OW WAGES CAUSE OF INDUSTRIAL UNREST

port of Frank P. Walsh, Concurred in by Three Other Commissioners, Complains Bitterly of Existing Conditions.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 28.—Low s was found to be the basic cause industrial unrest in the report ich Frank P. Wash, chairman of federal commission on industrial ations, and the labor members of d body, will present to congress as sult of the commission's two-year estigation into the subject.

The report embodying the personal dings of Mr. Walsh and concurred by Commissioners John R. Lennon, nes O'Connell and Austin B. Garson, was made public here today.

The report in part follows:

"We find the basic cause of industrial dissatisfaction to be low wages, the fact that the workers of the ion through compulsory and ex ive methods, legal and illegal, denied the full products of their .

"Citizens numbering millions smart der a sense of injustice and oppression, born of the conviction that the portunity is denied them to acquire themselves and their families that ree of economic well being necessary for the enjoyment of those material and spiritual satisfactions that ake life worth living.

"Bitterness, bred of unfilled need sufficient food, clothing and shelter for themselves and their wives children, has been further nourished in the hearts of these millions resentment against the arbitrary er that enables the employer, under our present industrial system, to not only the workman's opportunity to earn his bread, but often, through the exercise of this wer, to dictate his social, political moral environment.

"The extent and depth of industrial est can hardly be exaggerated.

"Employers from coast to coast e created and maintained small rate armies of armed men and have used these forces to intimidate and suppress their striking employes by deporting, imprisoning, assaulting and killing their labor leaders. Elaborate spy systems are maintained to discover and forestall the movements of the enemy. The use of state troops in policing strikes has bred a bitter hostility to the militia system.

"Courts, legislatures and governors have been rightfully accused of serving employers to the defeat of justice, and, while counter-charges come from employers and their agents, with almost negligible exceptions it is the wage earners who believe, assert and prove that the very institutions of their country have been perverted by the power of the employer. Prison records for labor leaders have become badges of honor in the eyes of many of their people.

"The unrest of the wage earners has been augmented by recent changes and developments in industry. Chief of these are the rapid and universal introduction and extension of machinery of production by which unskilled workers may be substituted for the skilled, and an equally rapid development of means of rapid transportation and communication by which unskilled workers may be substituted for the skilled, and an equally rapid development of means of rapid transportation and communication by which private capital has been enabled to organize in great corporations, possessing enormous economic power. While vast inherited fortunes automatically multiply in volume, two-thirds of those who toil from eight to twelve hours a day receive less than enough to support themselves and their families in decency and comfort.

"And when these unfortunates seek, by the only means within reach, to better their lot by organizing to lift themselves from helplessness to some measure of collective power, with which to wring living wages from their employers, they find too often arrayed against them not only the massed power of capital but every arm of the government that was created to enforce guarantees of equality and justice.

"We find that many entire communities exist under the arbitrary economic control of corporation officials charged with the management of an industry or group of industries, and we find that in such communities political liberty does not exist and its forms are hollow mockeries.

"The responsibility for the conditions which have been described above, we declare rests primarily upon workers, who, blind to their collective strength and oftentimes deaf to the cries of their fellows, have suffered exploitation and the invasion of their most sacred rights without resistance. A large measure of responsibility must, however, attach to the great mass of citizens. But, until the workers themselves realize their responsibility and unite in full their collective power, no action, whether governmental or altruistic, can work any genuine and lasting improvement.

"We call upon our citizenship, regardless of politics or economic conditions, to use every means of agitation, all avenues of education and every department and function of government to eliminate the injustices exposed by this commission, to the end that each laborer may secure the whole product of his labor."

SOUVENIR COINS IN DEMAND IN GERMANY

[By Evening Herald Leased Wire]

Berlin, Aug. 28.—The Imperial bank has invented a new device for increasing its gold stock. It is aimed at the many memorial gold coins which people either lay aside or wear as jewelry. Thus not a few German women wear brooches or bracelets with three gold coins of 1888, called the "Three-Kaiser Year," bearing the heads of the three emperors who ruled over Germany in that year. Coins of 1913 in commemoration of the present emperor's twenty-fifth year on the throne are similarly treasured. Coins of this kind have not been turned into the Imperial bank out of patriotism, because the owners think that they show their patriotism best by holding on to them. Now the bank is inviting them to surrender the treasured coins and take receipts for them, and promises to return to them similar coins within a year after peace.

SANTA FE COUNTY NOW IN LINE FOR FAIR

Appropriation of $500 Made Today; Fine Exhibit of Resources Promised; Toas Is Next.

Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 28.—With but few preliminaries, the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county today authorized an appropriation of $500 for an exhibit at the New Mexico state fair. The commissioners held a special meeting this morning at which Col. D. K. B. Sellers and H. B. Henine of Albuquerque presented a formal request for the appropriation, which was unanimously consented to. Santa Fe county is proud of its agricultural and horticultural resources and is determined to have a blue ribbon display at the fair.

The sentiment in Santa Fe is very favorable toward the state fair and a large crowd will attend from the capital city and surrounding country.

The actual work of arranging for the exhibit will be directed by County Commissioners George M. Kinsell, Jose Ortiz y Pino and Eusipio Jaqen, all of whom were present at the meeting today and voted for the appropriation.

Prominent among the Santa Fe men who were heartily in favor of the appropriation may be mentioned County Clerk Marcelino Ortiz, Arthur Seligman, Senator Catron, Tom Doran.

FACTORY TOILERS IN BRIDGEPORT VICTORIOUS

Thousands of Workmen to Return to Plants Under Better Conditions; Statewide 8 Hour Day Campaign Begins

[By Evening Herald Leased Wire]

Bridgeport, Conn., Aug. 28.—With industrial conditions improving rapidly and several thousand striking employes of plants ready to resume their labors Monday under the eight-hour day and better shop conditions, factory toilers were in a jubilant mood today.

It was predicted that next week would see but few idle persons in Bridgeport. The labor leaders are expected to transfer their activities to other Connecticut cities, where preliminary efforts are being directed toward building up local unions of various crafts.

Another strike against the Remington Arm and Ammunition company was said this afternoon to be impending. The alleged grievance affects the metal polishers and brasers. The claim is that when wages were advanced the metal polishers did not have their adjustment and that when four of their number sought an interview with officers of the company they were locked out. The executive board of the metal polishers, buffers, platers, brass and silver workers' union will meet Monday to consider the matter.

STATEWIDE CAMPAIGN FOR EIGHT-HOUR DAY

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 28.—The executive committee of the Connecticut Federation of Labor met here today to formulate plans for a statewide campaign for the eight-hour day. Julius O. Stremlau, president of the federation, declared that unions in every city in the state are asking that the federation bring about a campaign for the shorter work day.

"The success of the movement in Bridgeport, where twenty concerns have given the eight-hour days without a wage cut," said Stremlau, "shows that the justice of the demand made by workingmen is being conceded."

CONSPIRACY CHARGE AGAINST ANOTHER CHINESE

Third Arrest in This City in Connection With Alleged Plot to Smuggle Celestials Into Country.

Cha Foy, a Chinese employed at a Central avenue cafe, was arrested yesterday by Immigration Agent V. F. Partch, charged with complicity in a conspiracy to smuggle Chinese from Mexico into this country. He was released under $2,500 bail by Commissioner Whiting.

It was the third arrest made here in connection with the alleged conspiracy. A week ago a Chinese named Kin Wai was arrested on a Santa Fe train, charged with being in the country illegally. A few days later Ong Doo, proprietor of a restaurant on South First street, was arrested, charged with being part of the conspiracy band.

Government agents say they now have evidence involving the Central avenue Chinese, as well as Ong.

One of the smuggled Chinese is said to have made his way to San Francisco from here, while a third made his way to Chicago. A half a dozen people are said to figure in the conspiracy, among them two white men in El Paso.
