STAVES—The market quotations are as before given, and there is very little doing. Contrary to expectations, there were no orders received by the Great Western. A parcel is going forward to Havre for freight.

PLASTER—Eastern for agricultural purposes is worth $3 per ton, delivered up the river, at which the last cargoes received, were sold.

GROCERIES.—The sale to-day of Teas per ships Natchez and Cincinnati drew a good company, but generally the bids did not meet the views of the owners, and only a small portion of the Young Hyson was sold. The Skins and Blacks sold pretty well, the latter at an improvement if any thing. Imperial and Gunpowder did not do very well. At the Coffee sale 710 bags Rio were sold at 7⅞, 4 mos. showing a firm market. At the Sugar sale, 75 hhds New-Orleans inferior brought 6 25 a 6 31½ per 100 lbs, showing no particular change. At private bargain there is very little doing to-day.

FRUIT.—At auction, 560 boxes Genoa Lemons in bad order, brought 75c a $1 50, and 20 boxes Oranges $1 75 per box.

SEEDS.—There is a continued demand for Clover, and within a few days upward of 200 tcs not free have been taken at 5¼ a 6¼c, mostly at 6¼ a 6½c. Of Odessa Linseed 2000 bushels sold from store at $1 43, cash, deliverable in bulk. The shipments of Flax Seed from this port this and the previous twenty years are as follows:

"FOR BUNKUM."

CORRUGATED SUSPENDERS.—Well, Master Humbuger, Captain of "nine lawsuits in the United States Courts!" what think you of the "Spring Trade?" Has your injunction restrained all Manufacturers, or are there yet "some who persist in doing the same?" and yet continue to do the same, and threaten to break down and destroy your Orator's aforesaid business by the kind and quality of said goods they threaten to make and throw into the market? Has your Orator been greatly injured and exposed to irreparable wrong by the kind and quality of said goods? Has "your Orator" had "relief"—has "your Orator" ceased to urge and demand "the relief prayed," while "your Orator" is basking in the sunshine of his "relief?"

The subscribers will continue to manufacture and supply the public, on liberal terms, with a superior article of Corrugated or Slitted Suspenders, warranted entirely free from sulphur, that gentlemen may wear and not be exposed to a suspicion sometimes attending the smell of sulphur.
