Wonderful Minute Shells.

There is a sand bank at Connemara, on the west coast of Ireland, that is the Mecca of every curiosity seeker who is fortunate enough to know of its existence. As a general thing sand banks are not a great attraction, but in this particular case the attractive power is not in the sand itself, but in the millions of extinct miniature shells which are almost as numerous as the grains of sand with which they are intermingled. The largest of these little wonders is smaller than the smallest pinhead and some of them so minute that they can easily be put through the eye of a common sewing needle, yet each is as perfect as the pearly nautilus, the spider shell, the sea urchin or any other marine oddity.

They are of all shapes and forms imaginable. One will have the perfect outlines of a miniature basket, another will look like a fairy's tobacco box, while a third needs no effort of the imagination to give it the form of a bottle. The flash shells of Ceylon and Australia are the only living representatives of these conchological wonders. Naturalists who have examined the Ceylonese flash shells say that each is filled with a tiny bit of jellylike substance, which of course is the animal itself, but which is so infinitesimal that no distinction can be observed between head and heart, mouth and stomach.

Eskimo Mythology.

Among the Eskimos the sun is a maiden, and the moon is her brother who is overcome by a wicked passion for her. Once as this girl was at a dancing party in a friend's hut some one came up and took hold of her by the shoulders and shook her, which is, according to the legend, the Eskimo manner of declaring one's love. She could not tell who it was in the dark, and so she slipped her hand in some soot and smeared one of his cheeks with it. When a light was struck in the hut, she saw to her dismay that it was her brother, and without waiting to learn any more she took to her heels. He started in hot pursuit. And so they ran until they got to the end of the world, the jumping off place, when they both jumped into the sky. There the moon still chases his sister, the sun, and every now and then he turns his sooty cheek to the earth, when he becomes so dark that you cannot see him.

Raw Eggs.

When raw eggs are ordered for an invalid to whom they are objectionable, make as palatable as possible by having the egg as cold as one can make it and then serve it from a cold glass as soon as it is opened. Of course it is useless to serve any save perfectly fresh eggs.

If the white alone is to be taken, it should be beaten with a whisk until very stiff and frothy, then seasoned with salt or sugar, whichever is preferred, and eaten with a spoon.

Some who object to an egg beaten in a glass of milk, sweetened and flavored, can take the egg if the sugar is omitted and the flavoring extract replaced by brandy.—What to Eat.

Women and Money.

If you would have your women folk economical, let them handle money and learn to respect its value. There may be women who have not sufficient womanliness to honor the confidence this trust implies, but they are exceptions. If such be your daughters, it is your business to teach them otherwise. If they be your wives, it is your own fault for having married them. When a father gives his son an allowance, he should do the same for his daughter, not as a matter of material favor, for the daughter's bills might double the son's allowance, but as a matter of discipline, of financial experience and education.—Collier's.

The Story of Bishop Hatto.

Bishop Hatto was a wicked prelate who lived in 970 on the banks of the Rhine, where he owned a tower, which is at the present day pointed out to travelers as the Mouse tower. Here are stored large quantities of grain. A famine ensued, and the bishop invited the people to his granaries. As soon as they were there he set fire to the building and burned up the people. The next morning the souls of the dead appeared as an army of rats and not only destroyed everything belonging to the bishop, but finished by making a meal of his person.

Quick Wit.

Regnier, the French actor, had once to call out to a fellow actor who was expected to enter from the right wing, "Ha, ha—there you are!" For some unaccountable reason, however, the actor came on the stage on the left side, and Regnier, without being in the least disconcerted, gave his call and added, with a smile, "I saw you in the looking glass."

A Widow.

"Can any little boy or girl tell me the meaning of the word widow?" asked the teacher. "Well, Willie?" to an urchin who waved his hand vigorously.

"A widow," said Willie breathlessly, "is a man's wife that's lost her husband."

Books.

"I have something exceedingly rare in the way of books."

"Thanks. When it comes to a book, I prefer one that is well done."—Harper's Bazar.

Looked That Way.

Jones—Was your burglar alarm any good?

Johnson—It must have been. The burglars took it.—Kansas City Independent.

What comes from the heart goes to the heart.—Coleridge.

The fashionable skirt is to be made with horizontal plaits, three or four starting from the hips, carried round to the back and falling in natural folds to the ground. It is a very pretty style and most becoming. The bodices are also plaited horizontally and blouse slightly over a narrow belt. Button trimmings are greatly to the fore, the tiniest of flat gold buttons being the most popular. This button trimming is distinctly Breton and has a quaint air all its own.

OFFICIAL NOTICE.

Office of Board of Public Instruction of Volusia County, Florida—

In compliance with the provisions of Chapter 4997, Laws of Florida, I hereby give notice that I will hold a competitive examination at DeLand, Florida, in the Public School Building, on Friday and Saturday, August 7th and 8th, 1903, for the purpose of filling the vacancy in the State Normal School at DeFuniak Springs

The scholarship is open to any young man or young woman of Volusia county between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five, of good moral character, competent to pass an examination for a third grade teacher's certificate.

The beneficiary will receive $100 a year in eight cash payments for two years, and before receiving the first payment will be required to sign a written agreement binding himself or herself to teach in the public schools of this State, health permitting, for at least four years of the six years next succeeding the expiration of the scholarship, of refund to the State the money received from the scholarship.

The person who accepts the appointment will be required to enter school at the opening session in October, or forfeit the appointment. BERT FISH,

Supt. Public Instruction.

DeLand, Fla., July 24, 1903.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Fuxico, Wayne Co., Mo., writes "I have little twin girls who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches; the other child was relieved of four worms. It is a most excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms, it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. 25c at J. M. Jones.

Men plead guilty to crimes in courts and are sentenced to imprisonment until they get a chance to plead not guilty to the State Board of Pardons and get released and thus it goes and lynchings continue.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

For a lazy liver try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They invigorate the liver, aid the digestion, regulate the bowels and prevent bilious attacks. For sale by all druggists.

A careful test at Ann Arbor, Mich., college, has demonstrated that the average college girl, after one year of gymnasium work, gains about 37 cubic inches in lung capacity. This indicates a correspondingly large increase in ability to talk without having to stop for breath.—Pensacola Journal.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are just what you need when you have no appetite, feel dull after eating and wake up with a bad taste in your mouth. They will improve your appetite, cleanse and invigorate your stomach and give you a relish for your food. For sale by all druggists.

Strap effects are much in vogue on high shoes and slippers. The high shoes may be fastened with eight or nine of these straps, each ornamented with a small buckle in silver, gilt or bronze. These straps have superseded the colonial buckles on low ties.

Cholera Infantum.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle and a cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

The "Mother's Birthday Club of Germany" has just been formed in Berlin. Its object is to prevent race suicide, and each member on the birth of a child will receive from $200 to $600. There is an entrance fee of $5 and a quarterly subscription of $1.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by all druggists.

Figures recently published in Christiana show that the amount of money sent home from the United States by emigrants from Norway last year was $3,780,000.

Watch for a Chill.

However slight at this time of year and in this climate, it is the forerunner of malaria. A disposition to yawn and an all tired out feeling even comes before the chill. Herbine, by its prompt stimulative action on the liver, drives the malarial germs out of the system, purifies the blood, tones up the system and restores health. 50c at J. M. Jones.

This year the custom receipts of the United States will exceed $300,000,000 and the internal revenue $220,000,000. From miscellaneous sources will come $40,000,000 more.

All Druggists Will Buy it Back.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All Druggists will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful remedy in use for bowel complaints and the only one that never fails. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

GRAND ARMY REPUBLIC.

Thirty-Seventh Annual Encampment San Francisco, August 17--22.

To Comrades, their Families and Friends:

Our Thirty-Seventh Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held at San Francisco, California, August 17th to 22nd, inclusive.

We expect to carry from Florida, Georgia and South Carolina the largest delegation that ever attended an occasion of this kind, as the greatest enthusiasm prevails among our comrades everywhere over the approaching Encampment.

The Florida, Georgia and South Carolina department has been fortunate to secure very low rates, with a liberal limit of tickets, and this of itself will insure a large attendance from these states. The Georgia and South Carolina camps have selected an official route which we hope will be satisfactory to all. We expect to leave Atlanta, Ga., Monday, August 10, at 8:22 a.m., in a through tourist sleeper which will run to San Francisco without change. The route will be via Chattanooga, Nashville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver and Salt Lake City, where our party will stop and view the "City of the Saints" and the Great Salt Lake.

The Georgia and South Carolina camps extend an invitation to all the Florida comrades, their families and friends.

Make your preparations now to join us and we will all have a glorious trip.

If you want any information regarding this trip, such as rates, schedules, and sleeping car accommodations, write to E. J. WALKER, No. 212 West Bay street, Jacksonville, Fla.

By command of F. D. LEE, Department Commander.

Headquarters Department of Georgia and South Carolina, G. A. R., Fitzgerald, Ga. Official: A. W. KEENY, Asst. Adj. General and Quartermaster General.
