch-penny. Those who wish the genuine Sarsaparilla must see that the written signature of C. C. Bristol is written across the cork of the bottle. None other is genuine. Sold wholesale and retail by Wm. Burger, 50 and 52 Courtland st. and 128 Greenwich st. and at the various places named in advertisement in another column of this paper. See advertisement. 1t

☞ Nervous Diseases.—It should be remembered here, when the blood is encumbered with impurity, its apparent volume or quantity is increased, and hence a distension or swelling of the blood vessels, a pressure on the nerves, and hypochondria and lowness of spirits, anxiety, unwillingness to take exercise, and all the train of miserable feelings generally denominated NERVOUS DISEASE, and which have heretofore been considered incurable. If persons thus afflicted however, will resort to a medicine which has the power of cleansing the stomach and bowels from all bilious humors, and purifying the blood, they will soon find their nerves as strong as those of their neighbors, and that all disorders, both of body and mind, have been banished from the body. Reader, such a medicine is WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, of the North American College of Health. They not only cleanse the blood and other fluids from all impurity, but they impart a strength and vigor to the constitution which gives new life to the whole frame. The only care requisite is to be sure and get the genuine; and this can only be done by purchasing at the Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of the medicine, wholesale and retail, No. 263 Greenwich street, New-York; No. 193 Tremont street, Boston; and 169 Race street, Philadelphia. 1t*

ANOTHER PROOF OF THE VIRTUES OF BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.

NEW YORK, April 21st, 1843.

Mr. C. C. BRISTOL:

Sir—I take the liberty of addressing you on a subject that affords me great pleasure, inasmuch as it gives me an opportunity to express to you in terms which I consider an act of justice only to yourself and the valuable compound known only as Bristol's Sarsaparilla. I have always held Sarsaparilla in high estimation, but never before this year have I beheld its powerful effects on the human system. I had occasion to use your highly esteemed preparation of Sarsaparilla, more particularly on one of my family, a little daughter, who was most dreadfully afflicted on her head and face with scrofula or cutaneous eruption, so as nearly to cover her whole head and face in one mass of running and eating sore; her general health became greatly impaired by it; but to no purpose were the various means made use of—all alike seemed to be powerless in her case, till at length an acquaintance recommended as the only sure thing to remove the disease, Bristol's Sarsaparilla. I therefore, without wasting words, will briefly say I have used your Sarsaparilla, and it has proved to be fully able to stay, on my daughter, the destroyer, and thoroughly eradicate from her system the cause and effect of her distressing affliction, and there is not now to be found any possible trace of the disease on her. Her health also is now as good in every way as could be desired. I can therefore safely and cheerfully recommend Bristol's Sarsaparilla as a safe and effectual remedy for diseases like the one my daughter was afflicted with. Another branch of my family has used your Sarsaparilla with great benefit; and I fully believe it to be the best family medicine now offered to the public. If you desire to publish this you are welcome to do so for the benefit of others, and we shall be pleased at any time through the day to satisfy those who may desire to see my now healthy child. Should you visit this city, call and see for yourself—we would be pleased to see you. I am, sir, your well wisher,

JAMES FIELD,
HANNAH FIELD,
269 Stanton street, New-York.

To C. C. BRISTOL, Buffalo.

☞ I do not wish any one to purchase the medicine until they fully satisfy themselves that all that is said of it is true; if therefore, they will take the trouble to call on Mr. Burger, 50 Courtlandt-st., or at Millhan's, 183 Broadway, they can examine substantiated testimony in addition to the above, which will prove conclusively that the article is what it purports to be. C. C. BRISTOL.

CAUTION.—As the fame of this wonderful medicine extends, numerous preparations are springing up to reap a part of its reputation. The afflicted therefore should be careful if they wish the true article, to ask for Bristol's, and see that the written signature of C. C. Bristol is across the cork of the bottle.

INTERESTING TO FEMALES.

NEW-YORK, Feb. 25th, 1842.

Dear Sir—I suppose it may seem like exaggeration to those persons who may have perused the many certificates of those cured by the Carminantia, to state my condition as being in any way worse than their's; but nothwithstanding I consider my state was as bad as it could very well be.

I will describe my situation as it was. The first attack of sickness was caused by taking cold about five years ago, which caused frequent and violent attacks of illness which baffled the skill of my physicians. I was again taken ill in August of 1841; my complaint then took a more decidedly alarming turn. The symptoms were as follows; violent cough, raised considerable blood and matter, night sweats, chills and fever, pain in the pit of my stomach shooting through my shoulder blades and back, causing a deathlike feeling, frequent turns of fainting, great distress in my head, sore mouth and throat, poor appetitate, feet and legs commenced swelling, would often raise something which had the appearance of liver, at one time in attempting to raise a very large piece came near choking me to death; I had been afflicted with the liver complaint for some years, my strength rapidly decreased, until I was unable at times to raise myself up in my bed, or support myself in any way, being chilled to be propped up in bed to enable me to get my breath; my physicians gave me up, about this time my husband became acquainted with the invaluable properties of the Carminantia. Being personally acquainted with Mr. F. W. Williams, he was knowing to his illness, as they both belong to the Meridian Lodge. He also knew of his recovery by the use of the above named medicine. He called on the Doctor and requested him to call and see mee, which he did; he said he thought the medicine could be prepared to suit my case; thus encouraged I commenced taking it. When I had taken about half a bottle, my appetite improved, could breathe easier, sore mouth and throat became better; when I had taken 10 bottles my healthy was re-established. I hardly dared think I would not have a return of some of the above alarming symptoms. Notwithstanding I felt well; my case was so bad, that the transition from a hopeless state to health seemed too good to last. I have withheld my certificate until the present time, being fully convinced of a radical cure. I believe the Carminantia by the blessing of the Lord has been sanctified to me in curing me of an affliction of the lungs and liver; there are many feelings which you cannot indite which I was subject to; those calling on me shall be made acquainted with every particular appertaining to my case as it was; but how different now; it seems like a miracle. This, Doctor I give to you with my full consent to publish it if you think proper. It may be the means of saving the life of some person, as I think it did mine. Yours, with respect,

Mrs. PHEBE HESKETH,
176 Barrow-st., New-York.
