An important decision in bankruptcy under the involuntary branch of the Bankrupt Act, made by Judge Catron in the United States Circuit Court, holden at St. Louis, and at the present term—1845. It was in the case of Walker & Kennett, who, having made an assignment while the Bankrupt act was in force, in which certain creditors were preferred, were on petition of one of the non-preferred creditors forced into bankruptcy by the District Court on the ground that the assignment was in conflict with the Bankrupt Act. After being thus forced into bankruptcy, on the hearing of their petition the District Court refuse t to grant a discharge under said act; believing that where persons had been forced into that Court under the involuntary branch of said act, i. e. the assignment so as aforesaid made by them was fraudulent in law, although the same might not have so been in fact! To the decision Messrs. Kennett & Walker excepted and appealed to the United States Circuit Court, and the hearing and argument was had at its present April term, when Justice Catron held and so decided, that although the petitioners were forced into bankruptcy against their will, yet the assignment made by them was not such a fraud within the meaning and contemplation of said act as to bar them from their discharge, and decreed that the petitioners be discharged of all their debts, &c. and a certificate granted them to that effect.

The stockholders of the Bank of Geauga held a meeting at Painesville on the 29th ult. and elected Ralph Cowles, of Chardon, President; George Mygatt, of Painesville, Cashier, and the requisite number of Directors. The Geauga Republican states that they are preparing to commence banking under the new bank law, upon the independent plan. To the branch of the State Bank at Dayton $45,000 has been subscribed, mostly by the stockholders of the old Dayton Bank. At Cincinnati Jacob Strader & Co. and their associates, have purchased State Stock, and taken the preliminary steps to become incorporated under the Independent part of the new banking law—to be called the Branch of the Commercial Bank of Cincinnati—capital $50,000. Groesbeck & Co. and their associates, have made application to be incorporated under the State Bank of Ohio with a capital of $169,000, to be called the Branch of the Franklin Bank of Cincinnati. Another Company, it is stated, is forming, with a view of being incorporated as an independent Bank.

MRS. SIGOURNEY'S CHILD'S BOOK,

Containing stories and sketches for the amusement and instruction of young children. Full of engravings, and very neatly bound in cloth gilt.

THE BOOK FOR BOYS—Containing Original Sketches in Prose and Poetry. By the same author. In one neat lemo volume.

THE BOOK FOR GIRLS—Containing original articles, written for the instruction of quite young ladies. By the same author. Bound in a neat volume, with plates. Price 50 cents. Published by TURNER & HAYDEN, may12 No. 10 John street, near Broadway.

POETRY AND HISTORY OF WYOMING—Containing Campbell's Gertrude, and the History of Wyoming, from its discovery to the beginning of the present century; By Wm. L. Stone, author of "The life of Brant," "Life and Times of Red Jacket," &c.

POETRY AND HISTORY OF WYOMING.—This is a charming book—fresh and fragrant as the lovely place it commemorates. It contains Campbell's Poem, besides Col. Stone's "History of Wyoming," very much extended and improved from the first edition. It has also a "Biographical Sketch of Thomas Campbell," from the graceful pen of our American classic, Irving, which, like a Grecian column in a landscape, imparts an air of chastened and subdued harmony to the wild and luxuriant beauty amid which it is placed. CONANT'S PATENT YEAST.

ACCORDING to an old maxim, "Bread is the Staff of Life," but it is certain that good, healthful bread—sweet, light and digestible—is by no means easily obtained, and myriads of persons are obliged to wander along without that essential staff. Chemical science and research were never expended for a more necessary and useful purpose than in the discovery of the material which should promptly and certainly produce good bread. That great desideratum has been obtained by the skill and patience of Mr. CONANT, of Lowell, who has ascertained the ingredients requisite for the procuring of super excellent bread as quickly as the flour can be kneaded and baked.

It is demonstrable that, by the old slow process of vinous fermentation, much of the nutritious portion of the flour is extracted; but by the application of CONANT'S PATENT YEAST, instantaneous effervescence directly follows, and all the saccharine properties of the meal are retained, thus securing the entire nourishment which the flour naturally includes.

AGENCIES established in Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Alexandria, Richmond, and in several of the Principal Towns in New-England, New-York State, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

The rates of this Society are as low as those of the American Companies, and LOWER THAN THE SCALE ADOPTED BY MANY LONDON OFFICES. Loans granted to the extent of two-thirds the amount of premiums paid, after the lapse of a year.

The admirable system of Life insurance which this Institution has organized, and which has secured for it such marked distinction in Europe, has obtained for it the highest favor in America. During the short period of its establishment in the United States its principles have now the unqualified approval of many eminent men; and the patronage it has received fully tests the public confidence in its favor. A pamphlet has been published by the General Agent, and can be obtained at his office, explanatory of Life Insurance in general, and of the N. L. F. Society's system in particular.

Persons insured in the United States on the scale of participation, enjoy the important advantage of sharing in the whole business of the Society, which in Great Britain is very extensive.

The public are respectfully requested to examine the distinguishing principles of this Institution—their tables of rates—their distribution of profits—and the facilities afforded by their Loan Department—before deciding to insure elsewhere.

The General Agent is authorized to accept risks in sums not exceeding $10,000 on each on a single life—and to bind the Society from the date on which the premium is actually paid to him. This authority is deposited for security with J. J. Palmer, Esq. the President of the Merchants' Bank in New-York.

Pamphlets containing the last Annual Report, and much general information, together with the Society's rates—also blank forms, and the fullest information may be obtained upon application to any agent or sub-agent.

A Medical Examiner is in attendance at the office daily, at 3 o'clock P. M. Fee paid by the Society. The expense of stamp duty need not be incurred.
