THE TRIBUNE.

From our Second Edition of yesterday.

☞ BROOKLYN, our sister City, is now blessed with two Common Councils, each of which is appointing officers and exercising all authority. The Whig Council consists of ten Aldermen elected this Spring by the People; the Loco of eight Aldermen, the Mayor, and one modest chap who claims to hold over from last year, in place of a Whig, elected this year! This is made out by claiming two votes for 'Chadbourne' and one for 'Shaborn' as intended for Isaac Chadbourne, one of the Loco-Foco candidates in the Seventh Ward, and thus tying him with the Whig candidate! This is a pleasant world, and there is a very unassuming party in it, that might easily be named.—Of course, the Supreme Court must settle the matter at last; and the Whigs have proposed and urged such a settlement at first, but their opponents were a great deal too cunning to agree to it. They will hold on as long as possible, as they can only lose at last, which they would be sure to do at once if they made up a case for the Supreme Court.

TYLERISM ON THE FRONTIER.—The deplorable Accident has removed LEONARD DENISON from the office of Collector of Customs at Sackets Harbor, Jefferson Co. and appointed John O. Dickey (Loco) in his stead. Also, JUDAH AINSWORTH from the post of Collector at Cape Vincent, do. and appointed Peleg Burchard (Loco) of Watertown instead. Mr. KELLOGG, Light-House Keeper on Horse Island, has been displaced to make room for L. K. Root, Loco.—The only objection to the proscribed officers is that they are not traitors to the party which confided in them.

FLORIDA ELECTION.—An election for Territorial Delegate in Congress was held on the 2d inst. in Florida. We have returns from ten precincts in East Florida, including Jacksonville and St. Augustine. David Levy, the late (Loco) Delegate, leads Major George T. Ward, Whig, 213 votes. We do not consider this by any means conclusive.

THE BANKRUPT LAW SUSTAINED.—The decision of Judge Wells, District Judge for Missouri, that the late National Bankrupt Law was unconstitutional, has been reversed by Justice Cotren of the Supreme Court, at his late Circuit held at St. Louis. The Constitutionality of the Bankrupt Law is therefore every where established.

☞ Coleman and Auble, the persons arrested in Warren County, N. J., on suspicion of having committed the wholesale murder of Castner and others, have been discharged, after an examination. Auble proved an alibi, and nothing appeared to implicate Coleman.

☞ WM. P. THOMASSON of Jefferson Co. is the Whig candidate for Congress in the Louisville District, Ky.

BANK DEFALCATIONS AT ST. JOHN, N. B.—It appears, by the St. John New-Brunswicker of the 2d instant, that the Teller of the Bank of British North America, in that city, has recently been discovered to be a defaulter to the amount of about £600; the Teller of the Bank of New-Brunswick, to the amount of £1,217 17s. 6d.; and the Cashier of the Commercial Bank, to the quite respectable amount of £4,325. This latter man was not embezzled, but was, it seems, lent, from time to time, by the Cashier to his brother, the Chamberlain of the City. The delinquents have all received their 'walking tickets,' and their 'deficiencies' have been made good by their sureties.

BLOCKADE OF BUFFALO RAISED!—The Buffalo Economist of Monday morning says:

NAVIGATION OPEN.—Last night our citizens were gladdened once more, after an interregnum of about six months, with the sight of a steamboat entering our harbor. The New-England came in about 9 o'clock, and was shortly after followed by the Fairport, Capt. Edwards. As the boats rounded the pier, they were severally greeted by a hearty cheer from the large multitude on the wharves, assembled to greet the arrival.

ACCIDENT.—Two boys, sons of Mr. Van Order, were dreadfully burned a day or two since on board a canal boat at one of our docks, by their clothes taking fire from a demijohn of ether which had been broken—one of the boys having a light in his hand. [Troy Herald.

Literary Notices.

A "NARRATIVE OF TRAVELS THROUGH ARMENIA, KURDISTAN, PERSIA AND MESAPOTAMIA, with an Introduction, and Occasional Observations upon the Condition of Mahommedanism in those countries: By Rev. HORATIO SOUTHGATE, illustrated with Steel Plates and a Map," has just been published by Appleton & Co. in two fair duodecimos of 690 pages for 75 cents. This for a copyright book is cheap, and the information it contains renders it a highly desirable work, especially for those interested in Oriental affairs or the cause of Missions. The Introduction gives a rapid sketch of the origin and character of the Mahommedan faith, which the succeeding Narrative serves strongly to illustrate.

☞ LECTURES ON MAGDALENISM; Its Nature, Extent, Effects, Guilt, Causes and Remedy: By Rev. RALPH WARDLAW, D. D., (Glasgow:) First American, from the Second Glasgow Edition, has just been published in a small 12mo of 172 pages, by J. S. Redfield, Clinton Hall. It is an able, earnest, and eminently judicious dissertation on one of the most dreadful and destructive vices to which Humanity is subject, treating it with great faithfulness, yet in a manner offensive to no genuine delicacy. We hope this little work will be widely circulated, for it must be efficient in awakening the public mind to the horrible infamy of the Libertine's career, and the awful abyss of degradation, crime and torment into which he plunges his victim and ultimately himself. It cannot be that this book can be widely circulated without leading to energetic action against this monstrous vice from the pure and philanthropic.

"THE LIFE OF THE REV. T. T. THOMASON, M. A. late Chaplain to the Hon. East India Company: By Rev. J. SARGENT, M. A. Author of 'Memoir of Henry Martyn,' has just been issued in the cheap form—by Appleton & Co.—356 pages for 25 cents. It is the life of a Christian Missionary—a devoted, resolute successful one—and to the lovers of Christian Heroism must possess strong attractions.

☞ Dr. FRANCIS MALLORY of Virginia, late Tyler M. C. we hear is to be sent out Resident Minister at Constantinople.—The Captain is right here in appointing an old-fashioned Tyler man; these new Loco-Foco pretenders will cheat him out of his eye-teeth.

FOR SALE—2,142 ACRES OF LAND.—The subscriber, in consequence of his engagements requiring his daily attention for several years in the city of Philadelphia, is induced to offer for sale his Lands and Saw-Mill in Northampton (now Pike) county, Penn. The property consists of five contiguous tracts of land on Rattlesnake creek, in Dingman Township, patented by the State of Pennsylvania to Robert Morris, Esq. and conveyed by him to Alex. Baring, (Lord Ashburton,) Esq., by whose Agent and Trustee, Rich. Willing, Esq. of Philadelphia, it has been conveyed in fee to the subscriber. These lands lie within about 100 rods of the Milford and Owego Turnpike, and extend, for the most part, on both sides of the creek, about 4 miles, to within about 40 rods of the new turnpike from Dingman's Delaware Bridge, now being made under a liberal appropriation from the State. Much of the land is of an excellent quality for farming, and extensive natural meadows may, with but little labor, be prepared for the plough.
