Ezra Meeker in Town.

Ezra Meeker, with his long white hair, yet bearing his eighty-two years with considerable sprightliness, arrived in North Platte Tuesday evening driving an ox team attached to the original type of the prairie schooner.

This trail was laid out during the rush to the gold fields of California, and traces of it may still be pointed out by old residents along the way.

This week marks the sixtieth anniversary of the first time this trail was traveled by this quaint old man who traveled through what is now North Platte on May 25, 1852. At that time he traveled in a "prairie schooner" drawn by oxen, the trip being made in that manner of travel most in vogue and most practical at that time.

Married at High Noon.

A wedding marked by its simplicity occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winkelman at high noon Wednesday when their eldest daughter Edith became the bride of John Carroll. The marriage vows were taken in the corner of the parlor where pink and white roses and ferns were used in abundance. Rev. McDaid officiated. The bride's gown was a pale blue messaline with trimmings of lace and gold beads. She held a large bouquet of brides roses and fern leaves. Her attendant was Miss Fern Perkins who wore a white embroidered dress and carried pink roses. Solmie Ward stood with the groom. Mendleah's wedding march was played by Miss May Winters. After the congratulations a buffet lunch was served in which the color scheme of pink and white predominated. Misses Carroll, Winkelman and Winters assisted in serving. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Denver to spend their honeymoon after which they will receive their friends at 2nd and Locust streets.

Mrs. Carroll has resided here for a number of years and is considered by all who know her to be a very amiable bright and charitable young lady. For several years she has been employed as a teacher in rural schools and proved a favorite with pupils and patrons. The groom during his short residence in the city has gained the friendship of all with whom he came in contact. He holds a position in Foreman Berry's office and is trust worthy employee. Their many friends wish them happiness.

F. W. Lewis, of Crawford, was married last week to Miss Spooner, of Iowa. Mr. Lewis is general agent for the International Harvester Company and has frequently visited his cousin Mac Westfall and transacted business in town, being well known among the commercial men.

Newspaper Announcement.

There never was such a time in the history of this country for newspaper reading, and it is important to read a paper of impartial views—one that is free from any office-seeking or office-holding influences. The important thing to a general newspaper like the Lincoln State Journal is to get the readers, as it has no trouble holding them by its quality. The cheapest way to get new readers is to make a special price, which we now do—only $2 for the daily and Sunday paper until January 1, 1913—much less than the regular price. At that time the paper will stop coming unless you order it continued and pay in advance for it. You really cannot afford to be without this capital city paper when you can secure it at such a price. Send $2 to the Lincoln State Journal today and the paper will come to you regularly the remainder of this year. It will be a lively year, too.

Notice to Owners of Dogs.

Under the city ordinances it is the duty of the chief of police to kill any dog which he may find running at large on which the license tax has not been paid for the current year beginning May 1st, 1912, and a license tag attached to the collar of said dog. The license tags for male dogs cost $1.00 and for female dog $3.00. License tags are now ready at my office. C. F. TEMPLE, City Clerk. 33-7
