BURIAL OF THE GREAT.

BY MRS. J. W. MERCUR.

Slowly they bear the noble unto rest,
Amidst the forms which have so long laid low
In Death's calm stillness, 'neath Earth's beauteous breast,
Beside the Tiber's bright inchanging flow.

They bear him on, whose time-unsullied brow
In life had worn full many a laurel wreath,
Whose arm lies powerless 'neath Death's Angel now,
Through Time no more he, bright sword to unsheath.

No more unsheath—no more to bear the brave
Down to the earth upon the field of strife;
No more to see his country's banner wave
With the glad triumphs of victory rife.

They bear him on—whose memory knows no stain—
To the dark precincts of the narrow tomb,
To revel 'midst the cherished ones again
Where flowers of earth immortally shall bloom.

They halt—they lower the noble to his rest,
'Mid gorgeous scenes of pageantry and show;
Rich banners wave o'er his unconscious breast,
And trophies gleam in yonder sunset* glow.

Rare statues then that long procession graze,*
Of friends from earth who long have mourned before,
In whose bright lineaments we fondly trace
The brave, the noble, who return no more.

And now, like theirs, his voice has ceased to cheer
The weary pilgrim on life's troubled way—
Has ceased to glad the patriotic ear
With the wild snatches of his country's lay.

His sword lies law upon his pulseless breast,
His shield no more in yonder sun shall glow,
No more shall wave the ever-gallant crest,
Of him outstretched in Death's still pomp below.

In Death's still pomp—Oh! vain is all the show,
Above the glorious slumber of the grave,
Who know it not who dreamless sleep below,
The good of earth—the noble and the brave.

Towanda, Pa.

* "The Romans had a custom of carrying in procession at the Funerals of their great men, the images of their ancestors."

BUFFALO HUNT.—They have been "going it" at the East with their hurdle races, and foot races, and what not; but we have our novelties as well. The latest was a grand buffalo hunt, which came off on Sunday afternoon, along Washington Avenue. He "lumbered" along, with his nose to the ground, with any variety of the tribes after him—gigs, sulkies, buggies, horseback and a-foot, all up and yelling. There was considerable shying at different times among the hunters, their steeds not being properly broken to the sport—some of them, moreover, apparently being anxious to reverse the order of instruction, and break in their masters. We don't know whence the buffalo came, or whither it went; we were happy enough, however, to catch a sight of this sport. (St. Louis Reveille.

SINGULAR DISAPPEARANCE.—Capt. Abel Towner, formerly of the Friendship, a packet running between Cincinnati and Richmond, Ohio, left his home about six weeks ago, early in the morning, in a summer suit of clothes, and has not since been heard of. He was a highly respectable man, and there were strong apprehensions that he had met some melancholy end.

HORRIBLE CIRCUMSTANCE.—A Scotch paper states that some weeks ago a young man, named Taylor, in sport, seized a timid young woman, on the bridge of Bracklin, near Stirling, a frail wooden structure, which stretched over a fearful chasm, and forced her on the narrow footway, when she, in terror, caught the rails, which immediately gave way, and both were precipitated into the abyss below—The body of Taylor, dreadfully mangled, was carried away by the stream. The female was taken up alive, but without any prospect of recovery.

ANOTHER VESSEL BURNT.—The brig Albino, Buxton, master, from Camden, Me. bound to New Orleans, 24 days out, with a cargo of 2200 casks of lime, took fire at S. W. Pass, opposite the Pilot Light-house, on the 19th inst. and burnt to the water's edge. The vessel is supposed to have been insured.

PATENT ELASTIC SHOULDER-BRACE.

THIS ARTICLE is intended to brace the shoulders and expand the chest, and has been found indispensable to all persons who have acquired the habit of stooping, either from weakness, confinement, or study. Parents and guardians are particularly requested to examine this article. It is highly recommended by many eminent professional gentlemen for the use of children of either sex. They can be worn with perfect ease, offering no repugnance to the free use of the arms, while they strengthen the back and shoulders and improve and beautify the form.

The public are cautioned against a number of unworthy imitations of the Elastic Brace, which are being introduced at different places throughout the country, as none are genuine except those stamped with the names and place of business of the subscribers. PARSELLS & AGATE.

AMERICAN ELASTIC SUSPENDERS AND WEBBING.—The surprising perfection attained by the late improvements of the subscriber, in compounding India Rubber and adapting it to the manufacture of elastic Webbing, by the aid of his new machinery warrants him in saying that the Suspenders now offered for sale by him are the best ever made.

Among the advantages he claims in his mode of manufacture over that of Mr. Grosjean, is freedom from the sulphurous smell so inseparable from G.'s. The peculiar and exclusive property of retaining their elasticity, and the great increase of stiffness without additional bulk or weight. It is a common complaint among those who have used Mr. G.'s suspenders that they lose their elasticity after being worn a short time. This is entirely obviated by Day's process, and dealers in suspenders or webbing are invited to examine the goods at No. 2 Maiden lane. LORIN BROOKS—I, the undersigned, am happy to inform the public, particularly the gentlemen and those who are more desirous of trading with one more than ordinary ease, elegance and speed, and with infinitely less physical exertion, that I am fully convinced that Brooks's Elastic Metallic Shank Boot is a decided improvement on any and every thing of the kind before introduced, and that it tends very materially to increase the facilities for running, walking, &c. I have, these last five years, walked many thousand miles, and run some hundreds, but I must say that I never experienced so little fatigue in treading the same distance, and at the speed, as I did yesterday in running ten miles and a quarter over the Jerseys. Course, which I am satisfied is, to a considerable extent, attributable to the admirably constructed Elastic Metallic Shank Boot, manufactured by Mr. LORIN BROOKS, No. 138 Fulton street, which I had the good fortune to wear, coming in conquerer. Be the gratification to my mind what it may, at the result, I must acknowledge that I am much indebted to Mr. Brooks and the Elastic Metalic Shanks, for which I offer him many thanks, and recommend them to all with a hearty good will. DAGUERREOTYPES.

FIRST PREMIUM DAGUERREOTYPES.—PLUMBE, DAGUERREAN GALLERY OF PATENT PREMIUM COLORED PHOTOGRAPHS, 251 Broadway, above Murray street, New York, awarded the first premium and highest honor, by American and Franklin Institutes, and the Medal at Boston Fair, for the most beautiful colored Daguerreotypes ever exhibited.

The "Tribune" of this morning contains the following incorrect statement in reference to the awards of the American Institute, on Saturday last:

"The first premium for the best specimen of Daguerreotype likenesses was awarded to Messrs. Anthony, Edwards, & Co."

The true version is this—

"To Messrs. Anthony, Edwards & Co.; to Plumbe; and to Mr. Brady, each a Diploma, for superior specimens of Daguerreotypes."

The Institute did not decide where were the best; but to settle that point, I now respectfully challenge the above named gentlemen, (and the world) to a fair trial of skill; each competitor to deposit a like amount—not less than one hundred nor exceeding one thousand dollars—and the whole to be awarded, by a competent committee, to the owner of the best six pictures. Oct. 25, 1844. [o30] JOHN PLUMBE, Jr.

NEW-YORK DAGUERRIAN MINIATURE GALLERY, corner of Broadway and Fulton, entrance in Fulton third door from the corner—where may be had miniatures which for beauty of color, tone and effect, cannot but commend themselves, and if not superior, are equal to any that have been heretofore taken. Mr. B. does not claim superiority for himself, but leaves his pictures to the criticism of a just and intelligent public, who, as well as strangers, are invited to call at the Gallery, before going elsewhere, whether they intend sitting or not.

Likenesses in all cases warranted to give satisfaction, and colored in most beautiful manner; and in which Mr. B. does claim superiority, it being filled by a competent and practical person. Taken in all weathers from 8 A M to 5 P M. Instructions carefully given in the art.

M. B. BRADY.

UNITED STATES DAGUERRIAN GALLERY 175 BROADWAY, UP STAIRS.—E. WHITE would respectfully call the attention of citizens and strangers visiting the city, to his splendid collection of Daguerreotype Portraits, single or in groups from 2 to 14 persons on the same plate, which for beauty and accuracy of delineation cannot be surpassed. Portraits taken in all kinds of weather, either with or without the sun. The prices of which he has reduced to those charged by the most inexperienced in the business.

The American institute at its late exhibition awarded Mr. White the First Premium for the best Daguerreotype Likenesses, (for grouping and general effect) which is but another proof of the superiority of his Portraits.

Mr. White is sole agent in New York for the very superior imported German Cameras, and at no other establishment in the city or state can they be obtained.

N. B.—Imported Daguerreotype Cameras, also French and American instruments of the very best quality, with Plates, Cases Chemicals Polishing materials, &c.

Mr. White's Case Manufactory being the largest and most extensive in the United States, he is enabled (from the quantity he manufactures) to sell Daguerreotype Miniature Cases, 40 per cent lower than any other house in the Union. s18 yc

A MOST BLESSED, STRANGE, ASTOUNDING AND MIRACULOUS INVENTION, TO CURE CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS AND CLEAR, DARK, SUN-BURNT, YELLOW, DISCOLORED OR FRECKLED SKIN.

MANY—ay, there are many who have been cheated with trash, and therefore think the powers of the genuine Jones's Sulphur Soap are not; yet, such give it fair trial, it is indeed the most singularly wonderfully curative preparations ever made, in all skin diseases. In fact, it seldom or never fails in curing

Pimples, Blotches, Pressles, Tan, Morpiew,
Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Erysipelas, Barber's Itch,
Ringworm, Old Sores, and Sore Heads.

But mind, it is Jones's Soap has done, and still effects these cures. We expect you to buy it more than once, as we warrant it to possess the following qualities: It will force the hair to grow on any part where Nature intended hair to grow, stop it falling off, cure Scurf or Dandruff, and make light, red or grey hair grow dark. For dressing the hair soft and silky, nothing excels this. It is indeed the most economical, yet superior, article made for the hair. It is cheaper than the trash called hair oils, and it will keep the hair in order with one application twice as long as any other article made.
